shares, stocks, debentures, debenture stock, bonds, obligations or other securities are held by the Company and to do any act or thing for the preservation and protection, improvement or enhancement of the value of any such shares, stocks, debentures, debenture stock, bonds, obligations or other securities.

To distribute among the Shareholders of the Company, in kind, any property of the Company, and in particular any shares, debentures or securities in any other company belonging to the Company or which the Company may have power to dispose of.

To pay out of the funds of the Company all or any part of the expenses of or incidental to the formation or organization thereof.

To have, hold, own, build, erect, lease, let, hire, sell, mortgage and pledge real and personal property of any and every description and generally to carry on the business of landlords and real estate dealers and proprietors.

To carry on any other business (whether manufacturing or otherwise) which may seem to the company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with its business or calculated directly or indirectly to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights.

To acquire or undertake the whole or any part of the business, property and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of the Company.

To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing of profits, union of interest, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession or otherwise, with any person or company carrying on or engaged in or about to carry on or engage in any business or transaction which the Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit the Company, and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same.

To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of the Company, or for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit the Company.

To lend money to customers and others having dealings with the Company and to guarantee the performance of contracts by any such persons.

To draw, make, accept, endorse, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants and other negotiable or transferable instruments.

To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the Company.

To remunerate any person or company for services rendered, or to be rendered, in placing or assisting to place or guaranteeing the placing of any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures, debenture stock or other securities of the Company or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business.

To do all or any of the above things as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise and either alone or in conjunction with others.

To do such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, by the name of "Aberdeen Investments, Limited", with a capital stock of one million dollars divided into ten thousand shares of one hundred dollars each, with the head office at Keawick in the County of York, and Province of New Brunswick.

Dated at the Office of the Provincial Secretary-Treasurer the Twenty-first day of December, A. D. 1925.

ROBT. BAYLEY,
Deputy Provincial Secretary-Treasurer.
