JUDICATURE ACT, 1909.

RULES OF COURT.

THIS is to certify that, pursuant to Section 50 of "The Judicature Act, 1909," the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council, by Order-in-Council passed on the 5th day of June, A. D. 1918, and upon recommendation of all the Judges of the Supreme Court, have made the following Rules of Court in amendment and in addition to existing rules under the said Act.

M. B. DIXON,

Clerk of the Executive Council.

ORDER LIX is hereby repealed and the following substituted in lieu thereof:

ORDER LIX.

Appeals from Divorce, County and Probate Courts.

1. On an appeal from the Court of Divorce and Matrimonial Causes it shall be the duty of the appellant to file with the Registrar of this Court certified copies of the libel and other pleadings and decrees, and to cause to be filed the transcript of the stenographer's notes of the evidence taken in the Court of Divorce and Matrimonial Causes on file in that Court, or, failing that, a proved copy of the same.

2. On an appeal from the Court of Divorce and Matrimonial Causes, the Court of Appeal may grant to a wife appellant costs or suit money payable by the respondent to enable her to carry on the appeal.

3. Every appeal taken or motion made from the Court of Divorce and Matrimonial Causes, or from any County Court or Probate Court, shall be by notice of motion, and no rule nisi or order to show cause shall be necessary. Such notice of motion shall state whether all or part only of the judgment, order, decree or finding is complained of, and in the latter case shall specify such part.

4. The notice of motion shall be served within twenty days after the date of the judgment, order, decree or finding appealed from, unless the time be extended by order of a Judge of the Court from, or to which the appeal is taken, made either before or after the expiration of the said twenty days. Such notice of motion shall be for the session of the Court of Appeal next after the service thereof.

5. Rules 8 and 9 of Order LVIII shall, as far as applicable, extend and apply to every appeal taken or motion made to the Court of Appeal from any verdict entered or judgment, finding, order or decree made or found in the Court of Divorce and Matrimonial Causes, or in any County Court or Probate Court.

6. No appeal from the Court of Divorce and Matrimonial Causes shall be entered on the docket unless the provisions of Rule 1 of this Order shall have been complied with; and no appeal from any County Court or Probate Court shall be entered on the Docket unless there shall have been filed in the office of the Registrar, in the case of an appeal from a County Court, the proceedings duly certified by the Judge of the Court appealed from, and in the case of an appeal from a Probate Court the return of the Judge appealed from.

7. In case the appellant shall neglect to enter the appeal according to his notice thereof, or, having entered it, shall not argue it when reached in its order on the docket, or at the time fixed by order of the court for its hearing, the respondent
