MARK NEEDHAM, Esq.

We are without later advices from England since our last:—The New York Advertiser announces the Capture of St. Ubes on the 3rd of August, by 150 men of Don Pedro's forces.
At the intelligence of their approach, the Miguelites fled without making the least resistance. The people of St. Ubes welcomed the entrance of Don Pedro's troops by ringing of bells, and a general illumination of the city for three successive nights.
It is stated that Don Pedro had an organized force of 18,000 men at Lisbon.

BREVARIUM.—In transferring into the columns of the Gazette of the previous week the remarks relative to the second meeting of the New Brunswick Presbytery, which took place at Miramichi on the 4th inst., we inadvertently made a small omission. The appointment of the labourers of the Rev. Mr. Hannay the Province Missionary from Scotland, should read thus:—During the first two months he will itinerate under the direction of Mr. Souter, Newcastle;—during the next three months under that of Mr. Steven, Redbank;—two months under Mr. Williams, Fredericton;—two months under Mr. Wilson, Saint John;—and the remainder of the year under Mr. McLean, St. Andrews.

St. John, Sept. 17.
Presentation of Colours to the Militia Soldiers, by Mrs. O'Fly, lady of the Lieut. Colonel.

Gentlemen of the sea fensible Battalion.
You are here met for the first time since your organization into a Battalion, for General Inspection; and colon's bearing down emblematic of your profession, and I am proud to say, manufactured in this City, have been prepared for you.

With every feeling of affectionate regard towards my native City, I cannot but feel myself highly honored in the opportunity of doing me of presenting you with Colours, which I now do in His Majesty's name, knowing if the day should arrive in which you were to come in contact with an invading force, the Colours of your King would not only be a token of acknowledged superiority in your charge, and would only be surrendered with your lives; and the Colours of your Battalion, with which the dependents of HOME and FAMILY must be associated, would also be defended to the last extremity.

Madam,
In the name of the Sea Fensible Battalion, whom we now represent, we thank you for the Colours you have been pleased to present us, and we receive them with the more value, coming as they do, from the wife of our Colonel, the Daughter of one of our first founders of the Province, and of one of our oldest Militia Officers.

Be assured, Madam, that if occasion require, this Corps will not disgrace the high renown so deservedly obtained in a long and glorious contest by our Canadian Brethren; and should an invading force land on our shores, we would give them a warm reception, and defend our Colours and our honours to the last extremity.

(From the Watchman.)
