PARTNERSHIP

THIS Agreement of Co-partnership, made this seventeenth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fourteen.

Between Turner Ingalls, Senior, of the Parish of Grand Manan, County of Charlotte, and Province of New Brunswick, of the one part, and Edison Ingalls, of the aforesaid place, of the other part.

Witnesseth that the said parties hereto respectively are desirous of entering into a co-partnership under the firm name of T. Ingalls and Son, for the term of three years from the date hereof, and subject to the stipulations hereinafter expressed, and until the partnership is determined by either party giving to the other a three months' notice in writing ending with the current year of the partnership.

Now, therefore, these presents witnesseth that each of them the said parties hereto respectively for himself, his heirs, executors and administrators, hereby covenants with the other of them, his executors and administrators, in manner following, that is to say: The nature of the business is a general retail store. The business is to be carried on at the house of the said Turner Ingalls, Sr., in Grand Harbor, Parish of Grand Manan, where the books and other documents relating to the partnership shall be kept; but accessible at all times to the said Edison Ingalls. Rent of rooms occupied as a store shall be ten dollars per annum. The said Turner Ingalls, Senior, has contributed the sum of three hundred dollars, and the said Edison Ingalls the sum of three hundred dollars, as capital to the common stock. That the said parties shall be entitled to the profits of the said business, share and share alike, and all losses shall be borne by them in the same proportion. And on the first day of each year an account shall be taken of the partnership, property, stock, credits and liabilities, and the sum found to be due each partner shall be carried to his separate account. All rents, taxes, salaries, wages, and outgoings and expenses incurred in respect of the said business shall be paid and borne out of the profits of the said business.

That the said parties shall keep or cause to be kept proper and correct books of accounts of all the partnership moneys received and paid, and all business transacted on partnership account, and of all other matters of which accounts ought to be kept according to the usual and regular course of the said business, which said books shall be open to the inspection of both parties or their legal representatives.

In case either of the said parties shall die before the expiration of the term of the said co-partnership, then the surviving partner shall, within three calendar months after such decease, settle and adjust with the representatives of such deceased partners all accounts, matters and things relating to the said co-partnership, and that the said survivor shall continue to carry on henceforth for his sole benefit the co-partnership business.

In witness whereof, the said Turner Ingalls, senior, and Edison Ingalls, have hereto set their hands and seals the day and year first above written.
