

An Act for raising a Revenue.—(Concluded from our last page.)

sale and purchase, and before any part of the articles so purchased shall be consumed, make report to the Treasurer, or his Deputy at the place nearest the sale, in writing, under affidavit, of the articles so purchased, and the duties arising thereon shall then be paid or secured to be paid in the same manner and subject to the same regulations as duties arising on such articles when legally imported; and upon the exportation of any such articles so purchased, reported, and upon which the duties have been paid or secured as aforesaid, the Purchaser shall be entitled to the like drawback as herein before allowed upon the exportation of the like articles, subject always to the like regulations, provisions, and restrictions as are herein before made and provided: and if any dutiable articles which may have been imported into the Province, or purchased from some resident merchant or trader, for the use of His Majesty's Army, or Navy, and upon which no duties have been paid, or upon which the duties may have been repaid, shall at any time be sold by order of Government, the purchaser or purchasers shall report the same, and pay or secure to be paid the same amount of duties as such articles are liable to when imported into the Province, and shall be entitled to the same drawbacks upon the exportation thereof, subject to the same regulations, provisions and restrictions as are herein before provided and made as aforesaid: and any purchaser of dutiable articles at any Custom House Sale, or at the Sale of Government Stores as aforesaid, who shall refuse or neglect to make report of such articles so purchased, and to pay or secure the duties thereon, shall, if the same articles cannot be found, forfeit and pay the sum of one hundred pounds, and if the whole of the same are found, then in lieu of such penalty, the said articles shall be forfeited, and may be seized, taken away and prosecuted by order of the Treasurer or any Deputy Treasurer, and the proceeds thereof applied in manner as herein after directed.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That any articles subject to duties by this Act which may be imported expressly for the use of His Majesty's Army, Navy or Ordnance, and actually delivered to the Commissary or any authorized Officer of Government, shall be and the same are hereby exempted from the Duties herein before imposed upon the like articles; and any such articles which may be supplied by any resident merchant or trader for the uses aforesaid, and actually delivered to the Commissary or any other authorized Officer of Government, shall also be exempt from the payment of any duties herein imposed; and if the duties thereon shall have been paid, then such resident merchant or trader shall receive back the amount of such duties, or if indebted to the Treasury shall have credit for the same, by deducting the amount from the gross amount of his bond, the instalments of which shall be regularly paid upon the balance thereof: Provided always, that before any such dutiable articles shall be exempted from the payment of duties, and before any repayment of duties shall be made, or credit given therefor, the Commissary or other authorized Officer of Government shall, if the said articles have been imported, produce the invoice or bill of lading of such articles to the Treasurer or his Deputy at the place of importation, and shall make and subscribe an affidavit before the said Treasurer or Deputy as aforesaid, that the several articles contained in such invoice or bill of lading are imported expressly for the use of His Majesty's Army, Navy or Ordnance, and received into his charge for that purpose: and if any such articles shall be supplied for the like purpose by any resident merchant or trader, such merchant or trader shall report, and make and subscribe an affidavit before the Treasurer or his Deputy as aforesaid, that the articles mentioned in the report and affidavit were actually delivered to the Commissary or other authorized Officer, and the said Commissary or other authorized Officer shall also make and subscribe an affidavit, before the Treasurer or Deputy Treasurer, that the articles mentioned in the said report and affidavit of the merchant or trader are actually delivered in to his charge for the uses aforesaid.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That the quantity of all dutiable liquors and molasses shall be ascertained by gunter's gallipers, and shall be gauged by a sworn gauger or gaugers appointed by the Lieutenant Governor or Commander in Chief; which gaugers shall not gauge any dutiable articles in which they have any interest or property.

