throwing them into the sea, and so continued twelve others shared the same fate. After re- are to be made in Nashville, &c. rigged jury masts, and fortunately reached their despoke by an English armed vessel, who ordered the ount of its leaking hadly. After some conversa-

taken in private by Commissioners, before whom their necessities. Many, who yesterday were blessed Steam-Boat, attendance in become general. It protects the mo- of recovery. But amidst all these calamities, the and ought to sex, and fully answers all the ends of hand of a protecting Providence has been displayed vince. a witness so situated. In many cases, too, the mat-building were scattered through the country for miles.] from 92 to 96, of Farenheit. The appearance of the country is delightful, and presents a cheering ters on which they are required to testify are ex-sub- Source New The Lourney of Harmanity of tremely paining to their to the nusbandman of an abuit proposals of publication un- of the blessings of a benign Providence. disclose it at the risk of exciting a sneer on an impu- der the foregoing title the professed object of which tation upon their modesty.

DREADFUL HURRICANE.

CHARLOTTE, TEN. June 1.- About half past ten hat was on board, they cut away the masts, and o'clock last night, our village was visited with a Torat was on board, may be hull. Five of the nado, the violence and destructive effects of which no ired several shots the were concealed below deck, pen can describe, nor can they be adequately conceicrew during the time were conceased below deck, ved except by those who were witnesses to the awful New-Brunswick, came here on Sunday morn-nd thus escaped a watery grave-they afterwards and terrific scene. Our little town is now, litterally a inglast by the local of the second decimately reached their desand thus to masts, and fortunately reached their des-ingged jury masts, and fortunately reached their des-ingged jury masts, and fortunately reached their des-ingged jury masts, and fortunately reached their des-heap of ruins. Many who but yesterday had a com-having arrived with his family at that port in ingged jury masts, and fortunately reached their des-heap of ruins. Many who but yesterday had a com-having arrived with his family at that port in lifax on Wednesday afternoon last, arrived in this not be able to check its progress hereafter the brig Henry, from Newfoundland. The the brig Henry, from Newfoundland. The ed port. the by an English armed vessel, who ordered the themselves, while their clothing and provisions have the board on board, which was refused on all been swept away in the general wreck. The wind discourses in Christ Church, in the forenoon precedented, in the conveyance of mails in these of permitted to proceed, and desired that the R. approached the appearance of the sky was frightful, and and afternoon of the same day, and returned the seep a good look out, as several pirates were one constant glare of lightning, inspired awe and to the City on Monday morning, in the Steam pate, and even now it is difficult to realize, what the upon the duties of his high office. FEMALE WITNESSES .- The Legislature of Georhas adopted an excellent regulation in relation ravages of five minutes have produced. But yesterday demale witnesses. By a law recently passed, we were at ease, and comfortably situated to-day, sengers in the same ve from Newfound-er attendance in Courts, as witnesses, except in er attendance in dispensed with, and their testimo- where to go, or how to procure the means of supplying land. and arrived here attendance in the same ve attendance in courts, as witnesses, except in where to go, or how to procure the means of supplying land. and arrived here attendance in the same ve a temale witnesses. By a law recently passed, we were at ease, and comfortably situated-to-day, ir attendance in considered with, and their testimo- where to go, or how to procure the means of supplying land, and arrived here aturday in the ny taken in pirred to give depositions, under the with health and the full enjoyment of the comforts of the second their nervous life. they are required their personal life, are now languishing on their beds, with broken same penalties that before enforced their personal limbs or now languishing on their beds, with broken same penalties on their beas, with broken attendance in Court. This is an excellent provision limbs or mangled bodies, and some with scarce a hope

