D., 1918, to determine whether the inhabitants thereof should be incorporated under the provisions of Chapter 166 of the Consolidated Statutes, 1903, intituled "The Towns Incorporation Act"; that at said election there were one hundred and two (102) votes cast in favour of incorporation and fifty-two (52) votes cast against incorporation; that the boundaries of the said Town are as follows,—“Beginning where the western prolongation of the southern line of Lot Number 49 in the Parish of Brighton in said County granted by the Crown to Robert Hallett strikes the centre or middle line of the River Saint John, thence southerly along said centre line of said river and following the western channel thereof, between the lower Becaguimic Island, or Matheson's Island, so called, and the western bank or shore of said river to a point where the western prolongation of the north side of the road leading from the main highway road on the eastern side of the said river below Flemming's mill, so called, to Ashland and Highgate strikes said centre line of said river, thence easterly along said westerly prolongation and the north side of said road to the rear of base line of the granted lands fronting on the eastern side of said River Saint John, thence northerly along said rear or base line to said southern line of said Lot Number 49, and thence westerly along the same and the western prolongation thereof to the place of beginning.”

And it appearing by said return that the majority of the rate-payers within the said bounds had voted in favour of incorporation, I do therefore proclaim that the said Town comprised within said bounds hereinbefore described, be incorporated under and by virtue of the Towns Incorporation

Act, under the name of the "Town of Hartland."

Given under my hand and seal at Fredericton, this Second day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighteen, and in the Ninth year of His Majesty's Reign.