XXV. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Treasurer of the Province for the time being to appoint fit persons, to be approved of by the Lieutenant Governor or Commander in Chief, to be his Deputies in each port or place in the Province where a Deputy may be required for the due enforcement of this Act, or any other Act relating to the Revenue; which Persons so appointed and approved of shall give good and sufficient security, by bond to His Majesty, for the faithful discharge of their duties respectively, as follows: His Majesty, the Deputy Treasurers of Saint Andrews and Miramichi respectively, in a sum not less than four thousand pounds; of Richibucto in the County of Kent, in a sum not less than two thousand pounds; the Deputy Treasurer of West Isles, in a sum of one thousand pounds; and all other Deputies respectively, in a sum not less than five hundred pounds; and all such bonds shall also be executed by at least two good and sufficient sureties to be approved of by the Treasurer, and shall be taken in the name of His Majesty, his heirs and successors; and the said Deputies respectively shall be accountable to the said Treasurer, when thereunto required, for all sums to be received by them by virtue of this or any other Act; and all such Deputies shall have the same powers to the fullest extent in every respect to make seizures and proceed to condemnation and sale as are given to the Treasurer by virtue of this Act; and each Deputy shall and may retain for his services ten pounds for every hundred pounds which he shall receive or secure for duties imposed by this Act, over and above his proportion of the seizures and forfeitures which he may make under and by virtue of this Act; provided always that the sum so retained as aforesaid, shall not in any one year exceed three hundred pounds for the services of any one Deputy; and it shall and may be lawful for the said Treasurer, in case of sickness or necessary absence from the City and County of Saint John, to appoint a fit person to act as his Deputy there, for whose acts the said Treasurer shall be responsible; which Deputy, during his continuance in office, shall have the same power and authority in every respect as the Treasurer hath by virtue of this Act, when personally executing the duties of his office, but shall receive no compensation or allowance from the public Treasury for his services, except his proportion of the proceeds of any seizures which he may make, or of any Penalties and Forfeitures which may be incurred by this Act during his continuance in office as aforesaid.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That the tide Surveyors, and Waiters, and all other Revenue Officers who may be appointed by the Lieutenant Governor or Commander in Chief for the port of Saint John, or for any other port or place in the Province, shall in all respects be under the orders, directions and controul of the Treasurer or his Deputies respectively for the places where such officers may be appointed; and the said tide Surveyors, and Waiters, and other Revenue Officers, shall attend to the unloading of ships and vessels with dutiable articles, and shall not allow any such dutiable articles to be landed from any ship or vessel arriving at any port or place for which they are respectively appointed, without a permit to land dutiable articles shall be made by the Treasurer or Deputy immediately upon the duties thereon being paid or secured agreeably to the provisions of this Act: and if any tide Surveyor, or Waiter, or other Revenue Officer attending the unloading of any vessel with dutiable articles, shall discover any such articles on board which have not been entered and particularly mentioned in the master's report of the cargo of such vessel, or in the report of any of the owner's or consignee's of such articles, or if any such articles shall be by such Officer found to have been landed from such ship or vessel, or otherwise imported contrary to the provisions of this Act, it shall be the duty of such tide Surveyors, and Waiters, and other Revenue Officers respectively, and they are hereby required, forthwith to take possession of such articles and detain the same, and make report thereof to the Treasurer or Deputy Treasurer, as the case may be; and the said Treasurer or Deputy Treasurer shall immediately seize the said articles, and proceed to dispose of the same in the manner directed in and by the fourth section of this Act; and the proceeds of such seizure shall be applied, one moiety thereof to His Majesty for the use of the Province, and the other moiety equally between the Treasurer or Deputy Treasurer prosecuting the same, and the Officer first detaining such articles.

XXVII. And be it enacted, That for the recovery of all such duties as are imposed by this Act, and shall not be paid at the several times limited for the payment thereof respectively as aforesaid, the said Treasurer or his Deputy of the port or place in which such bonds may have been taken, is hereby directed to transmit the same within thirty days to His Majesty's Attorney General for prosecution; and His Majesty's Attorney General is hereby required forthwith to cause process to be issued against all and every person or persons so standing indebted, and to pursue the same to final Judgment and Execution, unless payment of the sum due and costs be previously made; and in case the said bonds shall not be transmitted to be prosecuted within the said thirty days, the surety on such bond shall be discharged, and recourse only to be had against the principal to the same, or against the Treasurer or Deputy Treasurer so neglecting to transmit the same for prosecution: Provided always, that all bonds entered into for the security of duties imposed by this Act shall be void and may be cancelled or destroyed, unless such bonds shall be sued within one year from the time limited in such bonds for the payment of such duties, or the last instalment limited in the same; and if such bond shall not be prosecuted to final Judgment and execution in three years from the time limited as aforesaid, then and in such case such bonds shall be void and may be cancelled and destroyed.

XXVIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Treasurer of the Province, and of the several Deputy Treasurers, to make half yearly returns to the Office of the Provincial Secretary, of the bonds by them respectively taken for duties, and then remaining unpaid, stating the names of the obligors, the amount secured, the terms of payment, and date of such bonds, and the amount (if any) which has been paid thereon, and any other particulars which may be necessary; which returns shall be annually laid before the House of Assembly with the Treasurer's Accounts; and the Treasurer or any Deputy Treasurer who shall neglect to make such returns for a longer period than two months after the expiration of each and every period, shall severally forfeit and pay the sum of fifty pounds, to be applied to the use of the Province.

XXIX. And be it enacted, That the Treasurer of the Province and his Deputies respectively, are hereby authorized and empowered to administer all the oaths required to be made, and taken for carrying the several provisions of this Act into effect; and every person who shall be convicted of making a false oath to any of the particulars herein required to be sworn to, shall be liable to all the pains and penalties to which persons are liable for wilful and corrupt perjury.

XXX. And be it enacted, That the several penalties and forfeitures incurred under the provisions of this Act, may be recovered by information of the Treasurer of the Province, or any Deputy Treasurer, or of His Majesty's Attorney or Solicitor General, or any of the King's Council learned in the Law, before any two of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace residing near the place where such penalties and forfeitures may be incurred; and the said Justices shall summon the party accused to appear before them, and if such party shall make default, they shall and may proceed, and upon due proof of one or more credible witness or witnesses, convict such accused party in the penalty incurred, and shall cause the same to be levied by Warrant of distress and sale of such offender's goods and chattels, and for want of such distress whereon to levy the same, shall commit such offender to prison for a term not exceeding six months, unless such penalty or forfeiture, with costs be sooner paid: Provided always, that in any case where the party accused shall upon such Summons as aforesaid appear to make defence, then the further prosecution for such penalty or forfeitures shall be had before the Inferior Court of Common Pleas for the County where such penalty or forfeiture shall have been incurred, or in the Supreme Court of this Province; and if in either of the said Courts the party accused shall be convicted, he shall be dealt with in the same manner as is in this Section provided in cases of conviction on Default.

XXXI. And be it enacted, That all vessels and boats of fifteen tons and under, and all carriages, horses and cattle which may be seized under this or any other Act relating to the Revenue of the Province, may be prosecuted upon information of the Treasurer of the Province, or any Deputy Treasurer, or the Commander of any Revenue vessel, in the same manner as is provided in and by the fourth Section of this Act.

XXXII. And be it enacted, That upon the entry of any goods of foreign growth or produce subject to duties under this Act, and which are also subject to duties and intended to be warehoused under the Provision of any Act or Acts of the Imperial Parliament, the importers of such goods, instead of paying or securing the Provincial Duty as directed in and by this Act, shall give bond with at least one sufficient surety, to be approved of by the Treasurer thereupon, with condition for safe deposit of the goods in the Warehouse, and for the payment of such duties before taking the goods out of the Warehouse for home consumption or for the exportation thereof, and with further condition, that if the goods be not taken out of the Warehouse within two years the Duties shall at the expiration of that period be paid.

XXXIII. And be it enacted, That if any goods which shall have been so warehoused shall be taken out of the Warehouse, except for exportation, without payment of the said duties so imposed by this Act, such goods shall be forfeited, and may be seized and disposed of in the manner directed in and by this Act.

XXXIV. And be it enacted, That all forfeitures and penalties incurred and recovered under and by virtue of this Act, after deducting the costs and charges of prosecution, together with all charges that may have accrued, shall be paid as follows: (that is to say,) one half part to the Officer seizing and prosecuting the same Articles to condemnation, or complaining against and prosecuting such offender or offenders, and the other half into the hands of the Treasurer of the Province for the use thereof.

XXXV. And be it enacted, That all articles which shall have been seized, condemned and forfeited under and by virtue of this Act, shall (under the direction of the Treasurer or Deputy Treasurer at the port or place where such articles shall have been so seized, condemned and forfeited) be sold by public auction to the highest bidder, and the proceeds of such sales disposed of as is provided in and by this Act.