There is not a more painful situation for a in the miraculous preservation of many of our citizens. delicate female than to be required to enter a court destroyed, with barns and other outbuildings, in fact vailed in the early part of the summer, has been room and subject herself to the gaze of the multi- only one house entirely escaped injury. No lives were [From 20 to 30 houses and stores were completely] nom and subject nersen to the gaze of the summer, has been tude, and the two often impudent interrogatives of lost, but several persons were dangerously wounded. Set by the most oppressive heat we have ever an universal language; by means of which many of the usual letters and combinations of letters used SHELBTVILLE, Ten. June 2,-Shelbyville is in ruins. in our present system of othography will be dispen-On Monday night, 31st May about twelve o'clock, it ced with; the difficulties of spelling obviated, the pleased an all wise Providence to visit this place with uncertainty of pronunciation removed ; the expence most devastating hurricane. The Court House, of printing reduced one fourth ; and the arts of rea-Market House, 'Methodist Church, the Brick Hotel, ding and writing facilitated more than one half. The the Bank, and many other valuable buildings were work is to be published weekly for one year; and prostrated in an instant. Five young men were killto contain a perfect Alphabet of the English lanton, editor of the Shelbyville Intelligencer, was carri- guage, and a Spelling book connected with the same; ton, editor of the billion of his house 100 yards and instant- by the aid of which, the Editor says, the unlettered killed and dreadfully mangled; the other young of every nation may learn to read and pronounce men who were killed were, Mr. David Whitson and the English tongue, after being taught the names Mr. Caldwell, saddlers; Mr. Rideout, and Mr. Ar- of thirty nine letters. It will be printed in Boston nold, clerk in Mr. James Ried's store. Messrs. Black- on script type, for the purpose of facilitating the noid, cierk in Solomon Dews, and many others were learner in writing the characters. Price $1, in adbadly hurt. About thirty-eight stores and shops, and vance. The second number, containing the perfect Al ten or fifteen dwelling houses' were overthrown. I shall not attempt to describe the scene. Those phabet, will be issued in June. Editor M. H. Barwho have seen most of such scenes, I imagine, attempt ton, Agents in Boston Charter and Hendee.-The the least to describe them. No one heard the fall of Editor after weighing and answering objections for a tree, or fence, or house. It was one constant mo- eleven years, now appeals to his countrymen.

health.

The Venerable Archdeacon Coster, of this Province, and President of King's College, St. John, July 3, 1830 and terrific scene. Our little town is now, litterally a ing last by the land route from Saint John; The Eastern Mail, (land route) which left Ha- means of settlements, he feared that he might approached the village from the south west, and al- discourses in Christ Church, in the forenoon alarm, yet no one anticipated, no one could antici- Boat, but will return again shortly, to enter hard labor at the late Court of Oyer and Terminer question involved in this petition.

The Rev. William Cochrane, D. D. Vice President of Windsor College, and daughter, arrived here last week, on a visit to the Pro-

The unusually wet and chilly weather which pretude, and the two often impudent interrogatives of lost, but several persons were dangerously wounded. felt. Since Friday last the mercury has ranged counsel, designed expressly to confuse and confound The public records are all lost, and fragments of the counsel, designed expressly to contuse and comound a witness so situated. In many cases, too, the mat-building were scattered through the country for miles.] felt. Since Friday last the mercury has ranged from 92 to 96, of Farenheit. The appearance of building were scattered through the country for miles.]

PROSPECTUS

By THOMAS HEAVISIDE. Secretary to the St. John Marine Insurance Company precedented, in the conveyance of mails in these Gentleman's declaration, that there never was for this County, are now employed in forming a Sir R. Peel here interposed to explain, Mrs. M'Cawley and Mrs. Morris came pas- Common Sewer in King Street; they are all three that the Hon. Member had misunderstood bor from 7 in the morning until six in the evening, with only one hour's intermission for their dinner. -Two of them are extremely indolent and exhibit from this circumstance he inferred the greata great disinclination to work, the other appears to er probability of a satisfactory settlement.

