NOTICE

YOUR DUTY TO THE FIGHTING MEN.

ON the shell-torn fields of Flanders; amid the ruins of devastated France; upon the submarine-infested water and among the storm clouds of the sky, men from Canada are doing their duty.

They are doing it willingly, cheerfully. They are sacrificing the joys of home, the companionship of those they love most dearly, denying themselves all comfort, foregoing all thought of material prosperity, laying down their priceless lives—all this so that you may live your life in peace and security and that your hearth and home may remain inviolate.

Your duty—you who are not fighting—is simple. Dedicate your money to the cause of Victory, by buying Canada's Victory Bonds to the limit of your ability.

Canada must borrow—your duty is to lend—to make your money fight. 2 ins

1st. All applications for lots in these tracts must be made in the name of and by the real applicant, and the grant, if issued under his application shall be issued only to him unless his claim be transferred with the approval of the Minister of Lands and Mines.

2nd. If the petition be accepted, its approval shall be published in the "Royal Gazette" and this will be authority for the applicant to occupy the lot and for the Labor Act Commissioner to allot the road work referred to hereinafter.

3rd. The applicant before obtaining a grant of the lot applied for shall have lived on said lot continuously for three consecutive years in a house having dimensions of at least 16 feet by 26 feet. He shall have brought under cultivation at least two acres of said lot. He shall have performed $10.00 worth of roadwork in the vicinity of said lot under the direction of the Labor Act Commissioner, and shall have had continuous employment so far as was practicable in or about a mine or mines within this province during said three years. A certificate giving the periods and places of such employment, duly signed and sworn to by the mine manager or managers under whom the service was performed, must accompany application for the grant.

For this service he shall be entitled to collect from each applicant the fees in schedule below. These fees, except those for preparing application, laying out road and executing certificates, must be remitted to the Crown Land Office forthwith.

5th. Any timber cut by the applicant in the process of preparing the land for cultivation may be used by the applicant, but he must not sell any timber grown on the land excepting on the two acres on which he has, or is to have, his dwelling, until after he shall have obtained a grant of the same, nor shall he clear more land than can be broken up the following year.

Nothing but the actual improvements made on the lot may be so transferred, and before a grant can be issued of any lot the occupant must have personally fulfilled all the requirements of residence thereon for the full term of three years, and shall have performed $10.00 worth of labor on the roads.
