

III. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall continue and be in force until the first day of April, one thousand, eight hundred and thirty.

An Act for the more speedy and effectual punishment of persons keeping disorderly Houses.
Passed 10th February, 1829.

BE it enacted by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council, and Assembly, That it shall and may be lawful for any one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, upon the complaint of any two inhabitants and householders of any City, Town, or Parish, within this Province, upon oath, of any person keeping a Bawdy-House, Gaming-House, or other disorderly House, in such City, Town, or Parish, to issue his Warrant to bring such person before him; and such Justice shall thereupon bind him or her over, to appear at the next General Sessions of the Peace, or at the next Court of Oyer and Terminer, to be holden in and for the County, or City and County, in which such place shall be, as to the said Justice shall seem meet; there to answer to such Bill of Indictment as shall be found against him or her for such offence: and such Justice shall and may, if in his discretion he thinks fit, likewise demand and take security for such person's good behaviour, in the mean time: Provided always, that before any such Warrant shall be issued by a Justice of the Peace, he shall require the two Inhabitants, so making complaint to him as aforesaid, to enter into a recognizance in the Penal sum of twenty Pounds each, to give or produce material evidence against the person complained of, at the next Sessions, or Court of Oyer and Terminer, as the case may be.

II. And be it further enacted, That any person, who shall at any time hereafter, appear, act, or behave him or herself as Master or Mistress, or as the person having the care, government, or management of any Bawdy-House, Gaming-House, or other disorderly House, shall be deemed, and taken to be the Keeper thereof, and shall be liable to be prosecuted and punished as such, notwithstanding he or she shall not in fact be the real owner or keeper thereof.

III. And be it further enacted, That upon any such prosecution, against any person for keeping a Bawdy-House, Gaming-House, or other disorderly House, any person may give evidence against the Defendant, or on behalf of the Defendant in such prosecution, notwithstanding his or her being an Inhabitant, or having entered into such recognizance aforesaid.

IV. And be it further enacted, that every Indictment, against any Person for keeping a Bawdy-House, Gaming-House, or other disorderly House, shall be heard, tried, and finally determined at the same General Sessions, or Court of Oyer and Terminer, where such Indictment shall have been preferred, unless the Court shall think proper, upon cause shewn, to adjourn the same to the next, or any subsequent Session, or Court of Oyer and Terminer.

V. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall continue and be in force, until the first day of April, in the Year of our Lord, one thousand, eight hundred and thirty-four.

An Act for amending the Law of Evidence in Certain Cases.

Passed 10th February, 1829.

WHEREAS it is expedient that Quakers, and Moravians, should be allowed to give evidence upon their Solemn affirmation in all cases, criminal as well as civil; and that in prosecution for Forgery, the Party interested should be rendered a competent Witness:

I. Be it therefore enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council, and Assembly, That every Quaker or Moravian, who shall be required to give Evidence in any case whatsoever, Criminal or Civil, shall, instead of taking an Oath in the usual form, be permitted to make his or her Solemn affirmation or declaration, in the words following: that is to say, "I, A. B., do solemnly, sincerely, and truly declare and affirm;" which said affirmation or declaration, shall be of the same force and effect, in all Courts of Justice, and other places, where, by Law, an Oath is required, as if such Quaker or Moravian had taken an Oath in the usual form.

And if any person making such affirmation or declaration shall be convicted of having wilfully, falsely, and corruptly affirmed or declared any matter or thing, which, if the same had been sworn in the usual form, would have amounted to wilful and corrupt perjury, every such offender shall be subject to the same pains, penalties, and forfeitures, to which Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt perjury, are or shall be subject.

II. And be it further enacted, That on any Prosecution by Indictment or information, against any person for forging any deed, writing, instrument, or other matter whatsoever, or for uttering or disposing of any deed, writing, instrument, or other matter whatsoever, knowing the same to be forged; no Person shall be deemed to be an incompetent Witness in support of any such prosecution, by reason of any interest which such person may have, or be supposed to have in respect to such deed, writing, instrument, or other matter.

An Act to continue an Act, intituled "An Act to repeal all the Laws now in force for the regulation of Seamen, and to make more effectual provision for that purpose."

Passed 10th February, 1829.

BE it enacted by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council, and Assembly, That an act made and passed in the seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to repeal all the laws now in force, for the regulation of Seamen, and to make more effectual provision for that purpose," be, and the same is hereby continued and declared to be in full force, until the first day of April, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five.

An Act to continue and amend An Act, intituled "An Act to provide for the Surrender of the Principal, in discharge of Bail, in Actions pending in the Supreme Court of Judicature, in this Province."

Passed 10th February, 1829.

WHEREAS in and by an Act, passed in the fourth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act to provide for the Surrender of the Principal in discharge of Bail in Actions pending in the Supreme Court of Judicature in this Province, power is given to Commissioners for taking Bail in the said Court, in the several Counties where no Judge of the said Supreme Court resides, to take the Surrender of Defendants in discharge of their Bail, in the same manner as the Judges of the said Court are used to do: and whereas it frequently happens that Judges are absent from the Counties in which they have their residence, and in their absence no persons are present in such Counties, before whom such Surrender, now lawfully can be made:

I. Be it therefore enacted by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council, and Assembly, That all the power vested in the said Commissioners by the said Act, shall and may be exercised by them respectively, in the absence of all the Judges of the said Court from any County, in which the Surrender is to be made, in the same manner as they may now do, in cases of non residence of such Judges, or any of them.

II. And be it further enacted, That this Act, together with the said recited Act, to which this is an Amendment, shall continue and be in force, until the first day of April, in the Year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five.

An Act in addition to an Act, intituled "An Act for the appointment of Town and Parish Officers in the several Counties in this Province."

Passed 10th February, 1829.

WHEREAS it is expedient that persons who shall be appointed Parish Officers, should not be Members of the Court by which such Parish Officers are appointed.

I. Be it enacted by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council, and Assembly, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall not be lawful for the Justices of the Peace for the several Counties in this Province, to appoint any Person or Persons to serve in the capacity of any Town or Parish Officer, who shall be a Member or Members of the Court so appointing Parish Officers.
