Friday, 25th February, 1831. received under the following heads viz :-

Rent of the Jesuits' Estates. Rent of the King's Posts. Forges of St. Maurice. Rent of the King's Wharf. Droit de Quint. Lods et Ventes. Land Fund. Timber Fund.

ANSWER.

GENTLEMEN. I have much satisfaction in receiving this address, because it enables me to gratify the desire with which I shall at all times be actuated, to comply with any request of the House of Assembly; and because I am fully sensible that at the present moment it is more than usually desirable that the Financial Concerns of the Province should undergo a thorough examination. The proper officers shall therefore be instructed to prepare, and to lay before the house of Assembly, a statement of the gross annual amount of the casual and territorial revenue, from the year one thousand eight hundred and eighteen inclusive, distinguishing the amount annually received under the following heads, VIZ. :--

Rent from the Jesuit Estates. Rent of the King's Posts. Forges of St. Maurice. Rent of King's Wharf. Droit de Quint. Lods et Ventes. Land Fund. Timber Fund. AYLMER, Castle St. of Lewis, Governor-in-Chief. Quebec, 26th February, 1831. No. II.
