

the 30th ult. at that date the Russian fleet under Count Heyden, was at anchor in the Bay, but the sails were bent, and every preparation made for their departure. The letters state that the English fleet would immediately follow the Russian. The English squadron, consist of the Ocean, Windsor Castle, Revenge, and Spartiate.

December 29.—On Saturday the Duke of Wellington arrived at the Castle, and had an audience of His Majesty, and, after partaking of refreshments, left in the evening for London. His Majesty seems to labour under the effects of a slight cold; but we are happy to state that he is this day quite well.—Express.

The American Minister had interviews with Mr. V. Fitzgerald, and with the Earl of Aberdeen on Saturday.—Courier.

Prince Polignac has arrived in Town from his visit to Paris. His Excellency had a long interview this morning with the Earl of Aberdeen.—Standard.

The Banking-house of Remington, Stephenson, Remington, and Toulmin, which has lately been the subject of much conversation, closed its payments this day at two o'clock. The resources of the Firm were said to amount last Night to 120,000*l.* in notes, a balance to the Bank of England of 90,000*l.* & 30,000*l.* Exchequer Bills. One of the partners is reported to have withdrawn himself with a very considerable sum in cash and Exchequer Bills. The magistrates have refused to grant a warrant, as he has left a check for the amount against his private account.—lb.

The failure of Remington & Co. still continues the only topic of conversation at present in the city, and we are told that great errors had been discovered in Mr. Stephenson's accounts—that he has carried on a Bill system—that he has occasioned sales of stock which ought to have remained untouched—and that he has covered his transactions by means of false entries in the books.—lb.

It is stated that the amount which Mr. Stephenson has taken from the funds is from 150,000 to 200,000*l.* On the afternoon previous to his disappearance he purchased a brace of pistols, which he requested the shopman to load for him. Various accounts are published in the English papers relative to the affair—among others, that the firm was largely indebted to him and that he took the funds to compel them to a settlement.

Despatches were received from Naples and Paris, and from Corfu so late as the 10th instant. It was reported at the latter place, that an Egyptian expedition, with corn for Constantinople, had succeeded in getting into the Dardanelles.—Courier.

Extract of a private letter from Dublin, December 23:—"The county of Tipperary—the scene of the marching of the regimented and marshalled troops of the Association, last summer—has not been in such a state of disturbance as at the present time since the Rock insurrection of 1804-5. Parties of armed men appear by night and take away guns from the farmers' houses."

PARIS, January 4.—Reports of Don Miguel's death, so often circulated, were repeated yesterday on change, but have not been confirmed; however, they have not been contradicted to day by any official account. It is pretended that letters from Lisbon, received this day, declare that this event took place on the 13th of December. Other letters, to the 20th, make no mention of it, but speak insurrectionary movements in several of the provinces, and among different Regiments.

Letters from London of the 31st December, deny the gracious reception which, according to the Morning Journal, Don Pedro had given the propositions of Lord Strangford. On the contrary the Emperor has ordered the Marquis de Barbacena to act with full powers to procure the recognition in Europe, of the exclusive rights of Donna Maria to the throne of Portugal.

A letter from Madrid, dated Dec. 22d, states, that the Minister of the United States had sent to Mr. Salmon a document which related to a communication from the Colombia Minister in London to the Minister of the United States at Madrid, announcing that the South Americans were ready to treat with Spain, provided the sovereignty was not claimed by the latter.

Extract of a letter from Berlin, dated Dec. 22: "Negotiations for the re-establishment of peace are actively continued and it is said that our cabinet has resolved to assume the part of mediator. Little hope is entertained, however, of the return of peace and letters from St. Petersburg state that the Emperor is more determined than ever in continuing the war. A kind of enthusiasm has spread throughout the whole empire, and the recruiting is promptly effected. animated by the example of the late Empress-Mother, all the ladies of St. Petersburg are employed in preparing lineament for the wounded, and in supplying, by means of collections, every thing required in their condition."

A letter from the banks of the Elbe, states, that the project for uniting the Baltic with the North-Sea is at last to be carried into effect. The preparatory measures having been taken, the project is to be submitted to the States of Mecklenburgh, which are on the eve of assembling. The only obstacle is an eminence 84 feet high, to obviate which, it is proposed to make a subterranean canal, 1000 feet in length. The expense of the whole undertaking is estimated at 700,000 crowns.

Extract of a letter from Jassy, dated Dec. 12:—"A rumour has just been spread that a serious engagement has taken place in the neighbourhood of Varna, where the Turks made a last effort to dislodge the Russians from their positions. The versions of the issue of this affair are very contradictory, some attributing the victory to the Russians, others asserting that the Turks have obtained the object they had in view. No decisive opinion can yet be formed on this subject."
