expected to appoint the day. We were on the whole considerably pleased him move for more than half an hour, during lives were also lest in the flames.

Aque

portion

the first people

ground

d ensue

towns

but it

ullition

nt is, of very a-

he land.

rapidly

ice may

Hay.

ould be

, with

ion. It

ut that

consent

enable uld the

to the

his be

war, d ruin-

are the

-such

Villa-

) nsider

y the

Pro-

n, up-

Itch of them

id that vet the

idence

from

Was

peers

lade to set in

TOIS of it any

itional

roya ays to s are and apara-

at the

hich I

to into

Itered

ye not

dified

coun-

e hope

leave,

but to nd pe-

tually

sider-

Thea-

fie In-

means

e was

le au-

lerest

e co-

rafis,

g the e preer extheir

xhibit

ice for 18, to s, and

and at

o affix

each

12, 11

ointed

d the

rsons

dan-

' this point-

811-

ublic

pre-dan-

He

hove

the bill

with Mr. Canning's lecture, and without pre- which time he frequently opened his mouth. It tending to offer any decided opinion on the me- was impossible to remove the corpse without rits of his life-rafts, we think that the practica- the aid of a strong escort of the military ; and bility of his plans ought to be tried, in order in the course of the evening the crowd surrounthat their application in cases of shipwreck ded the executioner's house, and broke all the might, if possible, be general. windows.

BOW STREET.

H. Hetherington, who has been fined for seln on Thursday, and in default of payment, maged ; and strong suspicion attaches to a for- crations, yells, and groans were uttered, loud committed to Newgate for 12 months.

UNION-HALL.

executioner for improper conduct. GENTLE LOVE .- A young man, named Sullivan, was charged with committing a violent assault on Jane Thomas, a girl to whom he was paying his addresses. The complainant stated that Sullivan had been keeping company with her for the last six months ; and that in consequence of some angry words that passed between them, he " up fist" and gave her a douse between the two eyes, that blackened them in the manner every one could now see .---Sullivan : Your worship, she provoked me to Before I struck her she told me to my teeth o that she cared more about a chap of the name of Bill Wilkins little finger, than she did for my whole carcass. Flesh and blood could not bear to hear her use such expressions (added the defendant), and I struck her when my passion was up, but I am now sorry for it .- 'I'he gir said that she hated a jealous man, and Sollivan had given so many proofs of his being a man of that description since she had become acquainted with him, that she should renounce his company .- Sullivan, upon this began to blubple ? ber, and said, " Jenny, do forgive me this time, and I'll not do so no more." The magistrate waid that the complainant acted perfect lyright in dropping the acquaintance of a fellow who behaved towards her in the manner she had described .- Sullivan said if she made up her mind to discard him, he should rid himself of life altogether .- The girl upon hearingthis, said, "Well, Jerry, rather than see you drown or kil vourself for me, if you will promise never to lift your hand again, I'll forgive and forget what has passed."-Sullivan, I am willing to make, that promise.-The magistrate said that he should not be satisfied with a mere promise, after the man had treated her with such brutality. He should find bail to keep the peace .--Sullivan was locked up for want of sureties ; but had not been more than two hours in custody, when the good-natured fool Jenny came erving to beg him off. Sullivan was released at her express desire, and they left the office together as lovingly as if nothing had happen-

Some persons declared that they could perceive cases taken to the public hospitals only. Many

[From the Bath Journal.] Saturday, very riotous proceedings marked the day in Bristol. The arrivat of Sir Charles Wetherell, the Recorder, being expected, by ten o'clock several thousand persons had assembled at 'I otterdown, awaiting his approach.

