Alexander Goodfellow, Robert Doak, and James Davidson, Esquires, Commissioners, for exploring a new line of Road between Robert Doak's and Fredericton.

We can perceive nothing of any great importance from Europe in perusing our regular files of papers during the past week, and have therefore been enabled to devote the more space to Colonial matters.

REPORT OF THE SAINT MARY'S TEMPERANCE SOCIETY.

A very short space of time having elapsed since the formation of a Temperance Society on the Nashwaak, by a very few well disposed persons of that Settlement, and the satisfaction and good that has been evinced by its fruits, are beyond the most sanguine expectations of almost every individual in the community; and notwithstanding by the 7th Rule thereof, the Society are to meet every three months, for the purpose of reporting, advising, and encouraging persons of every rank and society; yet owing to a variety of circumstances (which are not necessary to enter into the particular details of in this report), the provisions of the aforesaid rule has been dispensed with. Your committee therefore in presenting you with the Report, congratulate you upon the accession of nearly one hundred and forty members to this Society since the first formation, and as far as we can learn there are a number of persons in the upper part of the settlement which have actually joined this Society under a Secretary pro tem, and which names have not been as yet handed into the Secretary's hands of this Committee; and so far as has come within the knowledge of your Committee, the members generally speaking have strictly adhered to the regulations thereof, and that the Society may be considered to be in a flourishing state. In turning to the dark side of the stage, your Committee regret to state, that it has been their painful duty to expel some of its members; but it is to be hoped they will return with all the energy and zeal of good and useful members of Society, and have their names inserted in the common cause of setting a good and useful pattern to all their fellow mortals.

Your Committee therefore express a wish to the members in general of this Society, that before they bring forward a complaint against any of the members of the Society, that they will weigh the charges carefully and tenderly, and if they should find themselves bound conscientiously to make a complaint, to inform the person so violating the established rules that he is to be complained of for such and such transgressions, at such a time and place, so as to give the offender every chance and opportunity of vindicating his own cause.

From the best information your Committee are in the possession of Temperance Societies are now very prevalent throughout this and the neighbouring Provinces of Nova Scotia, Upper Canada, Great Britain, and the United States of America, and your Committee humbly hope that under the Divine Blessing the benefit of Temperance Societies may be felt to the uttermost ends of the earth. Your Committee do not wish to intimate that taken abstractly there is any thing that may be considered to be of a religious nature in this Institution, yet who can tell but that it may be one of those means made use of by the Almighty, for the more general diffusion of light and truth throughout the Universe, considered in a moral point of view, only the benefits resulting to the community have been incalculable. We now behold him who was once the victim of intemperance, the bane of Society, and the destroyer of his family's peace, changed into the obliging husband, the tender parent, and the respectable member of Society, and instead of spending the midnight hours over the intoxicating bowl, he is now content to share by his own fire side, in the bosom of his family, the fruits of his own toil and industry,—such are some of the fruits of Temperance Societies; and your Committee feel themselves fully confident, that numbers who as yet have stood aloof from this Institution, would, if they duly appreciated the benefits resulting to the community therefrom, be willing to deny themselves the cheering glass, and co-operate heartily with your Society in endeavouring to promote the general good,—the duty we believe to be ours, the blessing—God Almighty. Your Committee therefore cannot help remarking to the Members of this Society and the community in general, in this report, that the good effects now so publicly shown by many of the members of this Institution can be accounted for in no other way than to the benefits resulting from a sober, industrious, and temperate life. It is also with the greatest satisfaction that your Committee are fully able to report, that the greatest progress has taken place in the number of members to the Temperance Society on the Nashwaak for so short a space of time, than of any other Parish in the Province of the same population. Although in the first formation of this Society, it was held at a distant view by many, who are now actually some of its most useful members,—may it still increase, and to the Almighty be all the praise.

JOHN VANHORNE, Secretary.

