HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY

Rules and Practice of the Legislative Assembly of New Brunswick.

The attention of parties intending to seek legislation at the next session of the Legislative Assembly is directed to the following Rules:

Private and Local Bills

77. A typewritten copy or printed copy of every Private Bill or Local Bill introduced into this House shall be filed with the Clerk of the House within ten days after the opening of the Session, and in case of failure to comply with this provision, the fee on the introduction of any such Private Bill shall be double the fee provided for in Rule 54, applicable to such Bill, and Local Bills introduced after ten days of the opening of the Session shall pay the same fee as a Private Bill.

78. No Private Bill, or Bill making an amendment of a like nature to a former Act, shall be received by the House unless a notice specifying clearly and distinctly the nature and objects thereof, has been published four successive weeks previous to the meeting of the Legislature, or to the introduction of the Bill, in some one of the newspapers published in the County, interested in or to be affected by the measure, or in the locality where the parties affected, or the majority of them, reside; and when no newspaper is published in such county or locality, then in some newspaper having general circulation in such County or locality, and also in the Royal Gazette. When the City or County interested in the measure, or the locality in which the parties affected reside, is largely composed of a French population, then such notice shall also be published in a French newspaper, if any be published in the Province.

79. In any County where no newspaper may be published, the Bill, in lieu of other local publications may be read at any Circuit or County Court in the presence of the Grand Jury, or before the Municipal Council of the County interested in or affected by the Bill, and a certificate of such reading shall be indorsed