It is but justice to state that the executioner At half-past ten his arrival was announced ; he was not at fault, as it appears, from a report of was attended by four or five hundred special scientific persons appointed by the Procureur constables, with bludgeons or staves. The unstamped newspapers was brought du Roi, that the scaffold was intentionally da- moment he came in sight of the populace, exemer assistant, who had been dismissed by the and deep. Several volleys, of stones were thrown. This was continued all the way

A question may now arise whether the exe- thence to Broad-street. Dense masses di peocutioner's assistant had a right to alter the ple thronged all the road. 'I he Recorder reachmode of punishment. According to the 12th ar- ed the Guildhall, and proceeded to open the ticle of the Penal Code, the head of a criminal Commission, but from the groans and yells not must be chopped off. A Statute, passed in a word could be heard. Sir Charles threaten-91, defined the exact mode of execution ; in that | ed in vain to commit ; the noise increased. law the case of Mr. Lally Tollendal, and the Constables were then sent into the body of the frightful sufferings he experienced, were refer- hall to seize the offenders. The people then bered to. All Paris and all France felt horror up- gan coughing, so that still not a word of the on learning that that celebrated victim had re- Commission could be heard. When concludceived several strokes of the hatchet before his ed, three tremendous cheers were given for the head was severed. This event was the princi- King, which was echoed by the thousands outpal cause for introducing the guillotine, which side. Alterwards Sir Charles proceeded to the was a revival of the Dutch instrument of exe- Mansion-house, amidst continued groans. In passing the Commercial Rooms he was cheered

Hebard was not guillotined; he was stabbed by the persons who were assembled in the standing up, and with a shoemaker's knife. The rooms ; this quite inturiated the mob, who eninterests of humanity require the settlement of tered the Mansion-house. Another volley of this point. Suppose two criminals were to be stones were now thrown, fortunately without executed, would any man, whoever he may be, injury. Several thousand persons were collect- dent ; but latterly it became evident that the hand have a right to drag them to the scaffold, and led round the Mansion-house, woor three wind of the incendiary was at work, and a watch was there butcher them before the eyes of the peo- dows of which were broken. A slight southe kept for some time, upon the premises. On Sunnow ensued between the moh and special con- day evening last however, the assassin evaded the It would be impossible to give a description stables, and two or three were taken into cus- watch by coming into the House before sundown, of the above scene. The fumultuous cries of lody. A general rush was then made by the and applying a match to a mattrass in a distant B ROWN and LOAF SUGAR, Hyson and the people were heard at a considerable distance people to the Quay, where they armed them- part of the house ; but as soon as the flame reach- Souchong Teas, Raisins, Currants, Cinnaout of the town. In fine, so horrific a specta- selves with bludgeons. They were met on ed the feathers, the smell attracted the attention mon. Cloves, Pepper, Allspice, Ginger, Black, cle was never before witnessed in this place. their return by the special constables, who of some of the family, and the fire was extinguish- Blue and Olive Broad Cloths, Flannels, White, The advocates for the punishment of death may completely routed them, and many threw ed in good time. This was the 5th or 6th attempt Brown and Printed Cotions, Norwich Crapes, acquire a salutary lesson from the scene of the down their bludgeons. The crowd however, in about ten days-the most determined villainy Camblets, Plaids, Gros de Naples, Sarsnetts, 12th of September. A base assassin (Hebard) still increased, and several more windows were we ever heard of. We believe there is no man in Ribbons assorted, Ladies beaver Bonnets, Girls excited pity in every breast ; and if Roussille, soon broken. The Mayor threatened to read York deserved fewer enemies than Mr. Frehan, do. Gentlemen's beaver Ilais, Boys do. Sealwho fell a victim to his attrocious act, had not the Riot Act, at which a stone was thrown at the proprietor, and we fondly hope that the vil- skin Caps, &c. &c. &c. been a person universally esteemed through- him with so nice an aim that if he had not lowout the country, the people would have res- ered his head it must have killed him. At five qued his muiderer from the fatal sword of the o'clock the Riot Act was readminimediately after which every window, frames and all, in the Mansion-bouse, was smashed to pieces. The pired to eriminate any person. * * 14th Dragoons now arrived, at which the people became more infuriated. The town was one scene of disorder, noise, and confusion ; loud huzzaing from the people, and soldiers riding up and down. At eight o'clock the crowd was tempts at arson have created. We understand still increasing in numbers and fury. The special constables were quite overcome Several premises that cannot be evaded, and travellers persons had been severely wounded by the con- inay rest assured that they repose in the Steamstable's staves ; one man so severely hurt that Boat Hotel just with as much safety as in any ohe cannot recover, his skull being dreadfully ther Hotel or private house in York .- Canadian fractured, and it was feared that several others Freeman. had been fatally wounded. At nine o'clock, Saturday evening, Sir Charwas appointed to await him, in which he was three weeks, to return to England. speedily driven on his road to Newport, Monmouthshire. After the arrivals of the 14th Dragoons, the mob increased considerably. They soon gained complete possession of the armed themselves with the spikes of the rails; the Lords of the Admiralty, and his Majesty is hours, exposed to the gaze of the spectators, them very severe ones, principally sabre wounds- successful, and that in future the produce of our our articles of export .- St. John Courier.