be a quiet, industrious man -St. Andrews Herald. ATTEMPTED ESCAPE .- One of the Convicts employed at forming a common sewer in St. Andrews, becoming wearied of his employment, on Thursday last, made a bold but unsuccessful attempt at escape. The villian had found some plan of unlocking his fetters, (although the lock cannot be picked,) and stripping off his party-colored inexpressibles sician, and in arranging for a military band, possesunderneath, which he had provided himselfs with a pair made of white duck, he suddenly bolted, and went on a smart trot up King-street, doubled the corner of Queen-street and turned up Frederick- the Bassoon, Mr. Horn and the late Mr. Gillert street, where he was headed off, and being closely thought him far superior to any professor in Ameripursued in the rear, showed fight, but was instant-with still less chance of escape than previously to Contributions for the relief of the needy sufferers decided character respecting His Majesty's ers, Underwriters, Builders, and Masters, in the to speak in terms of courtesy towards Great Powers ; it was consequently natural that he should express confidence in the honomrable assurances received from the United States . but when he reflected on the American character for creeping on to power by the specious.

THE CONVICTS.-The individuals condemned to probability of a satisfactory settlement of the were on more friendly terms than at present.

Mr. Kyle, whom we have often mentioned with pleasure, succeeds the late Mr. Willis, as master of the band at West Point. Mr. K. held similar situations in His Majesty's 68th and 70th Regts. when quartered in the Canadas, from the commanding officers of which he bears the best testimonials of character and conduct. Mr. Kyle is an excellent muses the great qualification of practically understand ing three instruments-Clarionet, Flute, and Bassoon, on all which his execution is excellent, but on ca. From his appointment to the Military Academy, a great practical lesson may be drawn, namely, Ship-Owners, Merchants, Ship-Builders, and the same day, a meeting of the Magistrates was that the best qualification for a man to gain confiother Inhabitants of the Province, for the purpose held in order to decide upon some suitable punish- dence in this or any other country, is that he should hich can. a resor tertained a securil it advi-, derived l appear, had been h it operulated to lon with 68 vious 10 r are. 104notonous, shrill roar-the voice of the tempest. The lightning was one constant flash rendering every thing - 215 visible. The earth was covered with a sheet of water. e not had From the public Square all is one undistinguished vaccinagging of nd again

luce. In all chris-

any on with the e proper-tolerable private

neir mas-

ariety of

NE 30,

layor of

ars from

e health

iny cases

s which

a ports :

extent in

of Pen-

introduce way of

oper that subject in

e benefits

er, make commend

prevent

lew-York street, or vich Vilnation is Mayor.

dressed to e commitk, Md. dersigned ellow citiarrival aome, and ce in your nt duties, y, by the ty of the ave been Adminisrould have ellow citi-tially disr evidence

ontrolable

or,

on,

28,

iver,

Beall,

BRITISH AMERICA.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND.