WINDSOR STEAM BOAT.—The machinery for Mr. Whitney's new Steam Boat, intended to ply once a week between this port and Windsor, N. S., and once a week between this port and Eastport and St. Andrews has arrived in the ship Charlotte Langen, from Liverpool.—The engine is of fifty horse power, the same as the Henrietta's, and is also from the manufactory of Messrs. FAWCETT & Co. of Liverpool. The boat will be launched this week, and every exertion made to place her on her destined route early in June. This addition to the present Steam Boat conveyance of the Province, will, there is good reason to anticipate, prove very convenient for persons from the United States and elsewhere, as well as from our own Province, who may wish to proceed to Halifax or the Eastern parts of Nova Scotia, &c. either on business or pleasure; and, we look forward ere long to see pleasure excursions to Windsor, Halifax, &c. become quite fashionable during the summer months; indeed people can scarcely avoid taking a trip to some part of our own or the sister Province, during the warm weather, while so many steamers are daily plying in all directions. We sincerely hope the enterprising proprietor may receive every encouragement in this new undertaking.

The new Boat, we learn, is to be commanded by Capt. T. Reed, now of Henrietta.—St. John Observer.

Pursuant to Notice, the election for thirteen Directors of the above Company, took place this day, when the following gentlemen were chosen:—Robert Parker, Hugh Johnston, Nehemiah Merritt, R. W. Crookshank, Robert F. Hazen, John Ward, jr., Henry Gilbert, Stephen Wiggins, William Leavitt, John M. Wilmot, George D. Robinson, James Kirk, and E. D. W. Ralchford, Esquires.—Id.

NEWFOUNDLAND.—We have St. John's papers to the 9th of April. Legislative troubles in this Colony have commenced with its first session of its Assembly.—The Council has disagreed to the Revenue Bill, the Chief Justice declaring its provisions in opposition to the Act of 6th George 4, Cap. 114; and that if passed into a law, he should feel himself bound, in his official capacity, to consider it a dead letter. In consequence of which the House addressed His Excellency, praying his interference. In reply, his Excellency expresses his regret at the difference which had taken place, but that under existing circumstances he lamented that he possessed no power to relieve them from the embarrassment under which they laboured. A correspondence had taken place between the Chief Justice and his Excellency, on the subject, in which his Honor requests permission to proceed to England, considering that his absence would secure the passage of the Bill; this request having been refused, he had on his own responsibility, left the Island on the 20th ult. in the brig Mercury, for England.—Hal. Journal.

[Judge Tucker, in his answer to an address of the Benevolent Irish Society of St. John's, on his departure from the Colony, intimates the probability of his never returning to resume his official duties in Newfoundland.]

Our Sister Colony of Newfoundland, appears to have been thrown into a singular state of embarrassment, by the absurd attempt of the Chief Justice to deny the right of the Local Legislature to raise a revenue, by imposing duties on imports. A bill for this purpose having passed the Lower House, and by which it was proposed to levy 6d. per gallon upon all spirits, and duties ranging from 6d to 1s. 6d. upon Wines, in proportion to their quality; was rejected in the Council, in consequence of the opposition of the Chief Justice and the Attorney General. The reasons given by the Chief Justice are—first that Colonial Legislatures have no such power, notwithstanding the whole of them have exercised it from time immemorial; and secondly, even if they had, it would be impolitic to lay such heavy taxes on the poor people of Newfoundland. He knew he should be told that the Parliament of Newfoundland was only following in the footsteps of Nova Scotia—but the difficulty with him was to reconcile the conduct of Nova Scotia, in that respect, to constitutional principles. He could not imagine how the acts of Nova Scotia had been so long tolerated. They screened themselves in Nova Scotia by raising a revenue under the name of Excise. Their principle was, probably, to get money, lawfully if they could—but at all events to get money. 'If the Bill passed into a law, he should feel himself bound, in his capacity of Chief Justice, to consider it a dead letter.' It was in vain that the new Collector, Mr. Spearman, appealed to the practice of all the Colonies, sanctioned as it had been by His Majesty—the Judge and the Attorney General were inflexible, and the Bill was lost. Stormy debates, and unanimous Resolutions, followed in the Lower House. An address was sent to the Governor, who expressed his regret at the misunderstanding, but his inability to provide a remedy. In the mean time, Judge Tucker, wrote a letter to his Excellency, advising him to pro-rogue the Assembly for 10 days; and give him leave of absence to go to England, thus leaving a majority in the Council to pass the Bill. This his Excellency refused to do, upon which the Judge resigned—his resignation was refused, and to finish the farce, he wrote to the Governor to inform him, that he had taken his passage for England—that he would resign, and unless the Government was convinced of the purity of the motives upon which he had acted, he would never return to the Colony. We should as soon have expected to see a man of Judge Tucker's information and experience, deny the existence of the Seal Fishery as the right of the Colonial Assemblies to impose duties for the purposes of revenue. He gets rid of the practice in this Province, by gravely insinuating we are knaves—we can only account for its acts, by charitably supposing he is mad.

