

sell with those who were for continuing the Union? Why should we not mark out these men? Well done, logic! Long life to you, stickler for 'free discussion.' No Irishman must dare to have an opinion of his own on a question affecting his most important interest, and those of his children, and of the land in which they all were born—not the shade of an opinion but such as this 'liberator' shall think fit to sanction by his fiat, on pain of their being reduced to beggary by an interdict to their customers to deal with them from that day forth! Now, to us, we frankly say, such facts are gratifying than otherwise, inasmuch as they afford evidence of a desperate and dying cause. None but the most beastly rabble in Europe would receive with approbation proposals so transcendently iniquitous;—no Irishman above the level of a brute can remain for one hour connected with the party by whom such scandalous tyranny was recommended. If the Government have not, by some indiscreet and unauthorized severity, surrounded the vantage-ground which it is inevitable that fury like O'Connell's should furnish to any reasonable opponent, we again declare that the resistance, which he has begun to feel from various independent quarters must eventually ruin him without any further aid.—Times.

LEGISLATURE OF NEW-BRUNSWICK.
(EXTRACTS FROM THE JOURNALS.)

Monday, 7th March.

Mr. Partelow, from the Committee appointed to wait upon His Honor the President, with the Address of this House of the third instant, relative to the Civil List, Casual Revenue, &c. reported, that they had attended to that duty, and that His Honor was pleased to make the following reply:—

"That, consistently with such instructions as have been hitherto received, respecting the King's Casual Revenue, and the Civil List of this province, he could not now comply with the prayer of the Address, but that he would transmit it for the consideration of His Majesty's Ministers and their orders thereon.

Tuesday, 8th March.

Mr. Partelow, Chairman of the Committee on Public and Private Accounts, to whom was referred the Message of His Honor the President, of the 24th ultimo, on the subject of the exploration of a new line of Road from Fredericton to Saint Andrews; reported, that they had taken the same into consideration, and was directed to present the following:—

"That the Committee having examined the Plan of the said Road, and the explanatory letter from the Honorable Thomas Baillie, Commissioner of Crown Lands accompanying the same, are of opinion that the new line of road appears to be a very desirable one, and the country through which it is intended to pass, well adapted to agricultural purposes.

"They, however, beg leave respectfully to say, that in their opinion, sufficient information is not afforded to make it expedient for the House to establish it at this time, as the Great Road of communication from Fredericton to Saint Andrews; and therefore recommend that a sum of money be voted in the Committee of Supply, to His Honor the President, to enable him to have a further exploration made the present year, in order that the House may have such full information before them, at the next Session, as will determine them with regard to the permanent decision of so important a subject.

"All which is respectfully submitted.
J. R. PARTELOW,
RUFUS SMITH,
WILLIAM END,
JOHN WARD, Junr.
JOSEPH CUNARD."

The report being again read at the Clerk's Table, was ordered to be accepted.

Resolved, That a Committee be appointed to prepare a Bill, during the recess, to fix permanently the boundary lines between the several grants and lots of Land throughout the Province, and to report the same at the next Session of the General Assembly.

Ordered, that Mr. Gilbert, Mr. Simonds, and Mr. Chandler, be a Committee therefor.

Resolved, that it is the opinion of this Committee that a Bridge be built over the Hammond River near Ketchums, the ensuing Summer, or as soon as practicable; and further resolved, that it is the opinion of this Committee that the present line of Great Road from Saint John to Westmorland, should be altered between the former place and Hampton ferry; and that a new line be laid out and substituted in lieu thereof by the way of John Hennigars.

The Resolution being again read at the Clerk's Table, was agreed to by the House.

Mr. Simonds, laid before the House a Letter from Henry Bliss, Esquire, one of the Province Agents, addressed to him as a Member of the Committee of Correspondence, communicating important information on the boundary question.

Wednesday, 9th March.

The House went into Committee of the whole, on a Bill for the division of the County of York into two Counties, and to provide for the Government and Representation of the new County.

The Chairman reported, that they had gone into consideration of the Bill referred to them, and that in the Committee, the question was taken for the passing of the eighth section thereof, which went to provide for the representation of the new County; whereupon, they divided as follows:—

Yeas 12. Nays 11.

And it passed in the affirmative; and that the Committee had agreed to the same.

Thursday 10th March.

