

undertaken its nursing and maintenance, such person shall within 48 hours thereof, give to the District Medical Health Officer notice in writing of the death or removal, and in the latter case the name and address of the person to whose care the infant has been transferred.

37. Where, at the time these regulations come into force, any infant is under the care of any person who has before these regulations come into force, undertaken its nursing and maintenance, under such circumstances, that if its nursing and maintenance has been undertaken after these regulations came into force, he would have been required to give notice to the District Medical Health Officer, under these regulations, such person shall, within one month after the coming into force of these regulations give to the District Medical Health Officer, the like notice as if the nursing and maintenance of the infant had been undertaken after the coming into force of these regulations.

38. These regulations shall apply to an infant whose nursing and maintenance has been undertaken for hire or reward before the coming into force of these regulations in like manner as it applies to an infant whose nursing and maintenance has been undertaken after the coming into force of these regulations.

39. If any person required to give a notice under these regulations fails to give the notice within the time specified for giving the notice, he shall be guilty of an infraction of these regulations and liable to the penalties thereof.

40. It shall be the duty of the District Medical Health Officer to provide for the carrying out of these regulations, and for this purpose he shall from time to time make inquiry whether there are any persons residing in the Sub-Health District who undertake the nursing and maintenance of infants in respect of which notice is required to be given under the foregoing regulations.

41. If in the Sub-Health District persons are found who undertake nursing and maintenance of such infants as aforesaid, the Sub-District Board of Health on the recommendation of the District Medical Health Officer, may, in writing, appoint one or more persons of either sex, to be "Infant Protection" Visitors, whose duty it shall be from time to time to visit any infant referred to in any notice given under these regulations, and the premises in which they are kept, in order to satisfy themselves as to the proper nursing and maintenance of such infants, or to give any necessary advice or directions as to their nursing and maintenance, provided that the District Medical Health Officer may either, in addition or in lieu of the appointment of Infant Protection Visitors, authorize in writing, one or more suitable persons of either sex to exercise the powers of Infant Protection Visitors under these regulations, subject to such terms and conditions as may be stated in the authorization.

42. If any person undertaking the nursing and maintenance of any such infant, refuses to allow any such visitors or other authorized person to visit or examine the infants or the premises in which they are kept such person shall be guilty of an infraction of these regulations and liable to the penalties thereof.

43. No infant in respect of which notice is required to be given under these regulations, shall without the written sanction of the District Medical Health Officer be kept in any premises from which any infant has been removed under these regulations by reason of the premises being dangerous or unsanitary, or by reason of such premises being unfit as to endanger its health, and any person keeping or causing to be kept an infant, contrary to this Section, shall be guilty of an infraction of these regulations and liable to the penalties thereof.

44. The District Medical Health Officer may limit the number of infants under the age of seven years which may be kept in any dwelling in respect of which notice has been received under these regulations and any such person keeping any infant in excess of the number so fixed shall be guilty of an infraction of these regulations and liable to the penalties thereof.

45. If any infant in respect of which notice is required to be given under these regulations is kept;

(1) In any premises which are overcrowded, dangerous or unsanitary, or,

(2) By any person who, by reason of negligence, ignorance, drunkenness, immorality, criminal conduct or other similar cause, is unfit to have care of it; or,

(3) By any person or in any premises in contravention of any of the provisions of these regulations; any visitor or other person appointed or authorized to execute the provisions of these regulations, may, with the consent of the District Medical Health Officer remove such infant to a place of safety until it can be restored to its relatives or otherwise lawfully disposed of.

46. If any person required to give notice under these regulations knowingly or willfully makes or causes any other person to make any false or misleading statements in any such notice, he shall be guilty of an infraction of these regulations and liable to the penalties thereof.

47. Every person who keeps, nurses or maintains, or undertakes to keep, nurse or maintain, any infant for hire or reward, or keeps or maintains any premises for any such purposes, shall, and such place or premises shall comply with all the provisions of these regulations and any such person who fails to comply, or whose premises fail to comply with any of the provisions of this part shall be guilty of an infraction of these regulations and liable to the penalties thereof.

48. The provisions of this part shall not extend to any relative or any legal guardian of any infant who undertakes the maintenance or nursing of the infant or to hospitals or convalescent homes, and for the purposes of this Section the expression "relative" means guardians, parents, brothers, sisters, uncles and aunts, by consanguinity or affinity, and in the case of illegitimate infants the persons who would be so related if the infant were legitimate.

49. Nothing in these regulations contained shall relieve any person from complying with the provisions (where they are applicable) of any other regulations of the Sub-District Board of Health or of the Department of Health.

50. It shall be unlawful for any person to undertake for hire or reward to nurse and maintain any infant under the age of seven (7) years apart from his or her parents, or having no parents, unless and until he or she shall have first made application so to do to the District Medical Health Officer, who shall as soon as possible have the premises which are intended to be used as a place to nurse and maintain such infant inspected, and if said premises are found to be a fit and proper place the District Medical Health Officer may issue a permit to said applicant upon the payment to the Sub-district Board of Health of the sum of one dollar ($1.00) for registration fee. Such permit shall remain in force during the year of issue only, and shall be liable to cancellation if in the opinion of the District Medical Health Officer such a course is advisable.

51. It shall be necessary for all persons acting as attendants of infants under these regulations, when so ordered by the District Medical Health Officer, to take such steps as he may deem advisable for the prevention of communicable diseases.

52. The above regulations shall go into effect on and after the first day of May, 1926.

Passed by the Sub-District Board of Health of Saint John City and County.
Saint John, N. B., March 17th, 1926.
(Sgd.) JOHN KELLY,
Chairman.

(Sgd.) T. M. BURNS,
Secretary.
Approved (Sgd.) H. I. TAYLOR,
Minister of Health.
