

any part of the business properties and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on or possessed of property suitable for the purpose of the Company, and that for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for cash or shares, debentures, debenture stock or other securities of the Company.

To purchase or otherwise acquire and to hold and own, notwithstanding the provisions of section 42 of the New Brunswick Companies' Act, 1916, stock, shares and securities of any other Company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to directly or indirectly benefit the Company, and to sell or otherwise dispose of such stock, shares and securities.

To adopt such means of making new contracts for the Company as may seem expedient, and in particular of advertising in the press, by circular, by purchase and exhibition of works of art, or interest, by publication of books and periodicals and by granting prizes, rewards and donations.

To pay all or any of the expenses incurred in connection with the formation, promotion and incorporation of the Company, and to contract with any person, firm or Company to pay the same and to remunerate any person, firm or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing, selling or guaranteeing any shares in the Company's capital, or any debentures, debenture stock or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company, or of any company promoted by the Company, or the conduct of its business, or for obtaining any option or options which the Company may exercise.

To pay for any lands, business, property, rights, privileges and concessions acquired or agreed to be acquired by the Company, and generally to satisfy any payments of or obligations by the Company by the issue of shares of this or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up, or of debentures or other securities of this or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up.

To distribute in specie or otherwise, as may be resolved, any real or personal property or assets of the Company among its members, and in particular the shares, bonds, debentures or other securities of any other company formed to take over the whole or any part of the assets or liabilities of the Company.

To lend money to customers and others having dealings with the Company.

To purchase, take in exchange, lease, hire, construct or otherwise acquire, work, maintain, drain, farm, plant, pave, build or improve, develop or use any lands, easements or other rights in land, buildings, mines, minerals, machinery, plant and stock in trade or other real or personal property, and to enter into any arrangements with any person, firm or company, for the purpose.

To purchase or otherwise acquire any concessions, patent, license or other authority conferring an exclusive or limited right to use any invention and to develop or grant licenses in respect of or otherwise to turn to account the same.

To purchase or otherwise acquire all or any part of or any interest in the business, good-will, assets and liabilities of, or to amalgamate with, take shares or securities of, or enter into partnership or any arrangement for sharing of profits or union of interests with any company, body or person having objects or engaged in any business or transaction wholly or in part similar to the objects of the company, or any business capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit the company.

To borrow or raise money and to issue bonds, debentures, debenture stock, mortgages or other instruments either to bearer or otherwise, and either conferring no charge or conferring a fixed charge or a floating charge or both upon all or any part of the assets and undertakings of the company, including its uncalled capital, and so that any such debentures or debenture stock or any deed securing the same may contain a condition making the debentures or debenture stock irredeemable or redeemable only on the happening of any contingency however remote, or on the expiration of a period however long.

To draw, accept, endorse and execute bills of exchange, promissory notes, bills of lading and other negotiable or transferable instruments or securities.

To invest any moneys of the company in any form of investment which may be considered desirable, and from time to time to vary any such investment.

To sell or otherwise dispose of or let for any term of years the whole or any part of the property, business or undertaking of the company as a going concern or otherwise, and whether for cash or for shares, debentures or securities of any other company or for any other consideration.

To pay pensions and give gratuities to employees and ex-employees and others connected with the company.

To accept any composition or any security for any debt or any property claimed and to allow any time for payment of any debt and to compromise, abandon, compound, submit to arbitration or otherwise settle any debt, account, claim or thing.

To do all or any of the above things either as principal, agent, contractor or otherwise, and whether by agents, contractors or otherwise, and whether alone or in conjunction with others.

To do all such other things as may be considered to be conducive to the attainment of the above objects, or any of them; by the name of "Success Business College, Limited," with the head office at Moncton, in the County of Westmorland, and with a total capital stock of ten thousand dollars, divided into one thousand shares of ten dollars each.

Dated at the Office of the Provincial Secretary-Treasurer, this second day of April, 1918.

R. W. L. TIBBITTS,
Deputy Provincial Secretary.

Advertisements for the Gazette are requested to be forwarded by mail to R. W. L. Tibbitts, King's Printer, not later than Monday, in order to be in time for Wednesday's issue.
