

10. That this House has not complained, nor has any complaints been made known to it, respecting the arbitration for the distribution between the Provinces of Upper and Lower-Canada of the duties collected in Lower-Canada; but that in this, as in every other respect, this House will most cheerfully co-operate in every equitable and constitutional measure which may be submitted to it as desirable by the inhabitants of Upper-Canada.

11. That this House has seen, with sentiments of the highest satisfaction and gratitude, the declaration of the willingness of His Majesty's Government cheerfully to accede to the desire which the Assembly has so frequently expressed during the last twenty years, of having an Agent in England to indicate the wishes of the inhabitants of Lower-Canada; and that it is expedient to provide for such an appointment without delay.

12. That so soon as the scheme in contemplation of His Majesty's Government for the permanent settlement of the financial concerns of the Province shall have been made known and considered, it may be expedient to provide some adequate indemnity to such persons as were placed on the Civil Establishment of this Province with salaries prior to the year 1818, and whose offices may have been found to be unnecessary or required to be abolished.

13. That this House will cheerfully concur in any measure which may appear most likely to be successful in effectually removing the great inconvenience which has been sustained from the non-performance of the duties of settlement by grantees or holders of land obtained from the Crown, and otherwise remove the obstructions to the settlement of the country which may have resulted or may hereafter result from the manner in which the powers and superintendance of the crown in most essential particular as effecting the general prosperity of the Province, may have been exercised.

14. That so soon as the Inhabitants of the Townships, upon a subdivision of the Counties in which they are situated by act of the Provincial Parliament, shall have a full and equitable representation in this House, of persons of their own free choice; the House will cheerfully concur in every measure particularly interesting to the Townships which may appear to be most desirable to the inhabitants and the most conducive to the general welfare.—[Amended.]

15. That this House is fully sensible of the distinguished mark of confidence reposed in the loyalty and attachment hitherto evinced by His Majesty's Canadian subjects and their Representatives in the Provincial Parliament, by His Majesty's declaration that he relies on them, for an amicable adjustment of the various questions which have been so long in dispute.

16. That amongst these questions not particularly mentioned on the present occasion, this House holds as most desirable to be adjusted and most essential to the future peace, welfare and good government of the Province, viz:

The Independence of the Judges and their removal from the political business of the Province.

The responsibility and accountability of public officers.

A great independence of support from the public revenue; and more intimate connection with the interest of the Colony, in the composition of the Legislative Council.

The application of the late property of the Jesuits to the purpose of general education.

The removal of all obstructions to the settlement of the country, particularly by the Crown and Clergy Reserves remaining unoccupied in the neighbourhood of the Roads and Settlements, and exempt from the Common burdens.

And a diligent enquiry into and a ready redress of all grievances and abuses which may be found to exist or which may have been petitioned against by the subject in this Province, thereby assuring to all the invaluable benefit of an impartial, conciliatory and constitutional Government, and restoring a well-founded and reciprocal confidence between the Governors and the governed.

That an humble Address be presented to His Excellency the Administrator of the Government, with a copy of the foregoing Resolutions, humbly praying that he would be pleased to submit the same to His Majesty's Government in England.