Mr. Cunard, Chairman of the Select Committee, appointed to take into consideration the Petition of Samuel Freeze, Esquire, and others, complaining of the undue election of John C. Vail, Esquire, one of the Members returned for King's County, to serve in General Assembly, and to try and determine the merits of the said Petition; reports, that having met on the day of appointment, and having heard the said Samuel Freeze, in behalf of himself and the other Petitioners, and the evidence by him adduced in support of the allegations contained in the said Petition, and also the Counsel on behalf of the sitting Member, the Committee adjourned to Monday, the 7th instant; when the Petition of the said Samuel Freeze to the House, praying to be allowed to withdraw his Petition against the return of the said John C. Vail, Esquire; as also, a notice of the said Samuel Freeze to the sitting Member, declaring his determination not further to prosecute the scrutiny, were read; whereupon, the Committee unanimously determined that John C. Vail, Esquire, was duly elected and returned a Member for King's County; and, on a resolution being put, it was also determined that the said petition of Samuel Freeze, and others, complaining of such undue election and return, as aforesaid, was not frivolous and vexatious.

JOS. CUNARD, Chairman.

Ordered, That the report be accepted.

By the arrival of the Brig Woodman at the port of Saint John from Liverpool, papers of that City to the 2nd February, are mentioned as having been received.

The state of the Country is represented as not being altogether tranquilized; but the summary methods which have been adopted by Government to meet the exigencies of the present aspect of affairs, will no doubt be found highly expedient and beneficial, in securing the peace of society.

How much soever some may rejoice at the spirit of insubordination which exists on the continent, there is one individual to whom insurrection must be dear,—we allude to Mr. O'Connell. The papers are full of his inflammatory appeals to his countrymen, which breathe the most furious hostility to England. It has been well observed, that England has no charms for the agitator; he cannot there gratify his ambition; he appeared in Parliament as a very second-rate debater, and therefore he would desire an Irish Parliament, where his oratory would be held in higher estimation. He may disturb the peace of society—he may sacrifice the lives of a few of his credulous adherents, but his designs must prove altogether abortive. The Grand Jury, as will appear by the following article, have found true bills of indictment against Mr. O'Connell and the other persons held to bail. Their announcement in court was received with hisses and hootings, which lasted several minutes after the ex-agitator had taken his seat.

True Bills found against the agitators.—On Tuesday the Attorney-General had indictments sent to the Grand Jury against several of the agitators, and among them Mr. O'Connell. Three witnesses were examined on the subject of the informations upon which the indictments are grounded. About one o'clock the foreman, Mr. Alderman Montgomery, came into the Jury Box, and said the Jury did not understand why, in every count, the crime was stated to have been committed in the Parish of St. Andrew, when they all knew that Home's Hotel was not in that Parish. Judge Jebb smiled, and said it was immaterial. From one until three o'clock the jury were occupied reading the indictments, which were extremely long; and after a most patient and attentive investigation, they found true bills against O'Connell, Steele, Dwyer, Lawless, Cloney, Reynolds, Redmond, Sheridan, and Barrett. The Court allowed half an hour for Mr. Castello, the attorney, to bring his client, Mr. O'Connell into Court, to be arraigned. Mr. Cullen afterwards appeared as attorney for all the traversers, whom he undertook to produce in court on Wednesday. Mr. Homes applied for a copy of the information, which was granted.

In the Court of King's Bench of Friday week, the Attorney-General said, that in the case of the King against O'Connell, he had to move for an attachment against M. P. Lavelle, proprietor of the Freeman's Journal.—On the 18th of January, the traversers were arrested, and on the 22d an article appeared in the Freeman's Journal which was a gross contempt of the authority of the Court; and was a letter signed by Mr. O'Connell. It might be divided into three heads—1st, it traduced and vilified the motives of the persons advising the prosecutions. 2dly, it attempted to overawe the Court he had the honor to address. 3dly, it sought to prejudice the public mind. The Hon. Gentlemen then concluded by calling upon the Court for a conditional order, which the Court immediately granted.

Mr. Castello requested a copy of the indictment, which the Attorney-General said they should have.

We await with anxious expectation the arrival of the February Mail, which will no doubt convey to us the Official intelligence of the adjustment of the Boundary question. We have not met with much additional information on the subject since our last publication; we copy the following articles in the absence of better information.

