

To Edward J. Conway, Chipman, N. B., Priest; Charles Conroy, 1102 Vaughan Street, Portland, Oregon; Laborer; Mary G. Conroy, 156 West Concord Street, Boston, Mass., Nurse; Patrick McLaughlin, Blackville, N. B., Farmer; Michael McLaughlin, Blackville, N. B., Farmer; Mary Agnes McKenzie, whose last known address was Blackville, N. B., wife of James E. McKenzie; Margaret Jane McCarty, Houlton, Maine, Married Woman, and all others whom it may concern:

WHEREAS, Edward J. Conway hath filed in this Court what purports to be the last will of Elizabeth Conroy, late of the Parish of Chipman, in the County of Queens, Spinster, dated the 11th day of January, A. D. 1916, and on his petition letters of administration of the estate and effects of said Elizabeth Conroy, with said will annexed, were granted to him on the 25th day of January, A. D. 1918:

And Whereas Daniel C. Farnell, William J. Farnell and Mary Hines, being of the next of kin of Elizabeth Conroy, hath prayed that the said Edward J. Conway may be called-upon to prove the alleged last will of Elizabeth Conroy in solemn form, and that the same may be declared void and invalid and that said letters of administration with the will annexed, so granted to him may be produced and brought into Court and the same may be cancelled and revoked and set aside, and the said Edward J. Conway ordered and declared to pay the petitioners costs of said application, and that letters of administration of the estate and effects of the said Elizabeth Conroy may be granted to Mariner G. Teed, of the City of Saint John, Barrister-at-Law, and John F. H. Teed, of the same place, Barrister-at-law, or one of them.

You are therefore required to appear before me, if you so desire, at a Court of Probate to be held in and for the County of Queens, at the Office of the Registrar of Probate in the Parish of Gagetown, in the County of Queens aforesaid, on Monday, the 19th day of August next, at the hour of 2 o'clock in the afternoon, to show cause, if any, why the said alleged will should or should not be proved in solemn form and why the alleged will should not be declared void and invalid, and why the letters of administration with the will annexed, granted to the said Edward J. Conway, should not be brought and produced in Court and into the Registry thereof and cancelled, revoked and set aside and the said Edward J. Conway ordered and declared to pay the petitioners costs of said application and why letters of administration of the personal estate and effects of the said Elizabeth Conroy at the time of her death should not be granted to the said Mariner G. Teed and John F. H. Teed, or one of them.

Given under my hand and seal this second day of July, A. D. 1918.

CITATION.

IN THE PROBATE COURT OF WESTMORLAND COUNTY.

In the Matter of the Estate of Charles Arthur Fillmore. To Lavinia Ward of the Parish of Dorchester, in the County of Westmorland, wife of Fenwick V. Ward; Olive Campbell of the said Parish of Dorchester, wife of Martin Campbell; Bertha Fillmore, of the Parish of Westmorland, wife of Ritchie Fillmore; Grace Trenholm, of the said Parish of Westmorland, wife of Herbert Trenholm; Arthur Fillmore, of the said Parish of Dorchester; Walter Fillmore, of the said Parish of Dorchester; Alexander Fillmore, whose present whereabouts are not known, but when last heard of was living in the City of Everett, in the State of Massachusetts, in the United States of America; Bessie Seymour, wife of Charles Seymour, whose present whereabouts are not known, but who when last heard of was living with her said husband in the City of Newton, in the said State of Massachusetts; Melbourne Fillmore, who until lately was residing in the said Parish of Dorchester, but who is now serving His Majesty's Land Forces Overseas; Blanche Pearson, of Highfield, in the County of Queens, wife of Harry Pearson; Ernest Fillmore, of Sydney, in the Province of Nova Scotia; and the undermentioned seven persons who are the surviving children of Havelock Fillmore, namely, Hazel Fillmore, of the Town of Sackville, in the said County of Westmorland; Russell Fillmore of Trenton, in the Province of Ontario; Leita Fillmore, of Kentville, in the said Province of Nova Scotia; Fernie Fillmore who makes her home with John Ed. Estabrooks, in the said Parish of Sackville; Norman Fillmore, who makes his home with Arthur Fillmore in the said Parish of Dorchester; Lenae Fillmore, who makes his home with one Clarence Estabrooks at Beech Hill, in the Parish of Sackville, in the County of Westmorland; Rachael Fillmore, who makes her home with one Edward Taylor, of Shemogue, in the said Parish of Dorchester; Hattie Fillmore, widow of the said above named Havelock Fillmore, who resides at Kentville, in the Province of Nova Scotia and all others whom it may concern:

Whereas, Bertha Fillmore and Grace Trenholm, two of the heirs and next of kin of the said Charles Arthur Fillmore, late of the Parish of Dorchester, in the County of Westmorland, Farmer, deceased, have by their Petition dated the fifth day of March, A. D. 1918, and filed with the Registrar of this Court, prayed that the last will, or paper purporting to be the last will and testament, of the said Charles Arthur Fillmore, deceased, which was proved in common form in this Court on the twentieth day of April, A. D. 1917, and Letters Testamentary thereof were granted unto Lavinia Fillmore (now Ward) and Fred C. Palmer, the executors therein named, may now be proved in solemn form, the said Petitioners disputing the validity of the said last will and testament.

You are, therefore, required to appear before me at a Court of Probate to be held in and for the County of Westmorland, in the Probate Court Room in the Court House in Dorchester, in the said County of Westmorland, on Tuesday, the sixth day of August, A. D. 1918, at the hour of eleven o'clock in the forenoon, to attend and take such part with regard to the proving of the said last will and testament of Charles Arthur Fillmore, deceased, in solemn form, as they may see fit, with full power to oppose said last will and testament, if so proved or otherwise, as they and every of them may deem right.

Given under my hand this eighteenth day of April, 1918.
