To carry on a general agency, promotion and brokerage business.

To purchase, own, produce and present, and to license others to produce and present theatrical plays, operas, circus performances, vaudeville novelties, and all other forms of entertainment or of amusement usually presented in theatres, opera houses, parks and other places of entertainment or amusement; to hold, sell, assign and transfer, copyrighted and uncopyrighted plays and operas, and all scenery and properties and all patented and unpatented devices which may be used in connection with theatres, opera houses, parks and places of entertainment or amusement; to build, own, lease, rent or otherwise acquire and hold theatres, opera houses, playhouses, music halls, parks and other places where theatrical, operatic and vaudeville performances and other forms of entertainment or amusement may be presented; to carry on fairs, bazaars and entertainments and games of all kinds, and to give public or private performances of any kind therein or anywhere else, and to hold picnics, and to carry on the business of refreshment room and caterers for places of entertainment and amusement generally.

To conduct and carry on the business of general dealers or otherwise, at wholesale or retail, also the business of general warehousemen and forwarding agents in all their branches.

To enter into an agreement for sharing profits, union of interest, amalgamation, co-operation or joint adventure, or otherwise, with any person, firm or corporation carrying on or engaged in any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, and to acquire stock, shares or any securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, pledge, hypothecate or otherwise deal with the same.

To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall deem fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, preferred, common or deferred, charged upon any or all of the Company's property, both present and future, including its unsubscribed capital, and to redeem or pay off any such securities.

To remunerate by payment of cash, stock, bonds or any other manner, any person or persons, corporation or corporations for services rendered or to be rendered, or money paid or to be paid in or about the formation, promotion or incorporation of the Company, or in the conduct of its business.

To acquire by surrender or otherwise, howsoever, the whole or any part of the interest of any member or members of the Company therein.

To pay and satisfy any obligations or liabilities of the Company by the issue of shares of stock of this or any other company credited as fully or in part paid up, or any other securities of this or any other company.

To establish, maintain, equip and operate branches or branch stores or offices of the Company, at such place or places, as to the Company may seem fit.

To distribute in specie or otherwise as may be resolved, any or all of the assets or profits of the Company among its members, and particularly the shares, bonds, debentures or other securities of any other company that may take over the whole or any part of the assets or liabilities of the Company.

To insure with any company or person against losses, damages, risks and liabilities of all kinds which may affect the company.

To invest the moneys of the Company, not immediately required for the purposes of the Company's business, in such securities and in such manner as may be determined.

To procure the Company to be registered, licensed or otherwise empowered or authorized to carry on business in any other place or country.

To exercise all powers and all such other acts and things as are incidental or conducive to the attaining or fulfilling of the above purposes and objects, or any of them, and to carry out all business incidental, convenient or auxiliary to the due carrying out of the objects for which the Company is incorporated and necessary to enable the Company to profitably carry on all and any of its undertakings, of which shall at any time appear necessary or expedient to be done for the protection, or promote the interest of, or benefit of the Company, either as owner of or interested in any property or in connection with any business of the Company or otherwise, to the same extent or as fully as natural persons might or could do.

The objects specified in each of the paragraphs mentioned shall be regarded as independent objects, and shall be in no wise limited or restricted (except when otherwise expressed in such paragraph) by reason of the objects contained in any other paragraph, or by reference to or inference from the objects indicated in any other paragraph, or the name of the Company, but may be carried out in full and ample manner and construed in widest sense, as if each of the said paragraphs defined the objects of a separate, distinct and dependent company.

Nothing in any of the above objects shall be deemed or taken to authorize the carrying on of the business of a banking, loan or trust company by this company, by the name of "Moncton Orangement Limited," with a total capital stock of forty-nine thousand dollars divided into nine hundred and eighty shares of fifty dollars each, and with the head office at the City of Moncton, in the County of Westmorland, in said Province.

Dated at the office of the Provincial Secretary-Treasurer at Fredericton, the thirteenth day of August, 1920.

R. W. L. TIBBITS,
Deputy Provincial Secretary.

SALE OF TIMBER LICENSES

CROWN LAND OFFICE, Fredericton, N. B., 11th August, 1920.

There will be sold at the Crown Land Office on Wednesday, the 25th of August, 1920, beginning at 2 o'clock, the right to cut and carry away all classes of merchantable lumber on the lands described below.

For further information, plans, etc., apply to the Deputy Minister, Department of Lands and Mines, Fredericton, N. B.

TIMBER REGULATIONS GOVERNING THIS SALE

1. Berths will be sold on a basis of stumpage values, the upset prices to be announced at the commencement of the sale. The stumpage on spruce, fir, pine and cedar will be the standard and upon which bids will be received. The stumpage on other lumber will be proportioned as follows:

Hamlock, four-fifths.

Hardwood, one-half

Poplar, three-quarters.

of that paid on spruce, fir, pine and cedar. The stumpage on railway ties will remain at 17 cents each, irrespective of grades. The stumpage on other lumber not enumerated here will be in proportionate value to above.

2. Licenses to run for a period of two logging seasons ending first August, 1922.

3. There will be no charge of any kind against a license excepting the payment of stumpage. There will be no mileage or fire protection tax exacted.

4. A deposit, the amount of which will be announced, will be paid on each berth, when knocked down at the sale, and this deposit will only be available as a credit on the stumpage dues of the logging season 1921-1922. It will not be credited to the stumpage dues for the first logging season.

5. All the lumber cut under this License shall be scaled or taken account of in the usual or customary method of scaling and taking account of lumber for stumpage by some person or persons to be appointed by the Minister of Lands and Mines, to be hereafter termed scalers, who shall return to the Minister of Lands and Mines the quantity cut under this License. The scaler and his assistants are to be boarded and lodged at the expense of the said Licensee, and should such Licensee refuse to board and lodge such scaler or assistants, he or they to report the same to the Minister of Lands and Mines, who may thereupon take such means as he sees fit to provide the said scaler and his assistants with board and lodgings, and the expense thereof shall be paid by the Licensee, and shall, until paid, remain a charge and lien upon all lumber so cut under this License.
