 St. John, W., N. B., 2nd Jan., 1922.

All the necessary formalities required by Chapter 56 of the Acts of Assembly of the Province of New Brunswick, 10 Geo. V., "The Villages Incorporation Act", for the erection of a portion of the County of Westmorland in the Province of New Brunswick, described as follows: "Beginning at the intersection of the centre lines of the main road leading through Port Elgin to Baie Verte and the Canadian National Railway, adjoining lands of Bowden Atkinson, thence running north thirty-four degrees and forty-five minutes west by the magnet of the year 1921, a distance of thirty-six chains and thirty-five links to the centre of the back road leading from the Moore Road (so called) to Coburg at the point where the division line between lands of Courtney Raworth and Ernest Raworth intersects the said back road; Thence north nine degrees and forty-five minutes west forty-two chains and thirty-five links, or to the centre of the Moore Road (so called) at its intersection with the line between lands of J. & C. Hickman, Ltd., and lands of John Mahoney; thence North fifty eight degrees East forty-nine chains to the centre of a concrete bridge, or culvert, on the road leading from Port Elgin to Shomogue adjoining lands formerly owned by Spiller Goodwin; thence about south seventy-nine degrees and forty minutes East fifty-five chains to the centre of a concrete bridge on the main road leading from Port Elgin to Bayfield at a point about ten rods easterly from the intersection of the line between lands of Frank Fields and Chandler Allen with the centre of the last mentioned road; thence south twenty-three degrees and thirty minutes east forty-three chains and sixty links to a post standing on the northeasterly side or bank of the Gaspereaux River; thence south twenty-nine degrees and forty-five minutes west fifteen chains and forty-three links to the northeasterly line of lands of John Lamb; thence along said last mentioned line south sixty-six degrees and ten minutes West thirty chains and eighty links to the centre of the Fort Road (so called); thence due West twenty-five chains, or to the centre of the Canadian National Railway; thence along the centre of the said railway southeasterly to the place of beginning," into a village under the provisions of said Act, having been compiled with, I do therefore give notice that I have erected the said above described portion of the said County of Westmorland into a Village and have given said village the name of "Port Elgin Village."

Given under my hand at Fredericton in the Province of New Brunswick this Twenty fourth day of January, A. D. 1922.

J. E. HETHERINGTON,
 Provincial Secretary Treasurer.

LETTERS PATENT GRANTED

"WM. M. SULLIVAN LIMITED"

PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given that under "The New Brunswick Companies' Act, 1916" and amending Acts Letters Patent have been issued under the seal of the Provincial Secretary-Treasurer of the Province of New Brunswick, bearing date the Eleventh day of January, A. D. 1922, incorporating William M. Sullivan, Lumber Merchant; Bernetta M. Sullivan, Married Woman; both of Red Bank in the County of Northumberland and Province of New Brunswick; and Joseph A. Layton, Accountant; of Nelson in the County of Northumberland and Province aforesaid; for the following purposes, namely:

To purchase, deal in, sell by wholesale and retail all kinds of goods, wares and merchandise and to conduct a general trading and mercantile business both wholesale and retail.

To maintain, conduct, manage and carry on in the Province of New Brunswick, in the Dominion of Canada and elsewhere, the business of buying, acquiring, owning, holding, operating, selling, renting, leasing, mortgaging, developing, and improving woodlands, booms, dams, piers and boom privileges, rafting and rafting privileges and other real and personal property and estate, including waterpowers and rights, mills, factories, stores and boarding houses.

Producing, manufacturing, buying, selling and otherwise dealing in lumber, timber, pulpwood and any and all products of woodlands and other real and personal property, and any and all kinds of wood, paper, pulp and any and all ingredients, products and compounds thereof, and any and all materials that now are or hereafter may be used in or in connection with its said business.

To construct whatsoever works and do whatever may be necessary for the utilization and disposition of the products or by-products resulting from the operation of any of the works of the Company.

To carry on any business, whether manufacturing or otherwise, and lawful for a corporation formed under general law, which the corporation may think incidental to, necessary for or calculated, either directly or indirectly to aid or promote its said business, or any part thereof.

In general to engage in and prosecute any one or more of the occupations named, and to do any one or more of the acts and things herein specified.

To hold, own, purchase, mortgage, lease, acquire, sell and convey real and personal property necessary or incidental to any of the objects or purposes of the corporation.

To issue bonds or other evidences of indebtedness from time to time, with or without security, or secured wholly or in part by the property of the corporation.

To purchase, acquire, hold and dispose of mortgages, debentures, notes, securities, obligations, contracts, bonds and shares of the capital stock of other corporations, subject to the provisions of Section 49 of the Companies' Act, 1916 and amending Acts, and generally to do any and all things necessary or proper to effect any or all of the purposes of its existence, by the name of "Wm. M. Sullivan Limited", with a capital stock of Five hundred thousand dollars divided into Five thousand shares of one hundred dollars each, and in order to accomplish any of the foregoing purposes or in payment for any property, assets or goodwill purchased or acquired by this corporation, as aforesaid, this corporation shall have power to issue shares of its capital stock to the amount of the value thereof so fully paid and non-assessable, with the head office at Nelson in the County of Northumberland and Province of New Brunswick.

Dated at the Office of the Provincial Secretary-Treasurer, the Eleventh day of January, A. D. 1922.

R. W. L. TIBBITS,
 Deputy Provincial Secretary
