Colonel Maden's Corsair, of the Royal Yacht Squadron, arrived here on Tuesday from Lisbon, which place she left on the 1st just. The following news will be interesting, as showing the state of the public mind in that city. Don Pedro was publicly walking about with the greatest confidence, unarmed and unguarded, and was greeted with the war. mest acclamations. A circumstance occured on his landing which made him at once popular with the people. When he was stepping from the barge on shore some of the police endeavoured to clear the way with their swords, when he called on them to put up their weapons, and taking out his own sword flung it into the sea. About 800 police or militia had been raised for the protection of the city. The behaviour of all classes was beyond praise.

The conduct of Don Miguel's police had excited a great sensation at Lishon. It appears that the Don Cadava! with about $000 police, after they had fled from Lisbon retreated to Caldas, about 25 miles north of Lisbon, the greatest depredations on the persons and property of the inhabitants. On the S1st July they were on the road to Leiria. We learn, says Galignani's Messenger, that

Don Miguel's Counsel at Bayonne has declared his allegiance to Donna Maria.
