Downing-Street, 1st January, 1834. SIR

HAVE the honor to acquaint you, that it has not been deemed proper to confirm, in its present shape, an Act passed by the Legislature of New Brunswick, in March. 1832, intituled "An Act to extend the privisubject." It is not without great regret that concerned. It is not without great regret that His Majesty has been advised to withhold his assent from this Law, and His Majesty trusts that the Legislative Council and Assembly will concur with you in the enactment of a further Bill, which will remove the obstacles that oppose the confirmation of the one now under con-

"The present Act is confined in its operation to four denominations of Christians, namely -the Wesleyan Methodists, the Bantists, the Presbyterian Seceders from the Kirk of Scotland, and the Independents :- It requires that, before a Minister of any of these persuasions may solemnize Marriages, he shall obtain a Licence for the purpose from the Governorand the applicant must satisfy the Governor that he really belongs to one of the Bodies, for whose relief the Act has been passed, and must produce to the Governor his Certificate or Letters of Ordination, which must " be derived from some Critish Convocation, Synod, Conference, or Association, and be according to the forms and usages of the denomination of Christians to which the Minister belongs." "To these Enactments there appear to be two objections :--" The first objection is, that the Governor, unless he possessed a most unusual acquaint. ance with a very obscure branch of Ecclesiastities, opinions and the usages to which they give bable time of Payment. birth, are in a state of ceaseless change. - What are the authorities, written or ora!, to which the Governor must resort, in case of dispute, to determine whether the Petitioner for a Lisence was regularly Ordained or not? The second objection is—that there appears Christians, for the exclusive enjoyment of the proceeded so far in our extracts from the particular Sects which the Act is designed to we are left without space to fulfil the interas a burthensome and improper form; but cation. We had prepared a summary of inthere are persons dissenting from the Church teresting extracts from late English papers, situate in the Parish of Norton, at the Patticake, of England, who regard that service as a mode of Worship repugnant to true Religion.—Yet by the limitations in the proposed Law, he is indulged, whose conscience is not wounded by compliance, and he is compelled to comply who to set aside:—From Europe, however, to commence at 2 o'clock, P.