mass of ruins. The very foundations of many houses were blown up, and scarcely one stone left upon ano-CAUTION TO MILLERS.-An accident of a very them or walls around them ; others were extricated by to the water being retained too long. This, togetheir own exertions, or that of their friends, from ther with a very rapid rise from the late rains, caus- acquire. amidst rafters, beams, and rubbish. Some were car- ed the dam to overflow, and from an immense presnea to a distance becaute beta the subside, and the cry of dis-bats. The storm began to subside, and the cry of dis-ing the premises, filling all the lower offices, washconvey them to a place of safety. Mr. Arnold's case thing which in any way arrested its overwhelming wick Ship-builders, and scarcely any guarantee, was very pitiable. In passing from the store to the impetuosity. In the deluge was seen floating down which the Merchant Agent in Britain could offer, street, the corner of a flying door struck him, and tore the stream articles of every description of domestic would induce parties here to contract with them, out a portion of his rungs. The was picked up and carried use. On the lower part of the stream stands a Saw and some disgracerul cases which deavoured to verpool, was the Rev. Mr. West, Chaplain to the ample testimony against those who endeavoured to verpool, was the Rev. Mr. West, Chaplain to the ample testimony against those who endeavoured to Rt. Rev. Bishon Chase, of Ohio. Mr. W. has no was taken to bed, and my ouring that might and the mulation of water and timber, consequently had to judice, the names of many individuals in the Pro-friends the most consolatory evidence of his unshaken indiscriminately swept everything in its way, tim- builders, are well established. hadred thousand dollars. Some have lost their all, Proprietors must no doubt be severely felt, to say which, the Members intend to enter into certain reand are without houses, furniture or wood. Mr. Tur- nothing about the inconvenience to the public in gulations, which will be more minutely developed and are without nouses, infiniture of wood. Mr. fur- nothing about the inconvenience to the public in guide in upon the Establishment's going into operation. It diate use. The institution has already commenced difficiles. inis district, from the loss of Strong Dridge, which upon the Establishment & going into operation. It is operations with flattering prospects. -New York Charlotte Town, Prince Edward Island, June 1. formed a passage over the stream to Indian River, is sufficient now to state, that, it is intended - First. Allow The goods in most of the stokes sustained a good deal which was also totally destroyed by the same acci- That a Registry shall be kept of all Vessels at pre- Atlas. dent-the Bridge was built last fall, and with the sent belonging to the Province, their ages and con-By some it was taken for the bursting thunder, and exception of the rail, and a few cart loads of clay to ditions, and by whom owned and commanded. hear the Rev. Mr. West, Chaplain of Bishop Chase, by others for the falling of the adjacent timber-but, fill up some particular spots that had settled in the That all Vessels built in future in the rest, chapter and control of the adjacent timber of American and the there are the rest of the res instantly, their own perilous situation convinced each Spring, it was completed. The Bridge was 20 feet be inspected by Surveyors, to be appointed for that has just returned from England after a mest suc-of his error thunder it was not folling of timber it how to be appointed it was not folling of timber of his error-thunder it was not, falling of timber it wide and less than 100 long-in that small compass purpose, at different stages of their building, and was not-it was the awful crash of a hundred crum- there were 25 tons square timber, 30 tons clay, and shall, with the Vessels already built, be classed in bling houses. All was the work of an instant, dwell- 40 cart loads brush, all closely compacted, by the Letters and Numbers, upon a plan similar to that ing houses, stores, kitchens, stables, fences, and continual running of carts, &c.-notwithstanding, mingled confusion and shattered fragments through *On whom should the expence of erecting a new Office of the Association, and furnished to the ownthe air, like straw in a whirlwind. Nor was this all, Bridge fall in such a case—the public or the proprie- ers when required, or forwarded to any place in the grim monster came in for his share of the tors of such dams ?--whose peculiar business it cer-

For an Association to be formed of the Principal ly overpowered and led back to confinement. On of advancing the improvement of Naval Archi- ment for the misdemeanor, when it was adjudged, have been a good subject in his own.-Hid. tecture, and General Protection of the Shipping that on the following day (Friday) he should re-Interests of the Country :-- under the name of the ceive 39 lashes on the bare back, which punishment "SHIPPING AND COMMERCIAL ASSOCIATION OF having been inflicted, he has since been set to work NEW-BRUNSWICK."

T will require but very few observations to sa- making his imprudent trial.-16. L tisfy every candid mind, of the value and necessity of establishing such an Association here. - BANK ROBBERY. - John Fuller, the second Tel- Esq. son of the Honorable the Chief Justice of the For it has been long observed, with much concern ler of the United States Branch Bank in Boston, ab- Province, to Louisa, second daughter of the Hon. by every well wisher of the country, with what un- sconded, carrying with him 40,000 dollars, the pro- William Smith.

merited zeal attempts have been made in various perty of the bank. Fuller is of respectable conquarters, (British and Foreign) to impede the nexions-and has a wife and interesting family of growing importance of the Shipping Interests, and children in this city. He was considered a correct depreciate the qualities of the Vessels built in this and accomplished clerk by those who had employed Ready for the Press, and will be published when Province. At the same time, it cannot be over- him. A reward of 2500 dollars is offered for his aplooked, and must be admitted, that, while it has prehension and the recovery of the property.

