(Revised to February 17th, 1932)

Fishing Leases issued under the sale of April 7th, 1932, shall include and be subject to the following conditions:

1st. The Lessee shall, under this Lease, have the right to fish with rod and line in the manner known as "Surface Fly Fishing," and in no other manner whatsoever.

2nd. The Lessee covenants to pay the first year's rental at the time of sale, and to pay each subsequent year's rental during the continuance of this lease, on or before the first day of March in each year, otherwise the Lease may be annulled by the Minister of Lands and Mines, and the lands again put up to sale; and in the event of the annulling of this Lease as aforesaid, the said Lessee shall still be liable at the suit of His Majesty, for said annual rental and the expenses of any new sale as aforesaid.

3rd. The Lessee of the lands conveying fishing privileges under this Lease covenants to hold the said lands and privileges subject to the general rights of passage to and from and upon the lands and waters conveyed in this Lease, of any person or persons who may hold adjacent lands under grant, or under license from the Crown for lumbering or other necessary purposes, and further to the general right of passage along and upon the river or stream herein leased, for logs, lumber, boats and vessels of all kinds, and subject to all right reserved by Acts of Assembly, or any regulation made thereunder.

4th. It is hereby covenanted and agreed by said Lessee that this Lease shall not be assigned, transferred or sub-