To MARINERS .- The Light-House lately erected on Cape Sable Seal Island, was lighted for the first time on the 28th November. The Light, which is stated by our informants to be one of the clearest and most brilliant exhibited on the American coast, is a fixture, elevated, about 80 feet above high water mark, on the S. W. part of the Island, and can be seen by persons appr aching it from any point of the compass .- The persons engaged to superintend the establishment are confidently expected to give every satisfaction ; and much benefit to those engaged in navigation will doubtless result therefrom. -Ib.

20th inst., displaying a standing brilliant red erected thereon. light. The bearings and distances of the different headlands in the vicinity, and of the Grand Manan Ledges, will be given next week-

From the York (U. C.) Courier.

—*1*b.

HORRIBLE INCENDIARY .--- It will be seen by an advertisement from the Police Office in this day's paper,, that some horrible incendiary has been at work endeavouring to set fire to the Steam-Boat Hotel, and several attempts have failed .-The assassin generally commenced his operations in the evening, by setting fire to a Straw Mattras under one of the beds; but the timely exertions of the proprietor and his family prevented further injury than the destruction of a few beds. For some time, the thing was attributed altogether to acci-

AUCTION. Valuable Real Estate. To be sold by Public Auction on TUESDAY, the 7th day of February next, at the Market-House in Fredericton, the following Property belonging to the Estate of the late T. Wetmore, Esquire, deceased.

HAT valuable Farm, situate in the Parish of Kingsclear about 3 miles above Fredericton, being the residence of the late T. W. and known as Kingswood, containing about 1200 acres. This property will be sold in Lots.

_____A [, S O,____

The ISLAND right in front of the above pro-The Gannet Rock Light was lighted on the perty, containing about 7 acres, with a Barn

> -ALSO,--Two Lots, known as numbers 84 and 86, in the Town plat of Fredericton fronting on Brunswick street.

> > -ALSO,---A farm in Prince William, containing about 70 acres known as the Hovt farm.

AF Plans of the above may be seen at the Counting House of Messrs. James Taylor Senr. & Co. in Fredericton, and at the office of James Peters Junr. Esquire, in Saint John.

Sale to commence at 12 a'Clock. WILLIAM TAYLOR, Auct'r. Fredericton, 13th December, 1831

JOHN T. SMITH, Has now on hand a General Assortment of such British, East and West-India GOODS. as are the most suitable for the Season ;

FRANCE.

FRIGHTFUL EXECUTION OF A MUR-DERER IN FRANCE.

