

THE NEW BRUNSWICK PACKING COMPANY, LIMITED.

PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given, that under Chapter Eighty-five of the Consolidated Statutes of New Brunswick, 1903, and amending Acts, Letters Patent have been issued under the Great Seal of the said Province, bearing date the fifth day of January, A. D. 1914, incorporating Arthur Chandos Corfield, Merchant; George Nelson Kennealy, Merchant; Percy Woodforde Wetmore, Merchant; William Wilmot Corfield, Real Estate Broker; and John Morris Robinson, Broker; all of the City of Saint John, in the Province of New Brunswick, for the following purposes, namely:

The raising, dealing in and preparing for human consumption all kinds of live animals suitable for food.

To acquire and take over farms and farm lands in different parts of the Province of New Brunswick now owned by Arthur C. Corfield and Ian Macdonald, or either of them; and to acquire a factory and site and also other farms and farm lands, and to operate all or any of the farm lands so acquired for the raising of animals suitable for food; also to produce, purchase, sell and deal in butter, cheese, eggs, milk, vegetables, poultry and other food, farm and dairy products and the various materials entering into or used in the production thereof.

To sell, mortgage or exchange farms, farm lands and real estate, however, acquired, and generally to transact the business of buying and selling real estate.

To produce and manufacture all such articles and substances as are capable of being produced or manufactured, either wholly or in part from the hair, hoofs, skin, bones, meat or viscera of animals suitable for food, either living or dead, or from the refuse of such animals.

The transportation of all such food animals and products above mentioned.

To construct or acquire and operate a pork-packing and curing factory as incidental to the powers hereinbefore enumerated, also to acquire and operate all other buildings, plant and machinery which may be deemed by the Company to be requisite or advisable for the preparation for human consumption of animal food.

To carry on the business of warehousing and cold storage and all the business necessarily or impliedly incidental thereto, and to further carry on the business of general warehousing in all its several branches; to construct, hire, purchase, operate and maintain all or any conveyances for the transportation in cold storage or otherwise, by land or by water, of any and all products, goods or manufactured articles, to issue certificates and warrants, negotiable or otherwise, to persons warehousing goods with the Company, and to make advances or loans upon the security of such goods or otherwise; to manufacture, sell and trade in all goods usually dealt in by warehousemen; to construct, purchase, take or lease or otherwise acquire any wharf, pier, dock or works, capable of being advantageously used in connection with the shipping and carrying or other business of the Company; and generally to carry on or undertake any business undertaking, transaction or operation commonly carried on or undertaken by warehousemen, and any other business which may from time to time seem to the directors capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above or calculated directly or indirectly to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's properties or rights.

To manufacture, purchase or otherwise acquire, hold, own, mortgage, sell, assign and transfer, invest, trade, deal in and deal with goods, wares and merchandise and property of every class and description.

To apply for, obtain, register, purchase, lease or otherwise acquire, and to hold, own, use, operate, introduce and sell, assign or otherwise dispose of, any and all trade marks, formulae, secret processes, trade names and distinctive marks, and all inventions, improvements and processes used in connection with or secured under Letters Patent or otherwise of Canada, or of any other country; and to use, exercise, or develop, grant licenses in respect of or otherwise turn to account, any and all such trade-marks, patents, licenses, concessions, processes and the like, or any such property rights and information so acquired, and, with a view to the working and development of the same, to carry on any business, whether mining, manufacturing or otherwise, which the Corporation may think calculated directly or indirectly to effectuate these objects.

To carry on any other business, whether manufacturing or otherwise, or to acquire such other business, either by the purchase of the same or by the acquisition of stock or shares in any other company carrying on or controlling any such business, provided that such business so carried on or acquired may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated directly or indirectly to enhance the value of the Company's property or rights.

To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, for the consideration of shares, debentures or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those herein specified.

To do all or any of the things herein set forth as objects, purposes, powers or otherwise, to the same extent and as fully as natural persons might or could do, and in any part of the world, as principals, agents, contractors, trustees or otherwise; by the name of "The New Brunswick Packing Company, Limited," with a total capital stock of ninety-nine thousand dollars, divided into nine hundred and ninety shares of one hundred dollars each. The Directors of the said Company may borrow money on the credit of the Company and issue bonds or debentures to the extent of seventy thousand dollars, with power to sell, pledge or hypothecate the said bonds, or any of them, for any sum borrowed, or deposit the same as collateral security for any promissory note or over-draft of the Company at such prices and for such amounts as may be deemed expedient or necessary, but no such debentures or bonds to be for a less sum than one hundred dollars, with power to hypothecate or pledge the real and personal property of the Company to secure any sums borrowed by the Company and secure any bonds or debentures of the Company by the said real or personal property, or both, provided that the amount to be borrowed or for which such bonds or debentures may be pledged or hypothecated shall not at any time be greater than seventy-five per cent. of the actual paid-up stock, it being understood that the limitation and restrictions on the borrowing power of the Company contained in this paragraph shall not apply to or include moneys borrowed by the Company on bills of exchange or promissory notes made, accepted or indorsed by the Company or by overdraft or otherwise than on the bonds or debentures of the Company. And further providing that such debentures or bonds may be issued or re-issued, pledged, charged or hypothecated from time to time as when the Company may think fit or at the Company's option may be cancelled and fresh debentures to the like amount may be issued in lieu thereof, and when re-delivered to the Company shall not be deemed to be thereby satisfied or extinguished, such bonds, to the amount of forty thousand dollars to be convertible at the option of the holder, within two years from the date of the issue thereof, into Common Stock of the said Company, at par. The head office of the said Company to be at the City of Saint John, in the City and County of Saint John, in said Province.

Dated at the office of the Provincial Secretary at Fredericton, the fifth day of January, A. D. 1914.

J. K. FLEMMING,
Provincial Secretary-Treasurer.
