

In a few weeks we will join in a spirit of hope and confidence in a joyous celebration of the sixtieth anniversary of the formation of the Dominion of Canada. Through six decades our country has been gradually realizing its potentiality as a nation. War with its attendant sacrifice has hallowed its existence. The development of Agriculture and manufactures, the revelation of our enormous natural resources, the exploitation of our commerce have all left their impress upon the character of this State not yet grown old as nations count their years.

I hope that the blessing of our Almighty Father may be vouchsafed to our country and our province and that He may guide those who do His work in doing that of their country.
