LETTERS PATENT GRANTED

THE WESTFIELD COUNTRY CLUB.

PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given, that under The New Brunswick Companies' Act, 1914, and amending Acts, Letters Patent have been issued under the seal of the Provincial Secretary-Treasurer of the Province of New Brunswick, bearing date the thirtieth day of March, A. D. 1920, incorporating David W. Ledingham, Steamship Manager; Horace Clyde Groat, General Superintendent Canadian Pacific Railway Company; Frank Nisbet Robertson, Clerk; George Lockhart Warwick, Merchant; Frederick Gilmour Spencer, Theatre Owner; William Edgar Golding, Lumber Merchant, and Harry Fielding Manline, Merchant, all of the City of Saint John, in the County of the City and County of Saint John, and Province of New Brunswick, for the following purposes, namely:

To establish, maintain and conduct a club for the promotion and playing of the game of golf, tennis and other lawful games, and for social and athletic purposes, and to develop field and water sports and recreations of all kinds, and to provide club-houses, buildings, links, courts, boats, canoes, yachts, motor boats, steamers, wharves, landings, lands, premises and other conveniences for the accommodation of members of the Club and their friends, and of the servants and employees of the Club, and generally to afford the members of the Club and their friends all the usual privileges, advantages, conveniences and accommodations of a club for such purposes.

To take an active interest in the social welfare and good of the community and to provide in any way for the recreation and mutual improvement and pleasure of the members of the Association.

To purchase, take on lease or otherwise acquire any lands, buildings, easements or property, real and personal, which may be requisite for the purposes of or capable of being used in connection with any of the objects of the Club, and to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of such property and for the purposes of the Club to mortgage the real estate or otherwise raise moneys.

To borrow money and to make, draw, take, accept, endorse, discount, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, agreements of sale, and other negotiable or transferable instruments.

To pass and adopt such by-laws, rules and regulations as it may deem necessary respecting the admission and expulsion of members; the classification and the respective rights and privileges of such members; the fees, subscriptions and dues which it may deem advisable to impose; the number, constitution, powers and duties of its officers and of its committee of management and generally for the administration and management of its affairs, and provide for the imposition of penalties, by way of suspension or forfeiture of membership for the breach or non-observance thereof, and alter or repeal all or any of such by-laws, rules and regulations as it may see fit, and also delegate to its committee of management all or any of its powers of passing, adopting, altering and repealing such by-laws, rules and regulations.

To issue upon a resolution adopted by two-thirds of its members present at a special general meeting duly called for the purpose, as by the by-laws, rules and regulations of the Club are entitled to vote at such meeting, bonds or debentures to such amounts and payable at such times, and bearing such rate of interest, and containing such terms and conditions as the resolution may specify, and to pledge or sell such bonds or debentures for such sums, and on such terms, and at such times as may be deemed expedient; and to secure the payment of such bonds or debentures, to make and execute by its duly authorized officers to one or more trustees a mortgage of its real and personal property and assets, or such portion thereof as may be deemed expedient, mentioning the issue and amount, and the dates of payment of such bonds or debentures, the rate of interest payable thereon and the terms and conditions upon which the same are issued, the proceeds of such bonds or debentures to be applied exclusively towards the purchase of lands or buildings, or towards the erection, furnishing or maintenance of such club house, grounds and other conveniences as may be deemed necessary for the purposes of the Club.

To do such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects. The operations of the Company to be carried on in the Province of New Brunswick and elsewhere.

The Company shall not have any capital stock, or issue any share certificates.

The Company to have the power to acquire real and personal property to a cost value not exceeding fifty thousand dollars, and the Company to hold all property, both real and personal, and the profits and income arising therefrom, acquired by it, by purchase, gift, bequest, or otherwise in trust for the objects and purposes for which the Company may be incorporated; by the name of "The Westfield Country Club," with no capital stock or issue any share certificates.

The head office to be at the Parish of Westfield, in the County of Kings, and Province of New Brunswick.

Dated at the Office of the Provincial Secretary-Treasurer, the thirtieth day of March, A. D. 1920.

R. W. L. TIBBITS.

Deputy Provincial Secretary.