Peter Hebard, an inmate of a condemned cell GEORGE MINCHIN, ESQ. in the prison at Abby, in France, was for five TANAN DESCRIPTION OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PROPE mouths expecting the final order for his exe-DREADFUL RIOT AT BRISTOL. cution. The crime of which he was convicted was a murder committed under most aggraga-Our New-York papers by the Western ted circumstances. He was allowed to indulge Mail communicate intelligence from Engin hopes of a reprieve, and even incouraged in land of a most alarming description, occait by the turnkeys, when one morning, at ten o'clock, his door was opened by a Commissary sioned by some of the most disgraceful of Police, and he was told to prepare for death scenes of riot and insubordination which at four in the alternoon of the same day, it has seldom fallen to our lot to record. Mansion-house, tore up the rails before it, and The murderer was a man whose nerves were In addition to the details of the destruction well strung. He bowed his head in acquies- of property which immediately ensued on they then broke in the doors, and were about cence of the fatal mandate, and showed that he the rejection of the Reform Bill, the out- to fire it, when the soldiers drove them out. quest he made was that a priest should be sent rages which have recently transpired in After several skirmishes, in which many perfor, to whom he made a confession of his crime, the City of Bristol are of the most appal- sons were severely wounded, the people, about exhibited more benevolence of disposition, or grea- Seeds, Camels Hair Peocils, Tin Foil, Gold Leaf, and desired that it should be disclosed to the ling kind. Property to the amount of 12 o'clock began to disperse, but not before ter integrity of character, than Mr. Morris. and desired that it should be disclosed to the find and it is all the windows of the Coun-public. At the exact hour he was conducted nearly half a million has been sacrificed by from his dungeon, and placed on the fatal car : the wanton and flagrant acts of the neiter from his dungeon, and placed on the fatal car ; the wanton and flagrant acts of the agita- The soldiers, shortly after twelve, were order- the late Mr. P. Smith of H. M. Dockyard. but he was scarcely seated thereon when he tors, and several lives have been lost. We ed to gailop through all the principal streets of In London, lately, Nathaniel Coffin, Esq. der, Cayenne Pepper, Cauliflower, Walnuts, he was informed that the execution was put off have only sufficient time and space to sub- the city, and to disperse the groups that were aged 83, brother of General Coffin, for 34 years French Beans, Piccalilla, Girkins, Capsicums, &c. ned that a respite had been received, but this join an abridgement of the particulars: - assembled. At one o'clock they ordered two Collector of H. M. Customs at Basseterre, St. was not the case. For nearly five years an The Riot commenced from the circumstance of men in Wine-street to go home; they refused Kitts. Sir Charles Wetherall, M. P. who is Recorder, to do so, and used insolent language. One of ment. The scaffold was partly broken ; one of and an anti-reformer, making his entry into the them, a man of the name of Bush, an ostler to the executioners's assistants was accused of City, on his return from London. The conflict Mr. Burgess, stable-keeper, threw a stone at having done it in order to play a trick upon his took place between the mob and the constables one of the soldiers, who immediately fired his master. | The King's Procureur gave immediate orders for its being repaired, and it was The Mansion House was carried by storm, the tragedy. thought that as soon as the carpenter had finishinmates escaping by the roof. They next proceeded his work the execution would take place. The ed to the BRIDEWELL, knocking in the large prisoner was again brought, at six o'clock, in folding doors with aston shing facility, and after the midst of an immense concourse of people ; liberating the prisoners set, the build ng on fire. A Light Dragoons, in consequence of one of them the gendarmes, with their swords drawn, kept stronger party of the rioters proceeded to the NEW back the crowd, and cleared an extensive space GAOL, a strong built modern building, having around the scaffold. The prisoner walked up been built about ten years since, at a cost of about with a firm step, and was bound to the board £100,000. The mob succeeded in forcing an enlaid across the scaffold. The executioner and trance into the yard and the Governor's House, two assistants had taken their place close to which at first was regarded as the wildest scheme nal the convict's head was placed between the procured, and with them the massive locks on the motion, and did not touch the criminal. A ers released, amounting altogether, exclusive of and what they could not drink they spilled on the Land may be seen, and all information requir- wards of 200 Volumes-intends opening a Public cry of norror arose from the crowd. The knile debtors, to more than 100. They next set fire to the floor. The 14th Dragoons were retiring ed obtained. was again lifted ; it tell'a second time, but with- the Prison and the Governor's House, which to their quarters while these proceedings burnt w th fury until they were quite consumed, were going on, and were saluted with tered piercing cries. A volley of stones was The rioters then divided themselves into parties, many volleys of stones. They levelled their and proceeded to the TOLL HOUSES; these were pieces to intimidate the mob,, but it had not considered minor affairs and were speedily in the slightest effect. Ultimately they were or- VENEN Valuable TOWNLOTS, situate in discharged at the executioner and his men ; the sentence of the law, but without effect ; the flames. They then set off to GLOUCESTER COUN- dered to fire. One man was shot through the Fredericton, adjoining the Race Course, be-TY PRISON, which in a short time was broken in- breast and died shortly after, several others longing to the Estate of the late Hon. S. D. iterated shricks of the ill-fated man excited a to, the prisoners released, and the building also were dangerously wounded. The soldiers fir- Street. The same are laid out in BUILDING fired. There was not now even the appearance ed from just before St. Augustine's Church, LOTS to suit purchasers. The whole is Freehold of a check to the licent ousness of the mob; ac- and a sailor standing on the Quay was shot Property, unincumbered with any rent charge thrill of horror in the spectators, The executioner and his assistants, alarmed. cordingly a mere handful of miscreants proceeded through the shoulder. for their own safety, having been wounded by to the BISHOP'S PALACE, effected an entrance, the missiles, were obliged to quit the scaffold, and immediately commenced the work of destrucand take to flight. Hebard continued all this tion. A few individuals, however, succeeded in time with his head fastened to the frightful staying for a moment their diabolical designs. Orlunette (block). In this cruel situation he re- ders were then sent for the military, who had mained for some minutes scarcely without a been guarding the MANSION HOUSE, to repair wound. The chief executioner once more for the protection of the Bishop's residence. They monnited the scaffold, but without his atten- had no sooner, however, left for that purpose than danta; he made another attempt to separate the mob commenced operations on the Mansion the criminal's head from his body; he twice lif- House, and set it on fire under the banqueting ted the knile, but it fell wavering as before, and room. The troops on their arrival at the Bishop's missed the criminal's neck. It should be sta- Palace found things to erably secure, but the tel that the last time (the fifth,) the knife, on flames which arose from the Mansion House too law.-Gazette de Tribuneaux.

