HIS HONOUR the Lieutenant-Governor directs the publication of the following for general information:

AT THE GOVERNMENT HOUSE AT OTTAWA.

Thursday, the 4th day of April, 1918:

Present: HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL-IN-COUNCIL.

WHEREAS, it is necessary to enact such regulations as will utilize to the best advantage the human energy of Canada for purposes essential to the prosecution of the present war;

And Whereas, the need of men of military age to provide reinforcements for the Canadian Expeditionary Force, and the equally urgent need for labour to assist in the production of food and of other articles essential for war purposes, necessitate special provisions to the end that all persons domiciled in Canada shall, in the absence of reasonable cause to the contrary, engage in useful occupations under the regulations hereinafter set forth:

And Whereas, the Minister of Agriculture is impressed with the necessity of enacting forthwith the regulations hereinafter set forth, which in his opinion will greatly assist in rendering available for the purpose of production labor which otherwise might not be secured;

And Whereas, the Minister of Militia and Defence also fully concurs in the enactment of such regulations;

And whereas, these regulations are not intended to affect any right of members of organized labor associations to discontinue their work in the employment of which they have been engaged when such discontinuance is occasioned by differences actually arising between the employer and the employed. The purpose is to prevent persons capable of useful work from remaining in idleness at a time when the country most urgently requires the service of all human energy available.

His Excellency the Governor-General-in-Council, on the recommendation of the Right Honourable the Prime Minister, and under the powers vested in His Excellency in Council under the War Measures Act, 1914, and under all other powers His Excellency in Council thereunto enabling, is pleased to make the following regulations and the same are hereby made and enacted accordingly:

Regulations.

1. Every male person residing in the Dominion of Canada shall be regularly engaged in some useful occupation.
2. In any proceeding hereunder it shall be a defence that the person is—
  - (a) Under sixteen years or over sixty years of age.
  - (b) A bona fide student proceeding with his training for some useful occupation.
  - (c) A bona fide student in actual attendance at some recognized educational institution.
  - (d) Usually employed in some useful occupation and temporarily unemployed owing to differences with his employer common to similar employees with the same employer.
  - (e) Physically unable to comply with the provisions of the law as herein enacted.
  - (f) Unable to obtain within reasonable distance any kind of employment which he is physically able to perform at current wages for similar employment.
3. Any person violating the provisions hereof shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction before a Magistrate to a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars and costs, and in default of payment, to imprisonment with hard labour for a period not exceeding six months, in any common gaol or in any institution or on any farm owned by a municipality or province and declared by by-law or Order-in-Council respectively to be a public institution or farm for the purposes of this law, which said institution or farm for the purpose of this law shall be a common gaol.
4. Where the proceedings in any case in which a fine is imposed under the authority hereof are instituted at the instance of any municipality or by any officer of a municipality, the fine shall be paid to the treasurer of such municipality; and where such proceedings are instituted at the instance of or by any provincial officer, such fines shall be paid to the provincial treasurer; and where such proceedings are instituted within a municipality by any other person, the fine shall be paid in equal portions to the treasurer of the municipality and the treasurer of the province; and where the place in which such proceedings are instituted is not within the boundaries of any municipality, the fine shall be paid to the provincial treasurer, and where the proceedings are outside the boundaries of any province the fine shall be paid to the Receiver General of Canada.

5. Useful occupation and reasonable distance shall be questions of fact to be decided by the magistrate.

6. The magistrate may hear and consider other defences than those mentioned in section two.

7. "Magistrate" shall include Justice of the Peace and Police Magistrate appointed by Provincial or Dominion authority.

RODOLPHE BOUDREAU,

Clerk of the Privy Council.

HIS HONOUR the Lieutenant-Governor directs the publication of the following for general information:

83 Pall Mall, London, S. W. 1, 4th March, 1918.

Sir—We have received from Lieut. Col. Noel Marshall and from Dr. Abbott particulars showing the response made by the Province of New Brunswick to the "Our Day" 1917 appeal for our funds, and I am desired by the Joint Committee to convey to you and, through you, to the people of the Province, and to the organizers and workers concerned, the deep gratitude of the British Red Cross Society and the Order of St. John for the generous and welcome help we thus receive towards our work for the sick and wounded of the Empire and her Allies.

The Committee are aware of the obligations under which they rest to you for the personal interest you took in our appeal, and beg you to be assured of their high appreciation of your sympathy with our needs. If, as I fear, we shall be compelled again this year to appeal to New Brunswick, we sincerely hope that you will again commend our appeal and give it the all-essential support of your influence.

I am, Sir,

Yours faithfully,

(Signed) ROBT. A. HUDSON,

Chairman of the Finance Committee.

His Honour, William Pugsley,

Lieut.-Governor, Province of New Brunswick,
Fredericton, New Brunswick.
