

maintain buildings upon said lands in which the Company may have an interest.

To buy, sell, lease or otherwise acquire and hold, sell or otherwise dispose of real estate and to act as real estate brokers and agents.

To carry on any business of a similar nature or any business which may in the opinion of the Directors be conveniently carried on by the Company.

No object, purpose or power or any statement contained in any of the above clauses shall be in any way limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other clause but shall be construed as independent purposes and powers, by the name of "Farnham Bakeries, Limited" with a capital stock of forty-nine thousand dollars divided into nine hundred and eighty shares of fifty dollars each, under two classes, namely, Twenty-five thousand dollars, class "A" stock being ordinary stock of the Company and twenty-four thousand dollars class "B" stock being Preference stock having a preference and priority as respects dividends only and with interest at the rate of Eight per cent per annum.

The Class "B" stock being Preference stock is to be entitled to an annual dividend of eight per cent per annum, payable out of the net profits of the Company before any dividend is paid upon the common stock. Should the net profits in any year be insufficient to pay said preferred dividend either in whole or in part, said unpaid portion thereof shall become a charge against the net profits of the Company and shall be paid out in full of said net profits before any dividends are paid upon the common stock. Said preferred stock is preferred as to dividends only and is not entitled to vote at Shareholders' meetings of the Company nor to participate in profits beyond its fixed, preferential, cumulative, annual dividend of eight per cent, with the head office at the City of Saint John in the County of the City and County of Saint John and Province of New Brunswick.

Dated at the Office of the Provincial Secretary-Treasurer the Second day of August, A. D. 1923.

R. W. L. TIBBITS,
Deputy Provincial Secretary.