BOYAL GAZETTE. FREDERICTON, DECEMBER 28, 1831.

> ALMS HOUSE AND WORK HOUSE. Commissioner for next week, H. G. CLOPPER, ESQUIRE. ----- Saving's Bank. TRUSTEES NEXT WEEK. MENRY G. CLOPPER. ESQ. JAMES TAYLOR, ESQ.

lain who has thus endeavoured to destroy him and his family, will yet be found out and meet with his reward The Police have arrested a person on suspicion; but we believe that nothing has trans- all of which will be sold at the lowest rates for

We are inclined to believe that it was done by some malignant villian more to injure the character of the house than any thing else, and this purpose has been more or less effected by the great alarm and excitement which these frequent atthat there is, and will be a watch upon the whole

HAMILTON, BERMUDA, Nov. 16 .- The transles, dreading the result of his continuing in the ports with the 71st Regt. under the command of city, left the Mansion house, in disguise, at Major Levings, arrived at St. George on Friday the back-door, and made his way through se- last, in 11 days from Quebec. The 71st relieves veral streets, fortunately without being recog- the 81st now quartered here, which Regt. will nized, until he arrived at a place where a chaise embark on board the same transports, in about Pied.

Francis Joshua Mullock, of his Majesty's Ord- Tooth and Nail Brushes, Vegetable. Palmonary

Charles Morris, a Member of his Majesty's Coun- port's, Tutner's and other Pills, Rose and Lavender cil, and late Surveyor-General of this Province .- Water, Smelling Bottles, Ginger, Cloves, Natmegs, among which are :--

-ALSO

80 pairs Ladies Cloth Sucks. 50 do. Gentlemens Cloth over Shoes, prompt payment.

Fredericion, 7th December, 1831. DRUGS, MEDICINES, Patent Medicines, Spices, Confectionary, Perfumery, Paints, Pickles, Fish Sauces, Se. Se.

MITHE Subscr ber has received part of I his Fall Supply, and is in daily on-pectation of the remainder to complete his assertment of the above.

