

duly called for the purpose of considering such bye-law or bye-laws.

The Directors from time to time may by bye-law delegate such of their powers as they see fit to an executive committee consisting of not less than three members of the Board.

At each annual meeting it shall be the duty of the Shareholders present to estimate and establish by resolution the real value of the shares of the Company's capital stock, such estimation to be based on the financial results of the Company's operations as shown by the statement of its affairs before them, and if at any time during the course of the following year any shares of the Company's capital stock are offered for sale, or if the sale has not been recorded in the Company's books, or if they have been transmitted by legacy, inheritance, the marriage of a female shareholder, or in any other manner whatsoever, then one or a greater number of the Shareholders of the Company, shall, during the two months after such sale, offer of sale, or transfer shall have been served upon the Company have the privilege of acquiring the shares so offered for sale or transferred as aforesaid, on payment or offer of the price of such shares calculated according to their value as established at the last annual meeting of the Company, provided however, that the Company shall first have the privilege of naming the Shareholders who shall acquire the shares and afterwards the Shareholders shall have the privilege of acquiring them after such delay to allow the Company to deliberate, and after such order and on such conditions as regards the respective Shareholders, as may be determined by the bye-laws of the Company.

The Company may establish offices at such places as the Directors may decide to be in the Company's interest.

The moneys and securities of each trust shall always be kept distinct from those of the Company and in separate accounts, and so marked in the books of the Company for each particular trust, as always to be distinguished from any other in the registers and other books of account to be kept by the Company, and so invested that at no time shall trust moneys form part of or be mixed with the general assets of the Company; and the Company shall in the receipt of rents and in the overseeing and management of trust and other property, keep distinct records and accounts of all operations connected therewith, provided, always, that in the management of money and property held by the Company as trustee under the powers conferred by the Letters Patent incorporating the Company the Company may, unless the authority making the appointment shall, at the time of the making of such appointment, otherwise direct, invest the same in a General Trust Fund of the Company, and provided, also, that the total amount of money of any one trust invested in the said General Trust Fund shall not, at any time, exceed Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000).

Notwithstanding any law or rule or practice to the contrary, whenever the Company is appointed to any office it shall not be required to give any security other than its own bond for the due performance of its duties in connection with such office, unless the court see fit otherwise to direct.

This Company is incorporated subject to the compliance with all the laws of the Province of New Brunswick relating to "Trust Companies" and all the laws of the Dominion relating to "Banking Companies," by the name of "The Provincial Trust & Building Corporation, Limited," with a capital stock of One Hundred Thousand Dollars divided into Two Thousand Shares of Fifty Dollars Each, with the Head Office at the City of Saint John, in the County of the City and County of Saint John and Province of New Brunswick.

Dated at the Office of the Provincial Secretary-Treasurer the Twenty-second day of July, A.D. 1932.
