

AN ACT TO FURTHER AMEND CHAPTER 146 OF THE CONSOLIDATED STATUTES, 1903, BEING "THE WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION FOR INJURIES ACT."

(Passed 20th April, 1912.)

Be it enacted by the Lieutenant-Governor and Legislative Assembly, as follows:

1. Section 2, sub-section (3) of "The Workmen's Compensation for Injuries Act," and Section 1 of 8 Edward VII., Chapter 31, being "An Act in further Amendment of Chapter 146 of the Consolidated Statutes 1903, being 'The Workmen's Compensation for Injuries Act,'" are hereby repealed, and the following enacted in lieu thereof:

"(3) 'Workman' does not include a person whose employment is of a casual nature and otherwise than for the purpose of the employer's trade or business, or a domestic or menial servant, or a servant in husbandry, gardening or fruit growing, or in lumbering, or in driving, rafting or booming logs, or a person employed as a clerk in an office or in a wholesale or retail shop or store, or a person employed as a seaman or fisherman, where the personal injury caused to any such servant or person has been occasioned by, or has arisen from or in the usual course of his work or employment as a domestic or menial servant, or as a servant in husbandry, gardening or fruit growing, or in lumbering, or in driving, or in booming logs, or as a clerk in an office or wholesale or retail shop or store, or as a seaman or fisherman; but save as aforesaid means any railway servant, ship laborer, longshoreman, quarryman, miner, granite worker, stone cutter, pond man and any person who, being a laborer, servant, journeyman, artificer, handicraftsman or otherwise engaged in manual labor, whether under the age of twenty-one years or above that age, has entered into or works under a contract with an employer, whether the contract was made before or after the passing of this Act, and whether such contract is expressed or implied oral or in writing, and is a contract of service, or a contract personally to execute any work or labor."

2. Sub-section 1 (a) of Section 5 of the Act 8 Edward VII., Chapter 31, is hereby repealed, and the following enacted in lieu thereof:

"(a) If the workman leaves any dependents who at the time of his death reside in Canada and are partially or wholly dependent upon his earnings, a sum equal to his earnings in the employment of the same employer during the three years next preceding the injury, but not exceeding in any case two thousand dollars ($2,000); provided, that the amount of any weekly payments made under this Act shall be deducted from such sum, and if the period of the workman's employment by the said employer has been less than the said three years, then the amount of his earnings during the said three years shall be deemed to be one hundred and fifty-six times his average weekly earnings during the period of his actual employment under the said employer."

3. The first clause of sub-section (2) of Section 5 of 8 Edward VII., Chapter 31, is hereby repealed, and the following enacted in lieu thereof:

"(2) Where the total or partial incapacity for work results from the injury, a weekly payment during the incapacity not to exceed seventy-five per cent. of his average weekly earnings during the previous twelve months, if he has been so long employed, but if not, then for a less period during which he has been in the employment of the same employer; such weekly payment not to exceed ten dollars ($10); provided that:"

4. Sub-section (b) of sub-section (2) of Section 5 of the Act 8 Edward VII., Chapter 31, is hereby repealed, and the following sub-section substituted in lieu thereof:

"(b) If the incapacity lasts for more than one hundred (100) weeks, and is due to total blindness of both eyes, the loss of an arm or leg, or both, the total disability of a limb or the loss of a hand or foot, or both, compensation shall be payable in respect thereof to not exceeding two hundred (200) weeks, and"

5. Section 7 of the Act 8 Edward VII., Chapter 31, is hereby repealed, and the following substituted in lieu thereof:

"7. Section 7 of Chapter 146 of the Consolidated Statutes, 1903, is amended as follows: Strike out the words 'twelve weeks and' in line five thereof, and substitute therefor the following: 'two months, except in case where reasonable excuse is furnished for failure to give such notice within said time, and such notice is given as soon thereafter as possible, and unless'—"

6. Section 6 of the Act 1 George V., Chapter 43 is hereby amended by substituting "XXX" for "XXI" in the first line thereof.

7. The provisions of this Act shall not entitle a workman to any greater compensation in respect of personal injury caused to such workman before the coming into force of this Act than that which hitherto would have been payable in respect thereof.