XXXVI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act shall extend or be construed to extend to prevent any person or persons considering himself or themselves aggrieved by the decision of any of the Justices of the Peace under the provisions of this Act, from the Benefit of an appeal from such decision to the Supreme Court of the Province.

XXXVII. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Treasurer of the Province to appoint such and so many fit Persons, to be approved of by the Lieutenant Governor or Commander in Chief of the Province, to be his Deputy or Deputies at or near the Western Boundary of the Province, as he may deem necessary for securing the duties upon horses, horned cattle, and all articles which may be imported into the Province by inland navigation or by land, or for the detection and punishment of offences against the Revenue Laws of the Province; which Deputies so appointed or to be appointed, shall have the like powers, in every respect, as other Deputy Treasurers have, except so far as relates to the entry of goods, wares and merchandize imported by sea.

XXXVIII. And be it enacted, That any person importing by inland navigation or by land, into any part of this Province, horses, horned cattle, or any articles which are subject to a Duty under this or any other Act or Acts of the General Assembly of this Province, who shall neglect to report the same and pay the duties thereon to the Treasurer of the Province, or the Deputy Treasurers at Saint Andrews, Saint Stephens or Woodstock, as the case may be, shall for each and every neglect or offence be liable to the same forfeitures and penalties as persons who may be convicted of fraudulently landing any dutiable Articles from on board of any ship or vessel arriving at any port or place in the Province, to be recovered and applied in the same manner as the penalties are in and by the fourth section of this Act; and all goods so imported as aforesaid may be seized by the Treasurer of the Province or any Deputy, as the case may be, and prosecuted to condemnation and sale in the same manner as goods seized and forfeited may be under and by virtue of this Act.

XXXIX. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons shall import into this Province, by inland navigation or by land, any horses, horned cattle, or any goods, wares or merchandize of any description subject to duty under any of the Revenue Laws of this Province, and shall neglect to report the same, and pay the duties on such articles so imported, at the Office of the Deputy Treasurer at Saint Andrews, Saint Stephens, or Woodstock, such person or persons so offending shall be liable to the same penalty as persons are in and by the fourth section of this Act who shall land articles from any ship or vessel before report of the cargo of such ship or vessel, to be recovered in the like manner as the penalties are in and by the fourth section of this Act; and all horses, horned cattle, goods, wares and merchandize of every kind, which may be seized for non payment of the duties, or for default made to the Deputy Treasurer as aforesaid, may be proceeded against in the same manner as seizures are in and by the provision of this Act.

XL. And be it enacted, That when any goods, wares and merchandize, shall be seized as forfeited, and prosecuted to condemnation and sale by the Treasurer of the Province or any Deputy Treasurer, under the provisions of this Act or any other Act for raising a Revenue, notice of such sale shall be given to the principal Officers of the Customs nearest to where such condemnation and sale shall take place; and if it shall appear that such goods, wares and merchandize so condemned as forfeited are subject to duties by the means and powers of any Act or Acts of the Imperial Parliament for the general regulation of trade, and that such duties have not been paid, then and in such case it shall be the duty of the said Treasurer or Deputy Treasurer, as the case may be, to deduct the amount of such Parliamentary duties from the proceeds of the sale of such goods, wares and merchandize so condemned and sold as aforesaid, and account for the same in the same manner as the amount thereof had been received from such principal Officer of the Customs as the proceeds of other seizures are under the provisions of this Act.

XLI. And be it enacted, That all the monies received by virtue of this Act, or any former Act or Acts for raising a Revenue, shall remain in the Treasury until the same shall be disposed of or appropriated by an Act or by Acts of the General Assembly, for that purpose enacted.

XLII. And be it enacted, That the liability of any article or articles to seizure, under and by virtue of this Act, shall be and continue for the term of two years from the time the same are imported or brought into the Province and no longer.

XLIII. And be it enacted, That the right of recovering any of the duties, penalties and forfeitures imposed, inflicted or incurred under the provisions of any former Act or Acts of the General Assembly for raising a Revenue, is hereby expressly saved.

XLIV. And be it enacted, That this Act shall continue and be in force from the first day of April next, until the first day of April which will be in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and thirty-four.
