

(2) Every statement of claim shall contain in the margin thereof the name of the County where the Plaintiff desires that the action be tried, and the action shall be tried in such County, unless on the application of any party the Court or a Judge otherwise orders.

(3) In fixing the place for the trial of any action, cause, issue or matter, the Court or Judge shall have regard to the convenience of the parties and their witnesses and the date at which the trial can take place, and, when a view may be desirable, the locality of the object to be viewed, and to the other circumstances of the case, including inter alia, the wishes of, and the expenses to the parties, the relative facilities for trial at the various places suggested, and the burden imposed on jurors.