been the Interest of Ship-builders and owners of Fuller (say the St. John Courier,) has surren-Vessels of an expensive class, in Britain, to prevent dered himself, and is now confined in prison, awaitthe encouragement of Ship-building in the Colo- ing his trial. About three o'clock on the morning A. GUAGE. Compiled by THOMAS IRWIN. nies, which has been found to interfere materially of the 5th inst. he had sealed up and directed to Mr. . "This Idiom rather appears to have been formed by with the Freights of Vessels confined to the Timber Frothingham, the Cashier of the Bank, upwards of Philosophers in their Closets, than by Savages in the Trade; the manner in which much of the Ship- thirty-nine thousand dollars, and proceeded himself Wilderness."-Duponceau.

building was lately carried on here, and in which to a place from which to take his departure from the CONDITIONS.—The work will be printed on fine pa Vessels were sent into distant markets for sale, in- city being apprehensive he could no longer conceal per, with a neat new type; consisting of nearly 300 pastead of raising our reputation as a Ship building himself therein. But on his way, consideration ges, 8vo. price $1-to be paid on the delivery of the or naunations, second and of the a guardian angel" came, and suggested to Books. to wander a fugitive from justice, without a place in publishing this work, but is induced solely by a with

It may be also observed, that, as the characters, on the earth whereon to rest the sole of his foot .-rigines of these Provinces, he hopes a generous and beof too many of our Vessels received a bad name, it He accordingly turned towards his own house,

Among the passengers in the Pacific, from Li-bats, the storm began to balf naked were seen run-tress was heard. People half naked were seen run-ing away in its progress the foundation of the fell a sacrifice, and the consequence has been, that been and asked Mr. F. to go with How were seen runmess was neared. I copie and their friends or mg away in its progress the foundation of the little confidence was latterly placed in New-Bruns- him to Mr. Badlam, under keeper of the prison, to Dwelling House, and forcing in its passage every- little confidence was latterly placed in New-Bruns- him to Mr. Badlam, under keeper of the prison, to ----- use. On the lower part of the stream stands a Saw and some disgraceful cases which occurred bore too of which was ill adapted to resist the immense accu- advocate their cause; involving in this general preunderstand, of obtaining funds for Kenyon College, To remedy as far as possible evils so manifest, is vering efforts of the Rev. Bishop of the Diocese.-

PHarried,

At Quebec, on the 19th ult. at the Chapel of the Holy Trinity, by the Honourable and Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Quebec, Robert S. M. Sewell, PROSPECTUS.

a sufficient number of Subscribers can be procured :-

A GRAMMAR OF THE MICMAC INDIAN LAN

As the Compiler is actuated by no mercenary motive to serve the unfortunate yet interesting remains of the Abo-nevolent public will aid his feeble yet well meaning en-

He also hopes the Editors of Newspapers published in the British Provinces will be so kind as to give this an insertion in their respective Journals, and transmit him the names of such Subscribers as may offer in their vici-

He confidently hopes the Catholic Clergy of these Colonies will cheerfully and the publication of a work particularly designed for them, and by means of which they may be enabled to serve with effect this too long neglected portion of Christ's flock.

lately established at Gambier, Ohio, by the perse-Pour rendre cet ouvrage utile aux Pretres Frangois qui and triumphant faith. The damage is variously estimated, from fifty to an Proprietors must no doubt be saveraly fait to raw which, the Members intend to enter into certain re-Cessful, having obtained upwards of £50,000 sterl-Proprietors must no doubt be saveraly fait to raw which, the Members intend to enter into certain re-Cessful, having obtained upwards of £50,000 sterl-Cessful, having obtained upwards of £50,000 ster cultivent la langue Mikmague, an vue de maintenir cette

KENYON COLLEGE.-We had the pleasure to A SPECIAL SESSION of the PEACE is hereby sumiseworthy is, nevere general ation, the f the peoawarded their and rd. In this represent heir unditructed us ublic dinents of the

> * * * * * "And the eyes of the sleepers waxed deadly and chill, "There hearts but once heav'd, and forever were still.

