

IN THE SUPREME COURT, KING'S BENCH DIVISION.

In the Matter of Adams Burns Company, Limited, and its winding-up under "The Companies' Winding-up Act," Chapter 90, of the Consolidated Statutes of New Brunswick, 1903, and amending Acts.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that the Honourable Mr. Justice White did on the fifth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twelve, make an order that Adams Burns Company, Limited, be wound up under the provisions of "The Companies' Winding-up Act," Chapter 90 of the Consolidated Statutes of New Brunswick, 1903, and amending Acts, and did thereby fix and appoint the ninth day of April, A. D. 1912, at the Judges' Chambers, in the Parliament Buildings, in the City of Fredericton, at the hour of four o'clock in the afternoon, as the time and place for the appointment of a Curator or Curators of said Adams Burns Company, Limited, and at said last mentioned time and place, said Honourable Mr. Justice White, did make a further order, whereby he appointed the undersigned Patrick J. Burns and James P. Byrne Curators of said Adams Burns Company, Limited, and of the estate and effects thereof, which said last mentioned order is in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"In the Supreme Court, King's Bench Division—In the Matter of Adams Burns Company, Limited, and its winding-up under 'The Companies' Winding-up Act,' Chapter 90, of the Consolidated Statutes of New Brunswick, 1903, and amending Acts. Upon reading the order made by me on the fifth day of March last past, for the winding up of the above named Company, whereby I appointed the ninth day of April, 1912, at the Judge's Chambers, in the Parliament Buildings, in the City of Fredericton, at the hour of four o'clock in the afternoon, as the time and place for the appointment of a Curator or Curators of said Adams Burns Company, Limited, and upon hearing read the affidavit of George Gilbert, of the publication thereof as required by said order, and upon hearing Mr. George Gilbert, counsel for the petitioner, and what was alleged in said petition, and no other persons appearing: It is hereby ordered, that Patrick J. Burns, of the Parish of Bathurst, in the County of Gloucester, Merchant, and James P. Byrne, of the same place, Barrister-at-Law, be, and they are hereby appointed Curators of the above named Adams Burns Company, Limited, and of the estate and effects thereof, under 'The Companies' Winding-up Act' and amending Acts.

"And it is further ordered, that the said Patrick J. Burns, and James P. Byrne, as such Curators, before entering upon their duties as such Curators, do forthwith give security in the sum of Five Thousand Dollars each, with two sureties, in separate Bonds to His Majesty, to my satisfaction, conditioned according to the practice of the Court, for the faithful performance of their duties as such Curators, and for the faithful accounting for and handing over of all moneys and properties of the Company which shall come to their hands, as such Curators, as required by law or by the order or orders of the Court.

"And it is hereby further ordered, that this order shall be embodied in the twelve weeks' notice to be given by the Curators.

"Dated this 9th day of April, A. D. 1912.

(Signed) "A. S. WHITE, J. S. C."

And we, the undersigned Curators, after the making of said last mentioned order, did give security as thereby required, to His Majesty, to the satisfaction of said Honourable Mr. Justice White. And we the undersigned Curators do hereby call upon all persons owing the said Adams Burns Company, Limited, to pay up at the office of the Company at Bathurst.

And Notice is hereby given, that all creditors of the said Adams Burns Company, Limited, are required to file their claims against the Company, verified by oath in Form (A) of "The Companies' Winding-up Act" within three months from the first publication of this notice, with the undersigned Curators, at the office of the Company in Bathurst, New Brunswick.

Dated this eleventh day of May, A. D. 1912.

PATRICK J. BURNS,

JAMES P. BYRNE,

Curators.
