SUPREME COURT CHANCERY DIVISION.

In the matter of the sale of lands of Luella Boyd, a person of unsound mind.

There will be sold at public auction in front of the Registry Office at Gagetown, in the Parish of Gagetown, Queens County, N. B., at the hour of noon, on Tuesday the 24th day of April instant, the following lands and premises of the said Luella Boyd, namely:

"All those certain lots, pieces and parcels of land and premises which were, by Deed registered in the Registry Office for the County of Queens in Book J. No. 2, pages 128, 129 and 140 under Official number 22853, conveyed by Gilbert H. Stockford to the said Andrew Boyd and in the said Deed described as follows:—All those certain tracts, pieces or parcels of land and premises situate, lying and being in the Parish of Gagetown aforesaid, known as part of the Spry Grant, (so-called) being the south-east part of a two hundred acre lot of land, which south-east part was conveyed by Deed from William B. Dingee and wife to Thomas W. Redstone bearing date the twenty-third day of January A. D. 1892 and therein described and bounded as follows: Beginning at the south angle of a lot of land owned by George W. Weston at the distance of one hundred and thirty rods from the north-west line of the lower Spry Grant (so-called); from thence running north-east on the south-east line of said lot owned by the aforesaid George W. Weston until it intersects the road or highway as it was in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight; thence towards the south along the said side of said road ten rods and eight links to a stake and stones; from thence towards the northeast on a straight line to a certain elm tree, marked, standing on the western bank of the Mill Brook (so-called); thence following the courses of the said brook as it was in the year 1853, until it intersects the front line of the said lot; thence southeast along said front line forty-one rods and sixteen links to

Charles Elliott's northwest line four hundred rods to the side line of lands owned by Daniel Stockford; thence north-west forty rods to the place of beginning containing one hundred acres more or less;

Also, all that other piece or parcel of land situate, lying and being in the Parish of Gagetown, aforesaid conveyed to William B. Dingee by James B. Dingee by Deed bearing date the third day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, registered in Queens County Records, Book Y pages 477 and 478 and therein described as being a part of the lower Spry Grant and known and described as the northwest part of a lot of land known as the "Mill Lot" and bounded and described as follows, to wit:—Beginning at a cedar stake at the north-east angle of the Chapel Lot (so-called) running forty—a southeast course until it strikes land of G. Weston, thence running northwest forty rods along the Chapel line to the place of beginning containing about ten acres more or less; Reserving and excepting out of the first part herein described lot piece or parcel of land a lot of land containing by estimation five acres more or less bounded and described as follows: beginning at a stake and stones on the western side of the highway road standing on the line between the said Mill Lot and Charles Elliott's gate, and running southwest along said line fifty-four rods and twenty-seven links to a stake and stones thence towards the northwest to a certain red pine tree, marked, standing on the southeast bank of said Mill pond, thence along the southeast bank of said Mill Pond until it comes opposite to the end of the dam; thence towards the east along the south-east side of the said road to the place of beginning; also reserving and excepting out of the first herein described lot, piece or parcel of land a certain other lot of land conveyed to Samuel Weston by William B. Dingee and wife by deed bearing date the twenty-fifth day of April A. D. 1860, and therein described as all that certain lot, piece or parcel of land situate, lying and being in the Parish of Gagetown, aforesaid commencing at the line of George Weston's lands on the Lewis Dingee road running along the said line to a stake and stones situate on the Mill Stream; thence running along the Mill Stream to the Mill privilege, including the Mill privilege, thence along the Mill privilege to the Lewis Dingee Road; thence along the said Road to the place of beginning containing five acres more or less the said described lands being intended to include all the lands conveyed to the said John Law by Thomas W. Redstone and Charlotte Matilda his wife and by the said John Law and Sarah his wife to Harry McKie saving and excepting thereout and therefrom, the Mill privilege (so called) and bounded as follows: Viz: Beginning at a stake and stones on the western side of the highway road standing on the line between, the said Mill Lot and Charles Elliott's gate and running south-east along said line forty-four rods and twenty-seven links to a stake and stones; thence towards the northwest to a certain red pine tree marked, standing on the south-east bank of said Mill Pond; thence along the southern bank of said Mill Pond until it comes opposite or to the end of the Mill dam, thence towards the east along the Southeast side of said road to the place of beginning, the same having been reserved by Harry McKie out of a deed from said Harry McKie to Gilbert H. Stockford for mill privilege deed dated the 15th day of November A. D. 1906, recorded in Book J. No. 3 of Records pages 13, 14 and 15."

The terms of sale, twenty per cent on property being knocked down, balance on delivery of title.

Dated the fourth day of April A. D. 1923.

James McAdister and Archie McAllister, Committee of the person and estate of the said Luella Boyd.
