ASSEMBLY CHAMBER

FREDERICTON, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1931.

This being the day appointed by proclamation for the meeting of the Legislature, at three o'clock, His Honour, Hugh Havelock McLean, K. C., V. D., LL.D., Lieutenant-Governor of the Province of New Brunswick, came to the Assembly Chamber, and being seated on the Throne, was pleased to open the Session with the following:

SPEECH

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the Legislative Assembly:—

Upon the opening of the Tenth Legislative Assembly of this Province it is my pleasure to congratulate the gentlemen who have been selected by the people to represent them during its term. They will find, as have all their predecessors, that the transaction of public business is not only interesting in itself but may be made of great value to the community. Already the hand of death has fallen upon one of the members of the County of Gloucester, reminding us of the transitory nature of our service in this place. The death of the
