ANNO QUARTO.

GULIELMI IV. REGIS.
CAP. VII.

An Act to repeal, at the Period within mentioned, so much of an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act to alter certain Rates of Postage, and to amend, explain, and enlarge several Provisions in an Act made in the Ninth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne, and in other Acts relating to the Revenue of the Post Office, as authorizes the taking of certain Rates of Inland Postage within His Majesty's Dominions in North America.

[26th March, 1834.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act to alter certain Rates of Postage, and to amend, explain, and enlarge several Provisions in an Act made in the Ninth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne, and in other Acts relating to the Revenue of the Post Office, His Majesty's Postmaster General was authorized to take and receive certain Rates of Postage in the said Act specified for the Postage and Conveyance of Letters and Packets within the British Dominions in America: And whereas the said Rates have been collected in the British Colonies and Provinces in North America by His Majesty's Postmaster General or his Deputies, and the Surplus thereof, after Payment of the Charges of Collection and Management, have been remitted to the General Post Office in London, as Part of the General Revenue of the Post Office: and whereas it is expedient that henceforward the British Colonies and Provinces in His Majesty's Dominions in North America having local and independent Legislatures should be enabled by the Authority of such Legislatures to levy, for the Inland Postage of Letters and Packets within such Colonies and Provinces, such Rates as to the said Legislatures shall seem meet, and also to make such Regulations for the Management of the Post Office within such respective Colonies and Provinces, by His Majesty's Postmaster General or his Deputies, as to such Legislatures may seem expedient; and that the surplus Revenue arising from the Collection of such Rates should be applied and appropriated for the Use and Benefit of such respective Colonies and Provinces: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after His Majesty's Consent shall in the usual Form be signified by the Governors or Deputy Governors of His Majesty's Colonies or Provinces in North America to Bills or Acts of the Legislatures of such respective Colonies or Provinces authorizing the demanding and taking within such respective Colonies or Provinces, by His Majesty's Postmaster General or his Deputy or Deputies, the like Rates of Postage as are authorized to be received and taken by the said recited Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, or such other Rates of Postage as in and by such Bills or Acts respectively may be mentioned and authorized to be received and taken, and for making such Regulations for the Management of the Post Office within such Colonies and Provinces, by His Majesty's Postmaster General or his Deputies, as shall be therein directed, then the said Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, so far as the said Act authorizes the Demanding and Receipt of any Rates for the Inland Carriage and Conveyance of Letters and Packets within such Colonies or Provinces respectively, shall thenceforth be absolutely repealed, and be no longer of any Effect.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after His Majesty's Consent shall be so signified to such Bills or Acts of Colonial or Provincial Legislatures as herein-before mentioned, all the Revenue which may arise from the Collection of the Rates of Inland Postage within the said respective Colonies or Provinces (after deducting the Expenses of Collection, and of the Establishment and Management of the Post Office within and throughout the said respective Colonies or Provinces under the Direction of His Majesty's Postmaster General or his Deputies,) shall and may, instead of being remitted as heretofore to the General Post Office in London, as Part of the general Revenue of the Post Office, be appropriated, applied, and distributed to and among the said respective Colonies and Provinces in proportion to the gross Amount of the Rates and Duties of Postage which shall be raised, collected, and received within each and every such respective Colony or Province, unless and until the said Colonies or Provinces shall, by Bills or Acts of their respective Legislatures to which His Majesty's Consent shall in the usual Form be signified, unite and agree in directing any other Mode in which such Surplus shall be applied and disposed of.

III. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, varied, or repealed by any Act or Acts to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

By the English November Mail—bringing London dates to the 17th of that month, we have received the highly important intelligence of the dissolution of the Melbourne Administration: and of the Duke of WELLINGTON having received His Majesty's commands to form a new Ministry. The succession to the Peerage of Lord ALTHORP, in consequence of the death of his Father, Earl SPENCER, is said to have occasioned this change. Despatches have been sent off to Sir ROBERT PEEL, who it is expected will be elevated to a high office on his return from the Continent. From the exertions of such eminent and illustrious Statesmen at the head of affairs, we may anticipate the happiest results to the British Empire; and that when matters are finally arranged, we doubt not but the Government will be carried on with satisfaction to the Nation. We have copied such articles as particularly bear upon the subject, to which we refer our readers.

The Poll closed here on Wednesday last—the successful candidates were Messrs. Wilmot, Allen, Taylor and Slason,—a scrutiny was demanded between Messrs. