

cessary to take a supply at once as far as Lake Winnipeg. This obliged me to purchase another canoe, to get across Lake Superior, and from that establishment I received the two north canoes prepared for the expedition by the Company.

"We arrived at Fort Alexander on the 6th of June, which, for heavy canoes, is considered as being remarkably quick, the dispatch canoe from Montreal having only got there one day earlier. The letters that you and I saw at the Hudson's Bay House, in December last, together with others of mine to Governor Simpson, were in that canoe, and consequently but a short time before me. I had thus to apprehend that the arrangements relating to the expedition could not have been completed from the want of the necessary information; and therefore the importance of seeing the Governor myself was evident, and on the 10th of June, I had that pleasure at Fort Alexander. I then heard that the supplies were nearly all at Cumberland House; but as we could not by any exertion procure the men required for the expedition at Montreal, it was necessary for me to come to this port to complete their number. And now I am sorry to say we are obliged to pay very high wages; besides which, I have lost full 300 miles by this delay, unfavourable in itself.

"It is the opinion of the senior gentlemen here, then, that the only method we can adopt to get my two large heavy boats to a wintering ground, is for me to go in a light canoe myself, and find out the exact situation and the best route to Thibodeau, which I hope to do by the time the boats arrive at Athabasca, where there shall be a guide to conduct them to me. Now, my dear friend, though I must do this to ensure my operations next year, yet it swells our expenses to more than I had contemplated, and you cannot conceive how few friends I am at the thought of getting beyond the £7,000, for it is certain this sum will scarcely carry us to the close of the year, whereas an additional £1,000 would be sufficient. Pray see, then, what can be done, and make me quiet about this.

"I am now in the midst of bustle and annoyance—living and persuading men to go—I shall write again by the ship. On this occasion you are the only person in England, to whom I promise writing; therefore make my kind regards to all my friends, and especially to those who have been active, and are interested in our good cause—Yours ever, GEORGE BACK, N. Y. Allison.

(From the Halifax Acadian.)

The civil war in Portugal is still going on—some advantages are said to have been gained by the Queen's forces over those of Miguel.—The Falmouth Packet of the 9th says:—

Excepting the news from Portugal there is altogether a barrenness of anything of interest in the political world. The latest country, it appears, by the news received on Wednesday, is said to be the seat of warfare, and that too, of the worst description. All accounts confirm the intelligence that the new government at Lisbon have already shown their cruel and ferocious nature by a degree of despotism more becoming tyrants than constitutional governors. It would be a blessing to Portugal if an earthquake would swallow up the partisans of both Miguel and Pedro and all the priests in the country. We are tired of this unnatural and petty warfare, and but for our duty as public journalists we would never again notice the wretches who talk of patriotism on the one side, and reverence for religion on the other, while their hearts are as black as the blackest fiend of human imagination.

It appears from the German papers that considerable dissatisfaction continues to be felt in various parts of Hungary, at what is considered a slight upon that people by the Emperor of Austria. The Hungarians appear to be anything but reconciled to their submission to the Austrian yoke.

The King and Queen of the Belgians arrived in Paris on Sunday evening, and took up their abode in the Chateau de la Tuileries.

By a convention between Russia and the German powers, all the Poles still in Germany are to be sent out of the country, and to embark for England or North America. Accordingly the few Poles who are still at Dresden were lately arrested, and conveyed, with English passports to Halle, thence to proceed to England.

The Russian Government has issued a notice, to the effect that all the Poles residing abroad must show satisfactory cause for remaining out of their country, under pain of having their property sequestered.

Rome, it is asserted, never had at one period so many wealthy and titled English families as are expected to rendezvous there during the present winter.

London, Nov. 6.

A review of the National Guards took place in Paris on Sunday last, in compliment to King Leopold. It was expected that some insult would be offered him, in consequence of his having served in the army by which Paris was captured in 1814; but nothing of the kind occurred, notwithstanding the exertions of the opposition press to produce such a manifestation.

Portsmouth, November 9.

Lieutenant-General Sir John Keane, KCB, and GCH, will embark at this port on the 10th inst. in the Upton Castle, for his Governmentship at Bombay. Major-General Sir B. D'Urban will embark about the same period for his Governmentship at the Cape of Good Hope.

Major-General Sir Colin Campbell, KCB, is appointed Commander in Chief of Nova Scotia from this garrison. It is reported, he will be replaced here by Major-General Robert Ellice.

