CAP. XXX.

An Act to further amend "The Liquor License Act," Chapter 22, Consolidated Statutes, 1903.

(Passed 20th March, 1913.)

Be it enacted by the Lieutenant-Governor and Legislative Assembly, as follows:—

1. Any person having reason to believe that intoxicating liquor is being imported by any person or persons unlawfully into a county, city or town in which the Canada Temperance Act is in force, or into any locality where the sale of liquor is prohibited, under the provisions of the Liquor License Act, or into any parish where Liquor Licenses have been cancelled under the provisions of Chapter 36 of the Acts of the Legislative Assembly 3 Edward VII, may make information to that effect before a Justice of the Peace or Police Magistrate who is hereby authorized to issue a warrant for the seizure of such liquor and that the same may be brought before him.

2. Any person to whom the said liquor is addressed shall upon the seizure thereof be notified of such seizure, and be required to show cause why the same should not be destroyed by the order of the said Justice of the Peace or Police Magistrate; and if said person is unable to show, that such liquor is being brought into said county, city, town, parish or locality for a lawful purpose, the said Justice of the Peace or Police Magistrate may order the same to be destroyed by any sheriff, inspector or constable, otherwise said liquor shall be restored to the person to whom the same was addressed.

3. The said warrant may be executed by any constable or sheriff, and said information and warrant may be in the Form (A) and (B) hereto; and the order to destroy said liquor in the Form (C).

4. Proceedings hereunder may be taken under "The Summary Convictions Act," Chapter 123 of the Consolidated Statutes, 1903.

(A).
New Brunswick,
