

Dated the first day of December, A. D. 1915.

(Attention is particularly directed to the above provision with reference to the introduction of Private and Local Bills, as it is intended that the same shall be strictly enforced at the ensuing session of the Legislative Assembly.)

HENRY B. RAINSFORD,

Clerk Legislative Assembly.

ORDERS OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

THAT with the unanimous consent of the school trustees in any district, public school houses may be used for any proper purposes, outside of school hours, and when not required for public school uses.

After June 30th, 1917, all candidates for entrance to the French department of the Normal School shall undergo preliminary examination, in accordance with the Regulations governing such examinations, except as hereinafter provided.

In addition to the departmental examinations already provided for in July of each year, there shall be a preliminary examination for students desiring to enter the French department of the Normal School beginning on the second Tuesday of December, at Moncton, Bathurst, and Edmundston.

The subjects and standards of award shall be the same as for the July examinations, except that for French candidates at both the July and December preliminary examinations, there shall be a paper in French Grammar, which may be written in French, and the average of the marks in English and French Grammar shall be the standard of award for language.

Applications for the December preliminary shall be made to the Education Office not later than November 1st in each year, and the control and supervision of this examination shall be under the direction of the Chief Superintendent.

W. S. CARTER,

Chief Superintendent of Education.
