

tained in this section marriage may be solemnized between persons, either of whom has landed at the Port of Saint John from overseas with the intention of being married upon arrival at the said Port, provided that the Port Chaplain or representative of the religious body to which either of said parties may belong, or if there be no such Port Chaplain, the person solemnizing the marriage may dispense with previous notice.

2. Section 12 of said Chapter is hereby amended by adding thereto the following sub-section:

(2) Before any marriage license shall be issued the person issuing the same shall require a statutory declaration as to each of the intended parties in the form "B" hereto which declaration shall be made by a resident of the Province if circumstances will permit, but if made by a person not so resident, such person must be personally known to the issuer of the license to be a responsible person. Such declaration must be made by someone other than an intended party to the marriage but the same person, if he knows the circumstances, may make a declaration for each of the parties. The issuer of the license shall read over the declaration, completely filled in to the party making it, and shall see that the person signing the same apparently understands the declaration. In any case which cannot be completely met by the use of the said form, the issuer of the license shall obtain previous authority for any variation from the Attorney General, or the Deputy Attorney General, or if the case is urgent and he cannot communicate with either of them, then such authority may be obtained in writing from the Mayor, or Clerk of any City or Town, the Warden or Secretary of any Municipality, the Police or Stipendiary Magistrate of any City or Town, or any Member of the Legislative Assembly. The issuer of any marriage license shall attach the declaration or declarations to the said license and no person shall solemnize any marriage under such license unless it is accompanied by such declaration or declarations.
