LETTERS PATENT GRANTED

"THOMAS ARMSTRONG & BELL LIMITED."

PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given that under The New Brunswick Companies Act, 1916, and amending Acts, Letters Patent have been issued under the seal of the Provincial Secretary-Treasurer of the Province of New Brunswick, bearing date the Thirtieth day of June, A. D. 1921, incorporating, S. Allan Thomas, Broker; Donald W. Armstrong, Broker; and T. Moffett Bell, Broker; all of the City of Saint John in the City and County of Saint John and Province of New Brunswick; have made application for a Charter under the said Acts, for the following purposes namely:

To acquire and take over from the applicants the good-will in the brokerage business heretofore acquired by them individually which is to be paid for by the issue to the said applicants fully paid up non-assessable shares of the common stock of the Company as hereinafter provided.

To purchase, receive, hold and own bonds, mortgages, debentures, notes, shares of capital stock and other securities, obligations, contracts and evidences of indebtedness of any private, public or municipal corporation or of the Government of the Dominion of Canada or of any Province thereof or of any foreign state or country.

To receive, collect and dispose of interest, dividends and income upon, of and from any of the bonds, mortgages, debentures, notes, shares of capital stock, securities, obligations, contracts, evidences of indebtedness and other property held or owned by it and to exercise in respect of all such bonds, mortgages, debentures, notes, shares of capital stock, securities, obligations, contracts, evidences of indebtedness and other property, any and all the rights, powers and privileges of individual owners thereof.

To do any and all acts and things tending to increase the value of the property at any time held by the Company.

To issue bonds and to secure the same by pledges or deeds of trust or mortgages of or upon the whole or any part of the property held by the Company and to sell or pledge such bonds for proper corporate purposes as and when the board of directors shall determine; and in the promotion of its said corporate business of investment and to the extent authorized by law to lease, purchase, hold, sell, assign, transfer, pledge, mortgage and convey real and personal property of any name and nature; but nothing herein is to be construed as intended to form a banking company, a trust company, a savings bank or a corporation intended as a part of its business to derive profit from the loan and use of money.

To the same extent as natural persons might or could do to purchase or otherwise acquire, to hold, own, maintain, work, develop, sell, convey, mortgage or otherwise dispose of without limit as to amount, within or without the Province of New Brunswick and in any part of the world, real estate and real property and any interest and rights therein, so far as such rights may be conferred by this Province.

Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange hire or otherwise acquire any real and personal property and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business.

To acquire the goodwill, rights, property and assets of all kinds and to undertake the whole or any part of the liabilities of any person, firm, association or corporation and to pay for the same in cash, stock, bonds, debentures or other securities of this corporation or otherwise.

The corporation may use and apply its surplus earnings or accumulated profits authorized by law to be reserved to the purchase or acquisition of property and to the purchase or acquisition of its own capital stock from time to time to such extent and in such manner and upon such terms as its board of directors shall determine; and neither the property nor the capital stock so purchased and acquired nor any of its capital stock taken in payment, or satisfaction of any debt due to the corporation shall be regarded as profits for the purposes of declaration or payment of dividends unless otherwise determined by a majority of the board of directors or a majority of the stockholders.

To hold, purchase or otherwise acquire to sell, assign, transfer, mortgage, pledge or otherwise dispose of shares of the capital stock and bonds, debentures or other evidences of indebtedness created by other corporation or corporations and while the holder thereof to exercise all the rights and privileges of ownership including the right to vote thereon.

To issue and allot as fully paid up stock shares of the capital stock of the Company as consideration for property real or personal acquired by the Company, by the name of "Thomas Armstrong & Bell Limited" with a capital stock of two hundred thousand dollars divided into two thousand shares of one hundred dollars each of which one thousand shares shall be preferred stock and one thousand shares shall be common stock.

Said preferred stock shall entitle the holders to receive in each year a dividend of seven per cent payable half-yearly before any dividends shall be set apart or paid on said common stock. Such dividends shall be cumulative and if the profits in any one year whether distributable as dividends or not be insufficient to pay such dividends for such or upon such preferred stock the same shall be made up from the profits of a later period until the full amount of dividends herein subscribed without interest shall have been paid upon the preferred stock before any dividend is declared on the common stock. The holders of the preferred stock shall have no voting power unless the dividends on the preferred stock shall be in arrears for two years or upwards.

The Company shall have the right to purchase or redeem any of the said preferred stock at one hundred and fifteen dollars per share at any time on giving three months notice to the holders thereof of their intention to so purchase or redeem the same, with the head office at the City of Saint John in the City and County of Saint John and Province of New Brunswick.

Dated at the Office of the Provincial Secretary-Treasurer, the Thirtieth day of June, A. D. 1921.

R. W. L. TIBBITS,
Deputy Provincial Secretary.