The English November mail arrived here on Sunday last, by which we have London dates to the 7th and Falmouth to the 9th of that month.—With the exception of some additional particulars relative to the affairs of Spain and Portugal, which are of little moment, we have nothing of importance to communicate.—A conspiracy had been discovered against the government of Greece. Colocotroni had been arrested, as its leader, and made prisoner.—Captain Rossi's letter to the Secretary of the Admiralty, which we have copied, will afford our readers much pleasing information.

PROSPECTUS

OF THE SECOND VOLUME OF

THE ALBION.

NEW SERIES.

The second volume of the New Series of

THE ALBION will commence on the first Saturday of the ensuing year, 1834.

This Journal, which commences the News,

Politics, and Literature of Europe, more particularly of Great Britain, has been established nearly Twelve Years, and has obtained a reputation and circulation far surpassing the most sanguine expectations of its founders. This flattering encouragement has enabled the Proprietor, on three separate occasions, to improve, enlarge, and embellish the work, and to throw into its pages such an increased quantity of political, literary, and scientific matter, as to render it, in the estimation of its friends, one of the most efficient weekly journals in the English language.

In its details, the ALBION will be found to embrace—Notices and copious extracts from all the new publications of value, issuing from the British Press;—the Debates in both Houses of Parliament, with the most remarkable Speeches at length—and the general intelligence of the British Empire, the Continent of Europe, and other parts of the globe. In its lighter portions will be found the most amusing and agreeable Tales of the British Periodicals, which are so remarkable for their lively and sparkling talent, selected with a diligence and care that has thrown forth the most unqualified approbation. Any thing that tends in the remotest degree to shock female delicacy, or to offend national affection, is carefully excluded, by which course the paper has become an inmate of the most respectable and intellectual families, and may be found in the Drawing Rooms and on the tables of the most literary persons on the North American Continent.

Poetry, History, Biography, Music and the Drama, receive distinct and proper attention, while Scientific and Geographical Discoveries,

Voyages, and Travels, &c. &c. are faithfully recorded. "The Wit and Anecdote of the great European World,"—the London and Parisian

Fashions, and a weekly summary of the Miscellaneous Intelligence of the day, complete the miscellany.

Each yearly volume contains about five-and-twenty pieces of new and fashionable English,

French, Spanish, and Italian Music, together with frequent Maps, Plans, Sketches, and Dis-grams, illustrative of subjects treated of in the general scope of the work. At the end of each volume, a handsome Title Page, and a synopsis and well-arranged Index are presented to each subscriber.

The ALBION is published every Saturday morning in the Quarto form, on a large imperial sheet of exceedingly fine paper, printed with beautiful type, at Six Dollars per annum, payable in advance.

Office, No. 76 Cedar Street, near Broadway,

New York.

PROSPECTUS

THE EMIGRANT.

This Journal is devoted to the Domestic and Local interests of England, Ireland, Scotland, and Wales.

It was established at the commencement of the present year, and its second volume will begin with the year 1832. Its success so far has been highly flattering, and fully satisfies the expectation of the Proprietor.

The EMIGRANT is intended for the use of the numerous British residents upon this continent —its details consisting of all the local news of the three Kingdoms; the numerous occurrences in the Mining, Agricultural, and Manufacturing districts, as well as the mighty Metropolis of England. The Internal Improvements, the Corporation proceedings of the different towns and cities, remarkable Trials, &c. are faithfully recorded; also the Sporting Intelligence, state of the Markets, List of Bankrupts and Insolvents, &c. &c., all arranged under distinct heads, and adapted to such residents in this country as cannot obtain access to the English papers.

The politics of the EMIGRANT are liberal and impartial, and not warped by any feeling of party spirit whatever.

It is published every Wednesday at No. 76

Cedar-street, New York, at Three Dollars per annum, payable in advance.

The extensive circulation of the EMIGRANT among people from the Old Country, renders it an excellent vehicle for land and other advertisements, conveying information to persons recently arrived in this country.

As the ALBION is published on Saturday, and the EMIGRANT on Wednesday, the two papers convey to those persons who subscribe to both, the news from Europe twice a week, and render the intelligence from Great Britain complete. Every subject of importance, either of general or local interest, appears in one or the other of these very cheap and comprehensive Journals.

Persons wishing to subscribe for either will oblige us by forwarding their names as early as convenient, in order that we may be enabled to make the necessary arrangements for printing the requisite number of papers. Those intending to subscribe will by sending forward their names immediately, be supplied with the next five or intervening numbers without charge.

We make this small sacrifice in order to bring the date of the subscription to a convenient period, the first of the year.

Agents for the ALBION and EMIGRANT in

New-Brunswick.—Moses H. Peck, Saint

John; F. E. Beckwith, Frederickton; George

Ward, Saint John; and George Ward, Saint

Andrews.