Barely conscious of their own existence, the survivors found themselves in dread amazement in the midst of the uproar of elements, and the commingled confusion that seemed to indicate universal destruction. The fury of the blast was spent, but every ALMS HOUSE AND WORK HOUSE. thing within the cognizance of their senses were desolation. An adequate idea of the scene which en me om presented itself while these things were in progress citizens⁻⁰ ost sincere cannot be given. The boldest description would fall short of it. It was one of those grand and awfully acceptable sublime displays of the operations of nature-or rah them of ther the mighty power of Jehovah, upon which morcts of my tal eyes could not gaze. The consternation was so of a pubgeneral, that few have more than an indistinct rewhich my collection of the circumstances as they transpired. l, if they It seems more like the troubled remembrance of a the hoshorrible dream, the product of a distempered imacompanied gination, than actual occurrence-a dread reality and esteem Those most immediate involved in the greatest dancalculatger, surrounded by the most imminent peril, have the least distinct recollection of their situation duhave been v the con-how, they cannot tell.

"For his angel had spread his wings in the blast, care so that it may not inundate their neighbours or purpose. injure the community .-- Register.

BOYAL GAZETTE.

FREDERICTON, JULY 21, 1830.

Commissioner for next week, GEORGE MINCHIN, Esq.

Saving's Bank. TRUSTEES NEXT WEEK.

HENRY G. CLOPPER, ESQ. JAMES TAYLOR, ESQ. MR. PETER FISHER.

