

in such manner as may from time to time be determined.

To distribute the whole or any part of the property of the Company in specie among the stockholders.

To pay out of the funds of the Company all or any of the expenses of or incidental to the formation and organization thereof.

To purchase and redeem any issued preferred shares of the capital stock of the Company and re-issue any preferred shares that have at any time been purchased and redeemed.

It is ordained and declared that the shareholders of the Company may by resolution remove any Director or Directors or any officer or officers before the expiration of his or their period of office and appoint other qualified person in his or their stead for the balance of his or their term at any special general meeting of which notice specifying the intention to pass such resolution shall have been given, by the name of "Sussex Ginger Ale, Limited", with a capital stock of seventy-five hundred preferred shares of the par value of Forty Dollars each and fifteen thousand common shares without nominal or par value of which seventy-five hundred shares shall not be sold but held for the conversion of the preferred shares into common shares. Provided however that the remaining seventy-five hundred common shares without nominal or par value may be issued and allotted by the Directors from time to time for such consideration as may be fixed by the Directors at the time of allotment not exceeding in amount or value as determined by the Directors the sum of Forty Dollars per share.

The said preferred shares shall carry and be subject to the preference priorities privileges rights limitations restrictions and provisions hereinafter set forth that is to say:—

The holders of the preferred shares shall be entitled to receive as and when declared by the Board of Directors of the Company a fixed cumulative preferred dividend from the surplus of the Company or from the net profits arising from the business at the rate of seven per cent. per annum cumulative from the first day of October 1929 and payable quarterly on the first days of January, April, July and October in each year the first quarterly payment to be made on the first day of January 1930 and shall be entitled to a further dividend of one per cent. each year in which a dividend is paid on the common stock and before payment of such dividend on the common stock and no dividend shall be paid on the common stock which would reduce the surplus or undivided profits of the Company to an amount less than two years dividends at the rate of seven per centum per annum on the preferred shares.

In the event of liquidation dissolution of the Company or the sale of the Company's assets whether voluntary or involuntary the holders of the preferred shares then outstanding shall be entitled to receive the sum of Forty Dollars per share together with dividends at the rate of seven per centum per annum up to the date of payment, which payment shall be made out of the assets of the Company (whether capital or surplus) before any payment shall be made to the holders of the common shares.

The preferred shares from time to time outstanding may be redeemed from time to time in whole or in part at any time at the option of the Company by the payment in cash for each share so to be redeemed of Forty-five Dollars per share. Provided however that not less than thirty days previous to the date fixed for redemption, which shall be a dividend date, a notice specifying the time and place for such redemption shall be given to the holders of record of the preferred shares to be redeemed, such notice to be given in such manner as may be prescribed by the By-laws of the Company or by resolution of its Board of Directors. If less than all of the outstanding preferred shares are to be redeemed, such redemption shall be made either pro rata or the shares to be redeemed shall be selected by lot or in such manner as may be prescribed by By-law of the Company or by resolution of the Board of Directors. From and after the date fixed in any such notice as the date of redemption (unless default shall be made by the Company in making payment of the redemption price, as set forth in said notice) all dividends on the preferred shares called for redemption shall cease to accrue, and all rights of the holders thereof as shareholders of the Company, except the right to receive the redemption price without interest, shall cease and determine. Provided however that the Company if and when opportunity affords, may purchase any of the preferred shares of the Company at a price less than the said redemption price, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein contained, and further provided that holders of preferred shares may convert such preferred shares into common shares, share for share up to forty-eight hours before the day fixed for redemption, unless such redemption period is upon a date subsequent to the first day of October 1934.

The holders of preferred shares shall have no voting power provided that if at any time four quarterly dividends on the preferred shares are passed and remain unpaid, the holders of preferred shares shall be entitled to one vote for each preferred share, and to vote at any meeting of the Company during such time as any four quarterly dividends on the preferred shares remain unpaid.

The said preferred shares shall be convertible into common shares, share for share at any time up to and including the first day of October 1934 at the option of the holder of such preferred shares subject to the provisions in paragraph (3) hereof for redemption of such preferred shares, with the Head Office at the Town of Sussex, in the County of Kings and Province of New Brunswick.