There is one thing which strikes us most forcibly in glancing over these proceedings—the debates of the Council appear in the Newspapers, and one of these remarks, that the Council Chamber was crowded by a numerous assemblage of persons anxious to hear them; so that, even the little Council of Newfoundland, whatever other fooleries it may have committed, has not ventured to make laws for the people without admitting them to its deliberations.—Nova Scotia.

CUBA.—Cholera at Havana and Matanzas.—Accounts from Havana, to the 5th inst. state that the deaths from the cholera had much diminished, but were still supposed to be about 150 a day.—The whole number is stated in official reports at 14,664, in a population of about 180,000, or nearly one in twelve, a proportion greater than that in New York and Paris, and not much varying from that of Montreal and Quebec. A letter dated the 30th ult. says:—

'The mortality was greater on the 10th than for several succeeding days, but it afterwards increased, and on the 13th the number of deaths was 600. On the 21st, 270 bodies were interred in the principal burying ground, but the whole number of deaths was not probably less than 400. The government has opened two hospitals,—one for men in the Arsenal, and the other in a house of the Campo de Marta, for women. On the 19th, the artillery of the forts was fired, by order of the government, as a means of purifying the atmosphere. Many of the physicians have fled or concealed themselves, and it is not strange therefore that those who remain are unable to attend upon all the sick, so that many die without being visited by them.

MANTANZAS.—The brig Haiti arrived yesterday, left Mantanzas on the 5th inst. Captain Staples informs that the cholera was raging with great violence when he sailed, from 250 to 300 persons dying daily. The governor had, by proclamation, suspended the employment of the negroes in the launches, and interdicted the ingress of blacks from the interior, during the prevalence of the disease.—The pestilence had shown itself among the shipping in the harbour, but had not proved very fatal. Business was dull.—N. Y. Paper.

MEXICO.—Cholera at Rancho.—A correspondent of the N. Y. Daily Advertiser, in a letter dated Matamoros, 4th March, says: 'The cholera has reached the country, and prevails at many scattered places. At Rancho, out of a population of 470, only 25 remained alive.'

Married.

At Rockville, County of Gloucester, on the 16th ult. by the Rev. Wm. Miller, PERRY J. N. DUMARESCQ, Esquire, to DELPHINE, youngest daughter of Mr. Joseph Arinault, all of that place.

Died.

At St. John, on the 29th ult., in the 32d year of his age, Mr. John Paul, a native of Lanark, North Britain, formerly of the Royal Artillery, and late of the Ordnance Department. He fought at the battles of Lexington, Bunker Hill, Brandywine, Long Island, and German Town, in the revolutionary war; was wounded at the battle of Lexington, and fired the first gun on the British side on that day.—Mr. P. was one of the early settlers of this Province, having landed here on the 25th July, 1783, and was an Elder of the St. Andrew's Church in that City, since it was first constituted. He has left a widow and a numerous circle of relatives and friends to mourn for his departed worth. His remains were respectfully interred on Thursday, with military honors.

At Greenwich, King's County, on the 24th ult. after a long and painful illness, Mrs. MARY JONES, wife of Mr. John Jones, Sen. in the 75th year of her age—leaving a numerous family to lament the loss of a kind mother. Mrs. J. had fifteen children—104 grand children; and 41 great grand children.
