BY AUTHORITY

ASSEMBLY CHAMBER

FREDERICTON, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 1930.

This being the day appointed by proclamation for the meeting of the Legislature, at three o'clock His Honour, Hugh Havelock McLean, K. C., V. D., LL. D., Lieutenant Governor of the Province of New Brunswick, came to the Assembly Chamber, and being seated on the Throne, was pleased to open the Session with the following:

SPEECH

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the Legislative Assembly:—

At the commencement of your last Session Mr. James Lewis, one of the Members for the City of Saint John, was suddenly attacked by illness and after some months, passed away to the great regret of those who esteemed him as a conscientious, high minded and faithful servant of the people.

During the year we were pleased by the assurances received that the health of His Most Gracious Majesty had been restored.