present form Such subscribers as may desire to obtion of every regularly brought up, respectable regularly introduced by a petition, it was not nctionaries scattered that little of it could be found or recogni- gers and Samuel West, to be Commissioners to exvince, as well as of the Merchants, the Owners, and The that account the less deserving of attention. tain the paper with this alteration will have the goodmerely for vince, as well as of the interest and the owners, and There was no question more intimately con- ness to notify the same at their earliest convenience. the Underwriters. It is the interest of these, in- There was no question more intimately conzed. The direction of the storm was from west to pend the sum of £60, granted for the repair of the but of exeast, width about a quarter of a mile. For many bridge over Hopewell River : also the sum of £20, er branch dividually and collectively, to adhere strictly to it, nected with the best interests of the country, miles from the town its course was marked by scat- granted for the like purpose, in the room of Ezra langer the and it will also prove the surest means of weeding however pre-eminent in importance the free improvements in contemplation, and assures his icatered fragments, and relics of that place. Pieces of Stiles, whose appointment to expend this latter sum atever may. out any incompetent characters whom the necessity trade of China, or our colonial relations with dersthat no pains or expence will be spared to pret, I feel saumber, goods, books, papers, &c. were thickly has been cancelled. of the late times, occasionally made it com- the West Indies might have been held. The serve the high reputation which his journal enjoys. n tribunal strewed in its destructive path. In one case it was -----pulsory upon the Owners to employ. An character in which we should hereafter appear July 14, 1820. TRINITY TERM, 11TH GEO. 4TH. 1830. roductive of stated that a book, taken from one of the law offi-M. H. Perley, Esq. Sworn and Enrolled Barrisindifferent Vessel with a good Master may be safely in the Gulf of Mexico depended on a timely d I cannot ces, was found about five miles from town. Other COLLEGE STEWARD. that can go to sea with the incompetent Master on maintenance of the balance of power, and he tion of the ter at Law, 16th July, 1830. that can go to sea with the micompetent master on was glad to hear the Right Hon. Gentleman WANTED immediately, a middle aged Man to board, is property held by a very precarious ten- was glad to hear the Right Hon. Gentleman papers were found at a still greater distance. and Barnster of His Majesty's Supreme Court of user, is property new by very precanous ten-King's Bench Upper Canada; sworn and enrolled ure. If the Master be deficient, all the pains and Precautions, which owners. Merchants, Builders, attention of Covernment, Our weith less at Fredericton he must be contributed on the fredericton on the fredericton he must be contributed on the fredericton he must be contributed on the fredericton of the fredericton he must be contributed on the fredericton on the fre wisdom of Hardly che of our numerous shade trees, which T. R. Wetmore, ditto. served for ornament and comfort, was left; all, all precautions, which owners, Merchants, Builders, attention of Government. Our position with lege at Fredericton, he must be capable of keeping al principle were thrown prostrate or swept away by the fierce precautions, which owners, will prove fruitless, respect to the United States was in itself a to-satisfactory testimonials of good Character, and strict and unrelenting agent of destruction. On Wednesday evening a number of the citizens illy, and to s for your and of no avail. The interests and properties of pic of considerable interest; but of this we sobriety. A married man whose Wife has been acassembled at the Presbyterian church for the purpose Barrister at Law, 17th July. and of no avail. In dives of Crews and Passen- might rest assured, the sooner we endeavour customed to House-keeping, will be preferred, if quanties, the comfort and lives of Crews and Passen- might rest assured, the sooner we endeavour customed to House-keeping, will be preferred, if quanties, the comfort and lives of Crews and Passen- might rest assured, the sooner we endeavour customed to House-keeping, will be preferred, if quanties and the sooner we endeavour customed to House-keeping, will be preferred, if quanties and customed to House-keeping and customed and customed and customed and customed to House-keeping and customed and custom Richard Sands, Jun. S. G. Andrews, and A. L. of taking some suitable notice of the sad event that honor to be to set up Mexico as a substansive power, so lified in other respects. Application's stating the reto the chair-the following resolution was then of- Wilmot, sworn and enrolled Attornies at Law, 17th We have this week made a selection of the tions of a Master. These cursory observations upon the establish- much the solution of the Subservations to be sent CKSON. We have this week made a selection of the These cursory observations upon the establish-most interesting articles through the medium ment of an Association, which, it is presumed, ments of those who were struggling for mastefered and unanimously adopted: e, in 30 days Resolved, That as a mark of respect for the meof the latest papers. Our dates remain, how- would prove highly beneficial to the Commercial ments of those who were struggling for maste- obtained. mories of the young men who fell victims in the ever, as quoted last week; thus leaving us un- and Naval Interests of New-Brunswick, are most ry in the western hemisphere. In whatever by a boat storm of Monday night, and to show that we will ever, as quoted has week, thus leaving us un- and traval interests of 1 the Merchants, are most ry in the western nonisphere. In whatever GEORGE FREDERICE provided with any additional information of a respectfully submitted to the Merchants, Ship-own- the Right Hon. Gentleman said, he was bound Fredericton, 10th July, 1830. who inform not let such an extraordinary visitation of Providence und to Sier pass by, without being noticed in a suitable manner evious by a -We will wear crape on the left arm for the space orrible manof thirty days. ack to back, tainly is, to watch their water with unremitting they may wish to effect Insurance, or for any other made into the qualifications of persons applying for lifying fact, that the best understanding continues to deserve. - Attendance at private residences if required, or appointed to the command of a Vessel belonging exist between the British Government and that of Razors ground and carefully set, &c. &c. to the Province, and testimonials produced if deem- the United States; nothing, indeed, could be ed necessary; and the members of the Association more kind and gentlemanly than the remrks of Fredericton, 20th July, 1830.

