MODERN REALTIES, LIMITED.

PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given, that under Chapter Eighty-five of the Consolidated Statutes of New Brunswick, 1903, and amending Acts, Letters Patent have been issued under the Great Seal of the said Province, bearing date the fifth day of May, 1914, incorporating Walker R. Bel-
John, of the City of Saint John, in the City and County of Saint John, and Province of New Brunswick, Real Estate Broker; Charles H. Colwell, Civil Engineer; C. Albert Kitchen, Contractor; Robena L. Kitchen, Married Woman; and Charles D.

Richards, Barrister-at-Law; all of the City of Fredericton, in the County of York, in said Province, for the following purposes, namely:

To carry on the business of a general real estate and brokerage company in all its branches; to acquire by purchase, lease, exchange or otherwise, city lots, town sites, farm or fruit lands, mining or timber lands, and any description of real estate and real property or any interest therein; to hold, own, maintain, build upon, work, farm, improve and otherwise deal with and develop such lands and property so acquired, or any portion thereof; to sub-divide the same into building lots, and generally to lay the same out into lots, streets and building sites, for residential, manufacturing or industrial purposes or otherwise, and with power to construct streets thereon, and necessary sewerage and drainage systems; to build upon the same for residential, manufacturing or industrial purposes or otherwise, to supply buildings so erected with electric light, heat, gas, water or other requisites therefor, and to sell, lease, exchange, mortgage or otherwise dispose of the lands and property so acquired, and all or any of the buildings or structures that are now or may hereafter be erected thereon, and to take such security therefor as may be deemed necessary.

To acquire by purchase, lease, exchange or otherwise any personal property and any rights or privileges which the Company may consider necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and to sell, pledge, mortgage or otherwise transfer or dispose of the same as to the Company may seem advisable.

To carry on the business of mechanical and civil engineers and contractors, as well as the business of general contractors for and builders of public and private works; to construct, erect, build, repair and alter buildings and other structures and to engage in the manufacture and sale of building materials, and to make and enter into any agreement or covenant in connection with the construction, maintenance, improvement or repair of any streets or highways.

To apply for, acquire and dispose of patent rights, trade-marks and trade processes, secret or otherwise.

To promote immigration into and settlement upon the properties of the Company or of others in New Brunswick, and in particular by British subjects from the United Kingdom, and for that purpose to furnish such assistance and upon such terms as may be advisable.

To carry on any other business (whether manufacturing or otherwise) which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with its business or calculated directly or indirectly to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's properties or rights.

To adopt such methods of making known the products, operations and services of the Company as may seem expedient, and in particular by advertising in the press, by circulars, by publication of books and periodicals, and by granting prizes, rewards and donations.

To enter into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession or otherwise, with any government, municipal or local authority, or with any persons or company carrying on or engaged in or about to carry on or engage in any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company; and to guarantee the contracts of, either with or without security, and to lend money to, or otherwise assist any such person or company, or any person or company undertaking to build or improve any property in which the Company is interested, and generally to such persons or companies and upon such terms and conditions as the Company may think fit, and in particular to tenants, builders and contractors.

To do any and everything necessary, incidental, suitable, convenient or proper for the carrying on of the said business or the accomplishment of any purpose or the attaining of any one or more of the objects herein enumerated or incidental to the powers herein contained, or which shall at any time appear conducive or expedient for the protection or benefit of the Company, either as carrying on said business or as holders of or as interested in any property or otherwise.

To do any or all things set forth as objects, purposes, powers or otherwise, to the same extent and as fully as natural persons might or could do, and as principals, agents, contractors, trustees, assignees or otherwise; by the name of "Modern Realities, Limited," with a total capital stock of twenty-four thousand dollars divided into two hundred and forty shares of one hundred dollars each, and with the head office at Fredericton, in the County of York, in said Province.

Dated at the office of the Provincial Secretary, at Fredericton, the fifth day of May, 1914.

D. V. LANDRY,
Provincial Secretary-Treasurer.
