

To sell, dispose of or transfer the business, property and undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, for any consideration which the Company may see fit to accept.

To accept stock or shares in, or the debentures, mortgage debentures or other securities of any other company in payment or part payment for any services rendered or for any sale made to or debt owing from any such company.

To distribute in specie or otherwise as may be resolved any assets of the Company among its members.

To do all or any of the matters hereby authorized either alone or in conjunction with, or as factors, trustees or agents for, any other companies or persons, or by or through any factors, trustees or agents.

Generally to do all such other things as may appear to be incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

And it is hereby declared that, in the interpretation of this clause the meaning of any of the Company's objects shall not be restricted by reference to any other object, or by juxtaposition of two or more objects, and that, in the event of any ambiguity, this clause shall be construed in such a way as to widen, and not to restrict the powers of the Company, by the name of "E. Allan Schofield, Limited", with a capital stock of Five Thousand Dollars divided into One thousand Common Shares without any Nominal or Par Value, and the said Common Shares without Nominal or Par Value may be issued and allotted from time to time for such consideration as may be fixed by the Board of Directors, not exceeding Five Dollars per share, with the head office at the City of Saint John, in the County of the City and County of Saint John and Province of New Brunswick, with permission to hold the Annual Meetings of the Company and the special general meetings of the Share holders or Directors without the Province.

Dated at the Office of the Provincial Secretary-Treasurer the Twenty-second day of October, A. D. 1928.

ROBERT BAYLEY,
Deputy Prov. Secretary-Treasurer.