tent to fill that responsible and important situation, steps forward in Parliament to defend the American or against whom improper charges have been prov- people from attacks of the liberals. Such an act is in any way connected with the Trade and naviga- terms of amity, from misrepresentation and retion of the Province. To the British Shipper of proach-they are in fact ex officio, to a certain ex-Goods, confidence would be given that his consign- tent, the proper persons to do this, since they hold ments were on board a Vessel in all respects sea- the intercourse with, and know the sentiment of all worthy. The importer here will receive a like gua- countries with whom they are at peace. The forantee, with a consequent reduction of Premium of reign policy of the present American Cabinet has Insurance-which the confidence of the Underwri- undoubtedly been wise and conciliatory. This deter will enable him to make on the risk; while the bate clears up and explains the mustified accounts of owner would benefit more than either by the cha- the interference of the late Mr. Canning, to prevent racter of his Vessels being so established, that he an attack on Cuba by Colombia and Mexico. class of British Vessels. The effects of that repu- sion from our brethren of the American press. Some fray that expence himself without making any addr-while the body of the building was so completely Elisha Peck, Junior. John A. Reid, George Ro-

000 sterling. This is a mistake. The sum of money brought over is not so large, but it is true that nies. Copies of these Reports will be lodged in the a legacy of far greater value has been left the College.-Albany Daily Advertiser,

------TRADE WITH MEXICO.

will not employ any person as Master in their Ves- Sir Robert Peel. It is a new epoch certainsels, who may appear upon examination, incompe- ly, when a Minister of the Crown voluntarily worthy of the statesman who performed it : indeed,

By the first of these Regulations, it is presumed we deem it the duty of the Ministers of any country that very essential benefits would result to all those to defend those nations with whom they are on ity of both street and safely lodged upon the top of a black- House at Head Harbour to the Settlement at Wil-It may be well believed, that the second Regula- ject one of great magnitude and importance, that the subscribers will have the option of taking the ve differed tion will receive the cordial support and co-opera- and although it might be deemed somewhat ir-Albion with the Price Current or continuing it in its n candidly smith shop, without any injury to either of the boys, son's Beach on Campo Bello.

Fredericton, 19th July, 1830.

HAIR DRESSING, PERFUMERY, &c. MENHE SUBSCRIBER (late from Dublin) begs leave to inform the Inhabitants of Fredericton and its Vicinity, that he has commenced business in the above

The debate in the House of Commons, a great line, in the House formerly owned by Mr. Sloot, in part of which we copy to-day, has been favourably Queen-street ; and hopes from experience and attention Secondly. That the most strict enquiry shall be received in this country. From it we learn the grat- to merit public patronage, which it will be bis study to

THOMAS MACAN.

NOTICE.

FUTHE subscriber being about to leave the. Province, requests all persons having any demands against him to render them in immediately tor payment, and all those indebted, to make payment to Mr. PETER PEDOLIN, or the subsciber, before the 12th August next. GEORGE PEDOLIN.

Fredericton, July 19, 1830.

TO THE SUBSCRIBERS OF THE NEW-YORK ALBION IN NEW-BRUNSWICK.

IN some parts of New Brunswick the subscribers to this paper have paid United States postage on their papers. The Proprietor of the Albion now anwould at all times, and in all ports, be able to enter The following is the passage in Mr. Baring's nounces that he will, in all cases, from and affective into a fair competition for Freights with any other speech, which has called forth so much animadver- commencement of the new volume is June next, detation would extend also to the Ship-builders of the prophesy that he will lose (being the banker in Lon- tional charge to the cost of the paper. Applications have been occasionally made for a Province, inasmuch as a preference would be given don for many Americans,) some of his commissions ; ring the most critical moment of the tempest .--to them, whenever Vessels may be required, and while others affirm that he is trying for a peerage. Price Current in the Albion. The Proprietor further They know they escaped-but when, or where, or an increase both of capital and employment would We are of opinion that he will neither lose one or announces that he is making arrangements which will ng to the Civil Appointments. source of In one instance a log house was first unroofed, John Snell to be Commissioner to expend the be introduced into the country, and disseminated gain the other. N. Y. Albion. Shipping List adapted to the Colonies. This, liowllowed me amongst all the industrious classes in the Province, Mr. A. Baring said he considered this subthen the upper floor on which two or three boys were sleeping, was taken up, carried across the sum of £30, granted to open a road from the Light ever, will be done in a part of the addition only, so