PROCLAMATION

By His Honour Josiah Wood, D. C. L., LL.D., Lieutenant-Governor of the Province of New Brunswick.

JOSIAH WOOD.

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, the Legislative Assembly of this Province stands prorogued to Thursday, the Fourteenth day of October instant, I have thought fit to further prorogue the said Legislative Assembly, and the same is hereby prorogued accordingly to Thursday, the Twenty-fifth day of November next.

Given under my hand and seal at Fredericton, the Thirteenth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifteen, and in the sixth year of His Majesty's reign.

By command of the Lieutenant-Governor.

D. V. LANDRY.

HIS HONOR the Lieutenant-Governor directs publication of the following:—

Message from His Majesty the King, headed Buckingham Palace.

TO my people at this grave moment in the struggle between my people and a highly organized enemy who has transgressed the laws of nations and changed the ordinance that binds Civilized Europe together I appeal to you. I rejoice in my Empire's effort and I feel pride in the voluntary response from my subjects all over the world who have sacrificed home, fortune and life itself in order that another may not inherit the free Empire which their ancestors and mine have built. I ask you to make good these sacrifices. The end is not in sight. More men and yet more are wanted to keep my armies in the field and through them to secure victory and enduring peace. In ancient days the darkest moment has ever produced in men of our race the sternest resolve. I ask you men of all classes to come forward voluntarily and take your share in the fight. In freely responding to my appeal you will be giving your support to our Brothers, who for long months have nobly upheld Britain's past traditions and the glory of Her Arms.

Under Secretary of State.