"The accounts even in the London papers certainly differ—one article from the Globe wears totally a different complexion to those in the Herald, but we fear the Globe is mistaken. The Journal of Commerce of this city, has received a letter from the best authority in London, which corroborates our apprehension. This letter, by permission of the Editors, we copy from the original MS. and append it to our extracts. From this letter it would appear that Rouse's, point even on Lake Champlain, has also been given to the Americans as a sort of offset to the territory claimed by the U. S., north of the river Saint John. If this be really the case, we can have no hesitation in saying that the King of the Netherlands has pronounced an unjust award. His Majesty's object was to 'split the difference,' he should, at least, have continued the line along the St. John, towards its head, and have struck off into the St. Francis.

If we have really lost our Cause, his Majesty's Ministers should not lose a moment in opening a negotiation for purchasing the lost territory at any cost.—New-York Albion.

NORTH EASTERN BOUNDARY.

The London Morning Herald has the following plaintive article on the Boundary Question, just decided by arbitration of the King of Holland.

We understand that the boundary question between the United States and British America, has been awarded by the King of Holland, in a way not at all likely to give satisfaction either to Great Britain or her Colonies.

The manner in which Compensation Juries not unfrequently act, namely by a kind of compromise, or halving the amount in dispute—appears to us to be the way in which his Dutch Majesty has acted with regard to this great boundary question. If our information be correct, he has divided the territory claimed by us, but disputed by the United States, into two parts, and, in so doing, he has given to Jonathan 'the better half.' He has, in fact, brought the boundary line within about twenty miles of the River St. Lawrence, by which the territory of the United States will be within thirty miles of Quebec, the capital of British America.—Upon what principle the line has been run from the River St. Croix to the River St. John, and along it to the St. Francis, and then struck off along a tract, without any natural mark of high lands or rivers, to the foot of the ridge bounding the St. Lawrence, thus embracing two, if not three tracts of high lands, we cannot understand. The only supposition that we can come to is, that this question, which has been so long under the consideration of His Majesty, has been at least hastily concluded, in a fit of displeasure at the non-interference of Great Britain with respect to the impending dismemberment of his own territories.

It has always appeared to us that this method of settling the question should have been avoided. We have not the least doubt that had our Government offered to the Americans on condition that they should have given up to us the disputed Territory, that the proposal would have been gladly accepted. As it is 'the reciprocity,' as usual, when England is concerned, 'is all on one side.'

SEALING.—Nine vessels have been fitted out from this Province, during the present season, and despatched to the Ice for Seals—from Halifax, from Lunenburg, and from Liverpool. This is a branch of our commerce that is evidently on the increase—and, as it is capable of almost indefinite extension, we trust the day is not distant, when we shall have a hundred sail employed in it. Several of our young fishermen from the shores have gone out in these vessels, and we have little doubt that many more of them will find their account in spending a few weeks of the winter and spring in these expeditions. They can be back in time for the shore fishery, or for the Labrador voyage, and the same class of vessels answer for both.—Novascotian.

NAVAL MERIT.—We are happy to announce that the Underwriters of this place, have presented to Captain George Benjamin, late of the Brig Cecilia, Two Hundred Pounds, "for his laudable exertion in taking into Bermuda the Brig Cecilia, after having been much disabled in a violent Hurricane, on his voyage from this Port to Demerara, in September last."—Royal Gazette.

NEW YORK, Feb. 24.

Capt. Crowell of ship James Perkins, arrived at Savannah from Gibraltar, reports that the Gloucester, British 74 gun ship, sailed from Gibraltar for England, on the 21st Dec., got on the Pearl Rock, the same day, and returned very leaky—said to have lost a portion of her keel. She had 800 soldiers from the different regiments to keep her free; was landing her armament and preparing to heave down.

Boston, March 2.

Loss of the BRITISH FRIGATE THETIS.—Captain Walker of the Brig Post Captain, arrived at New York, from Rio Janeiro, (sailed Dec. 30) informed that the British frigate Thetis was totally lost on the 10th Dec. on Cape Frio, having on board two millions of dollars. Thirty of the crew were drowned, and several died on the cape before assistance could be rendered them. The son of Capt. Bingham is amongst the number of persons lost. On the receipt of the intelligence at Rio, the Admiral despatched the corvette Elis, brig Algerine, and the schooner Anell, but on account of adverse winds they had not been able to reach the Cape on the 16th. The Admiral who accompanied the above vessels returned to Rio on the 14th, and instantly proceeded by land to Cape Frio.
