

capital the Company can issue any new shares with any preferential deferred qualified or special dividends, rights, privileges or conditions attached thereto; subject, however, to the laws of the Province of New Brunswick.

The Company hereby agrees that on the first day of November, A. D. 1921, and annually thereafter, it will deposit with the Eastern Trust Company of Saint John, New Brunswick, for the benefit of these shares, a sum not less than $50,000, and a like amount on the first day of January in each year thereafter until such time as the amount of said deposits shall be equal to the value of said preference shares which said sum shall, in the discretion of the directors, be applied from time to time as they may direct, either to the redemption of these preference shares under the provisions hereof, or as an additional sinking fund for the redemption of the first mortgage bond of this Company.

And in the event of the application of any of said deposits to the sinking fund of said first mortgage, said annual deposits shall be further continued until such time as the amount of said deposits, taking into account said applications to said sinking fund, shall be sufficient to redeem and retire all of said Preference Shares then outstanding.

Which by-law was on the fourteenth day of November, A. D. 1917, at a meeting of the Shareholders of the said Company, duly called for considering the same, sanctioned and approved by unanimous vote of all the Shareholders of the Company.

Dated at the office of the Provincial Secretary at Fredericton, the eighth day of May, 1918.

Deputy Provincial Secretary.

SCOVIL BROS., LIMITED.

PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given, that under the New Brunswick Companies' Act, 1914, and amending Acts, Supplementary Letters Patent have been issued under the seal of the Provincial Secretary-Treasurer of the Province of New Brunswick, bearing date the eighth day of May, A. D. 1918, to "Scovil Bros., Limited," whereby the following further powers have been granted to the said Company:

Whereas, by by-law of the Board of Directors of said Company passed on the 27th day of February, A. D. 1918, "The capital stock of the said Company shall be one hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($150,000) divided into thirteen hundred and ninety-five (1,395) shares of Preferred Shares, the par value of each share to be one hundred dollars ($100.00), said Preferred Stock to be six per cent. (6 p. c.) non-cumulative, and to be paid to the present shareholders of the said Company, share for share, in substitution for the shares they hold at present, saving and excepting one hundred shares, which are the property of James M. Scovil, such Preference Shares to have no right to vote at any meeting of the said Company whatsoever, and no right to representation on the Board of Directors of the said Company, and further, that the said Company by its directors may, from time to time, redeem or buy in for cancellation, any and all of the aforesaid Preferred Stock of the Company, without the consent of the owner or owners thereof, upon payment to the said owner or owners, the par value of the said stock, together with a premium of five per cent. (5 p. c.) and all unpaid dividends that may have been declared thereon."

"And in addition to the aforesaid Preferred Stock, the Company shall have the sum of ten thousand, five hundred dollars ($10,500.00) of Common Stock, divided into one hundred and five (105) shares of one hundred dollars ($100.00) each, which said Common Stock of the Company may, from time to time, be increased over and above the sum of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($150,000.00) to the extent of the Preferred Stock that may be bought in by the Company from time to time and duly cancelled."

And which by-law was at a special general meeting of the shareholders called and held on the twenty-seventh day of February, 1918, sanctioned and approved by a vote of two-thirds and upwards in value of the subscribed stock of the Company. The further powers being as follows:

That the capital stock of said Company of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($150,000.00) shall be made up as follows:

Thirteen hundred and ninety-five (1,395) shares of Preferred six per cent. (6 p. c.) non-cumulative stock of the par value of one hundred dollars ($100.00) each, and one hundred and five (105) shares of Common Stock of the par value of one hundred dollars ($100.00) each.

That the holders of such Preferred Shares shall have no right to vote at any meeting of the Company whatsoever, and no right of representation on its Board of Directors.

That the said Company, by resolution of its directors, may, from time to time, redeem or buy in for cancellation any and all of the aforesaid Preferred Stock of the Company, without the consent of the owner or owners thereof, upon payment to said owner or owners thereof then being, the sum of one hundred and five dollars ($105) for each and every share so redeemed.

Upon the purchase and cancellation of the said Preferred Shares, or any part thereof, by the said Company from time to time as aforesaid, the directors shall forthwith cause to be issued and subscribed for shares of Common Stock in lieu thereof, and in substitution therefor, of the par value of one hundred dollars ($100.00) each, equal to the number of shares of Preferred Stock so purchased and cancelled, and the directors may, from time to time, for the aforesaid purpose, increase the capital stock of the said Company to the extent of the number of shares of Common Stock issued for the aforesaid purpose.

To receive and cancel thirteen hundred and ninety-five (1,395) shares of stock of the Company now outstanding, and give in payment therefor, share for share, thirteen hundred and ninety-five (1,395) fully paid-up shares of Preference Stock in substitution therefor.

Dated at the office of the Provincial Secretary at Fredericton, the eighth day of May, 1918.

R. W. L. TIBBITS,
Deputy Provincial Secretary.