Arrow Root, Bees Wax, Bitter Almonds, Oil of do, Candied Sugar, Clar fied Honey, Candied Citron & Lemon, Cutoride of Soda, or disinfecting agent, Citric and other ac ds, Essences of Bergamur, Lemon, Peppermint, &c. Liquorice Ball, refined do. Isinglass, Macaroni, Vermicelli, Sago, Sponge, Famarinds, Oils of various kinds, Brunswick Black: for Stoves and Franklins, British Oil, Court Plaister, Ching's Worm Lozenges, Cold Cream, Church's Cough Drops, Cephalic and other Snuff's, Essence of Mustard, Bateman's Drops, Balsam of Horehound, Gresham's Nectar Draught, German Corn Plaister, Golden Ointment for the eyes, Goldbeat-At Halifax, on the 13th instant, aged 76, Mr. er's skin, Kidder's Indelible Ink, Tooth Powder. Balsam, Windsor Soap, Phospheric Fire Boxes, At the same place, on the 17th inst., the Hon. Hair Powder. Davenport's Eye Water, Daven-

Few individuals have, in their passage through life, Cinnamon, Carraway, Coriander and Cardamom

ALSO, ON CONSIGNMENT, Superior Lemon Sirup,

Ponche a la Romaine, or Roman Punch, while Sir Charles was dining at the Mansion carbine at him; and after the fellow had run a House, in which the latter were overpowered few steps he tell dead. Thus ended the night's

Sunday morning the mob assembled in great numbers in Queen-square, their exectations now were particularly directed towards the 14th having killed a man on the previous night, as above stated. Several volleys of stones were thrown at them ; at half-past eight they were obliged to leave the square. The people then entered the Mansion house, and destroyed the barricadoes which had been put up during the entered the wine cellar, which was well stocked

The people continued to increase in numbers; but after the depredations at the Mansion House, nothing more of an unpeaceful character occurred, until about one o'clock, when a large hody of them moved towards the Bridewell, where those who had taken part in the riot of the previous evening were confined. They speedily broke the doors open and liberated all the prisoners. With this they were not satisfied : in ten minutes after the Bridewell was fired and burnt to the ground.

Fredericton, 16th Dec. 1831. Of course business is entirely at a stand, St. John, N. B. September 10, 1831. 5 many of the coaches have discontinued running INIGRANTS arriving here with the inten-TANTED immediately, a BOY of abou 14 ed throwing stones at the scaffold, and the ex- serve both places, each had been sacrificed to the from that city. The people not only are guil-I'd tion of settling in the Country will, without; V years of age, as an apprentice to the CABI-The block being partly removed, Hebard felt found the infatuated creatures, no less intoxicated excess of debauchery and licentiousness that NET MAKING BUSINESS, -one from the Coup- delay, receive Crown Lands upon the terms preentioner was forced to seek safety in flight. - fury of the incendiaries. On their return they ty of what we have above named-but of every his head disengaged, and lifted as from the with their successful career than with liquor, ex- can disgrace human nature. Female chastity try will be preferred - Apply to tomb. Some of the populace cried out ulting in the final accomplishment of their designs has no protection ; the violation of every law Cabinet Maker, Queen Street. for application. "Bravo !,' such was their astonishment at see- on the ill-fated building. By this time the Bish-, characterises the insurgents, three of them in a Directions for information will always be given ing a human being stand up after escaping the op's Palace was reduced to ashes. The military state of drunkenness were burnt in one of the Fredericion, Dec. 20. to those who are desirous to proceed into the init of instrument of death no less than five times. - having no orders to act otherwise than as mere houses they fired, and two were burnt in one terior for employment ; and BOOKS, &c. Persons who wish to purchase small cultivated The unfortunate man now begged for assist- spectators, were immediately after their arrival of the prisons. As late as half past 12 o'clock HE Subscriber has received on consignment, from New-York, an assortment of BOOKS, Farms will receive particulars of several by apply ance. A workman approached the scaffold, but withdrawn, and sent to protect the Council the soldiers were then continually dispersing the Sc. consisting of :--Historical and Miscellaneous cation at the Office, Prince William street, St. was a raid to ascend it. After a lapse of a few House, which it was expected would be the mob which were being again as contineally next public building attacked. But the riot- collected in other parts. The soldiers still ab-Works, Religious and School Books, Ladies Al- John. fying the threats and missiles of the crowd, ers conceived the plan of firing the adjoining hou- stain from firing, they only disperse the mobs bums, Family Bibles, Quills, &c. &c. A. WEDDERBURN, Government Agent for Emigrants. The above at very low prices will be offered for ses, and by 12 o'clock, the whole mass, from the by riding through them. sale at the BOOK STORE of Mr. G. H. HARTT, PROTECTION INSURANCE COMmounted the scaffold, and had a short conversa-Mansion-house to the middle avenue, including and all remaining on hand will be disposed of at latter said to him, " free me from those cords !" the Custom House and all the back buildings A most convincing proof of the attention that PANY HARTFORD. Public Auction on the 3d January 1832. is now paid to the different departments of Agri-THE Sulscriber continues to Insure Dwelling F. E. BECKWITH. culture in this province, may be inferred from Houses, Steres, Barns, Mills, &c. &c for he was still fastened to the plank. The asfire. In this manner they swept away one whole against Loss or Damage by FIRE, for the abov the fact, that 100 firkins of Butter have been side and proceeded to another. commencing with 4th Decomber, 1831. sistant told him to turn his head, and at the Insurance Office, on moderate terms shipped by one of our merchants on board the same time seized him by the neck, and gave the Excise OFFICE. Altogether there have been NOTICE. JAMES BALLOCH, AGENT brig Maria, bound for Liverpool, England .-him several wounds with a shoemaker's knife destroyed 42 dwelling houses and warehouses, ex-This is really changing the course of trade in FIRM of Hector & Joseph Sutherland Hebard's head, nearly half off, hung on his left clusive of the Mansion house, Excise Office, Cusof this place, is disolved by mutual con our favour ; for it is not many years since large shoulder, and the executioner was obliged to tom House, the four Toll Houses, the' three Pri-Law Blanks of various kinds for HECTOR SUTHERLAND. mongst the gendarmes. It was now ten mi- of killed and wounded is as follows :-Four men quantities of Butter were annually imported in- sent. JOSEPH SUTHERLAND. Sale at this Office. nutes past six. Hebard, who in all probability, and one woman; fifty-one other persons, includ- to this Province from the Mother Country. Fredericton, 27th July, 1831. ill breathed, remained in this situation for two ing four women have received injuries, some of We trust the present speculation will prove

VALUABLE LAND FOR SALE, By private Contract. WO very Valuable BLOCKS of LAND, adjoining each other, containing 2000 ACRES, and laid out in Lots of 100 acres each, to suit purchasers, situate in the Parish of Wakefield, near Jackson

Hon. S. D. Street, deceased. The above mentioned Land is of the best quali- ESPECTFULLY informs the Inhabitants os situated. Terms of payment will be made easy. Perley, at his store in Woodstock, where plans of Mr. H. having a LIBRARY, comprising p

GEO. F. STREET, Fredericton, 21st Dec. 1831. tf

For Sale, by private Contract.

whatever. For further particulars, apply to the Subscriber at his Office in Fredericton GEO. F. STREET. Fredericton, 21st Dec. 1831. tf

ANTED an active LAD about 14 or 15 years of age, as an apprentice to the Blacksmith business .- A good recommen and paid. dation will be required. THOMAS BOWDEN, Blacksmith.

Fresh Mushroom Catsup, and Real India Soy. N. B. A qualified APPRENTICE wanted. GEORGE E. BALDWIN, SURGEON & DRUGGIST, _A Queen-street, Fredericton. Nov. 30

GEORGE H. HART, Town, in the County of York, granted to the Book-Binder, Stationer and Copper Plate Printer.

ty for cultivation, and contains a very small pro- Fredericton, and its Vicinity, that he haf portion, if any, of waste land in the whole two commenced the above business in the Store fortracts; it is well Timbered and advantageously merly occupied by Mr. James Tibbits ; he has on hand a general assortment of STATIONARY. and orders in his line will be executed with neat-For further particulars apply to the subscriber, ness and dispatch ; he therefore respectfully self given to enable him to procure the latest Periodical, and other new works. Gentlemen disposed to encourage such an institution, will please to call and subscribe .--- The Terms are as follows :-----For one year : : : £I 5 0

" 6 months : : : : 0 I3 4 3 4 : : : : : " I week : Fridericton, 2d August, 1831.

