

In all the Prayers, Liturgies and Collects for the King, and for the Royal Family, to be used within our Province of New-Brunswick, under your Government, instead of the word "George" the word "William" be inserted, and that the words "Our Gracious Queen Adelaide and," be inserted before the words "all the Royal Family"—and for the better notice hereof in our said Province, it is our better will and pleasure, that you cause the same to be forthwith published in the several Parish Churches and other places of Divine Worship, within the said Province, and that you take care that obedience be paid thereto accordingly.

Given at our Court at St. James's this sixth day of July 1830, in the first year of our reign.

At the Court of St. James's, the 26th day of June, 1830.

PRESENT,
His Majesty's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS MAJESTY being this day present in Council, was pleased to make the following declaration, viz:—

I am convinced that you will fully participate in the affliction which I am suffering on account of the loss of a Sovereign, under whose auspices, as Regent and as King, this Country has maintained during War its ancient reputation and glory—has enjoyed a long period of happiness and internal peace—and has possessed the friendship, respect and confidence of Foreign Powers.

In addition to that loss which I sustain in common with you, and with all who lived under the Government of a most beneficent and gracious King, I have to lament the death of a beloved and affectionate brother, with whom I have lived, from my earliest years, in terms of the most cordial and uninterrupted friendship, and to whose favour and kindness I have been most deeply indebted.

After having passed my life in the service of my country, and having, I trust, uniformly acted as the most faithful subject and servant of the King, I am now called upon, under the dispensation of Almighty God, to administer the Government of this great Empire. I am fully sensible of the difficulties which I have to encounter; but I possess the advantage of having witnessed the conduct of my revered father, and my lamented and beloved brother; and I rely with confidence upon the advice and assistance of Parliament and upon its zealous co-operation in my anxious endeavours, under the blessing of Divine Providence, to maintain the Reformed Religion established by law, to protect the rights and liberties, and to promote the prosperity and happiness, of all classes of my people.

Whereupon the Lords of the Council made it their humble request to His Majesty, that His Majesty's most gracious declaration to their Lordships might be made public—which His Majesty was pleased to order accordingly.

JAS. BULLER.
Provincial Secretary's Office,
Fredericton, August 23d, 1830.

The following Order has been received by His Honor the President.

"HERALD'S COLLEGE, June 23, 1830.
The Earl Marshal's Order for a general Mourning for His late Majesty King George the Fourth.

"In pursuance of an Order of His Majesty in Council, the 29th June, 1830, these are to give Public Notice, that it is expected, that all persons upon the present occasion of the Death of His late Majesty, of blessed Memory, do put themselves into decent Mourning—the said Mourning to begin upon Wednesday next, the 30th inst.

"NORFOLK, Earl Marshal."
The Mourning upon occasion of the Death of His late Majesty, of blessed Memory, will begin on Friday next, the 27th inst.

By Command,
JOHN SIMCOE SAUNDERS,
Acting Secretary.

At the Court of St. James's, the 26th day of June, 1830.

PRESENT,
The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty.

WHEREAS by the late Act of Uniformity, 1534, which establishes the Liturgy, and enacts, that no form or order of common prayer be openly used other than what is prescribed and appointed to be used in and by the said Book, it is notwithstanding, provided that in all those Prayers, Liturgies, and Collects which do in anywise relate to the King, Queen, or Royal Progeny, the names be altered and changed, from time to time, and fittest to the present occasion, according to direction of law—authority. His Majesty was pleased this day in Council, to declare His Royal Will and Pleasure, that in all the Prayers, Liturgies, and Collects for the King, instead of the word "George," the word "William" be inserted; and that in all the Prayers, Liturgies, and Collects for the Royal Family, the words "Our Gracious Queen, Adelaide and," be inserted before the words "all the Royal Family."

And His Majesty doth strictly charge and command, that no Edition of the Common Prayer be hereafter printed, till with this amendment; and that in the mean time, till copies of such Edition may be had, all Parsons, Vicars and Curates, Ministers, and all others, who are so highly concerned with the pen, correct and amend all such Prayers in their Church Books, according to the foregoing direction; and for the better notice hereof, that this Order be forthwith printed and published, and sent to the several parishes; and that the Right Reverend the Bishops do take care that obedience be paid to the same accordingly.

JAS. BULLER.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

For the encouragement of Piety and Virtue, and for the preventing and punishing of Vice, Profaneness, and Immorality.

WILLIAM, R.

WE, most seriously and religiously considering that it is an indispensable duty on Us to be careful, above all other things, to preserve and advance the honour and service of Almighty God; and to discourage and suppress all Vice, Profaneness, Debauchery, and Immorality, which are so highly displeasing to God, so great a reproach to Our Religion and Government, and (by means of the frequent examples of the practices thereof) have so fatal a tendency to the corruption of many of Our loving subjects, otherwise religiously and virtuously disposed, and which (if not timely remedied) may justly draw down the Divine vengeance on Us and Our Kingdom. We also humbly acknowledging that we cannot expect the blessing and Goodness of Almighty God (by whom Kings reign and on Which We entirely rely) to make Our Reign happy and prosperous to Ourselves and Our people, without a religious observance of God's holy laws; to the intent, therefore, that Religion, Piety, and Good Manners may (according to Our most hearty desire) flourish and increase under Our Administration and Government. We have thought fit, by the advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, and do hereby declare Our Royal purpose and resolution to discountenance and punish all manner of Vice, Profaneness, and Immorality in all persons of whatsoever degree or quality within this Our Realm; and particularly in such as are employed near Our Royal person; and that for the encouragement of Religion and Morality, we will, upon all occasions, distinguish persons of Piety and Virtue by marks of Our Royal favour; and we do expect and require, that all persons of honour or in place of authority will give good example, by their own Virtue and Piety, and to their utmost contribute to the discountenance of persons of dissolute and debauched lives, that they being reduced by that means to shame and contempt for their loose and evil actions and behaviour, may be thereby also enforced the sooner to reform their ill habits and practices, and that the visible displeasure of good men towards them may (as far as it is possible) supply what the laws (probably) cannot altogether prevent; and we do hereby strictly enjoin and prohibit all our loving subjects, of what degree or quality soever, from playing on the Lord's Day at dice, cards, or any other game whatsoever, either in public or private houses, or other place or places whatsoever; and we do hereby require and command them, and every of them, decently and reverently to attend the worship of God, on every Lord's Day, on pain of our highest displeasure, and of being proceeded against with the utmost rigour that may be by law; and for the more effectual reforming all such persons who, by reason of their dissolute lives and conversations are a scandal to our Kingdom, our further pleasure is, and we do hereby strictly charge and command all our Judges, Mayors, Sheriffs, Justices of the Peace, and all other our Officers and Ministers, both Ecclesiastical and Civil, and all other our subjects whom it may concern, to be very vigilant and strict in the discovery and the effectual prosecution and punishment of all persons who shall be guilty of excessive drinking, blasphemy, profane swearing and cursing, lewdness, profanation of the Lord's Day, or other dissolute, immoral, or disorderly practices; and that they take care also effectually to suppress all public gaming houses and places, and other lewd and disorderly houses, and to put in execution the Statute made in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of the late King Charles the Second, intitled "An Act for the better observation of the Lord's Day, commonly called Sunday;" and also so much of an Act of Parliament made in the 9th year of the reign of the late King William the Third, intitled "An Act for the more effectual suppressing of blasphemy and profaneness," as is now in force, and all other Laws now in force, for the punishing and suppressing any of the vices aforesaid; and also to suppress and prevent all gaming whatsoever in public or private houses on the Lord's Day; and likewise that they take effectual care to prevent all persons keeping taverns, chocolate-houses, coffee-houses, or other public houses whatsoever, from selling wine, chocolate, coffee, ale, beer, or other liquors, or receiving or permitting guests to be or remain in such their houses, in the time of Divine Service on the Lord's Day, as they will answer it to Almighty God, and upon pain of our highest displeasure; and for the more effectual proceeding herein, we do hereby direct and command all our Judges of Assize and Justices of the Peace to give strict charges at their respective assizes and sessions for the due prosecution and punishment of all persons that shall presume to offend in any of the kinds aforesaid, and also of all persons that, contrary to their duty, shall be remiss or negligent in putting the said laws in execution, and that they do, at their respective assizes and quarter sessions of the peace, cause this Our Royal Proclamation to be publicly read in open Court, immediately before the charge is given; and we do hereby further charge and command every Minister in his respective parish church or chapel to read or cause to be read this Our Proclamation, at least four times in every year, immediately after Divine Service, and to incite and stir up their respective auditories to the practice of Piety and Virtue, and the avoiding of all Immorality and Profaneness; and to the end that all Vice and Debauchery may be prevented, and Religion and Virtue practised by all officers, private soldiers, mariners, and others who are employed in Our service by sea and land; we do hereby strictly charge and command all Our Commanders and Officers whatsoever, that they do take care to avoid all Profaneness, Debauchery, and other Immoralities, and that by their own good and virtuous lives and conversations they do set good examples to all such as are under their care and authority, and likewise take care of and inspect the behaviour of all such as are under them, and punish all those who shall be guilty of any of the offences aforesaid, as they will be answerable for the ill consequences of their neglect herein.

Given at Our Court at Saint James's this twenty-eighth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty, and in the first year of our reign.
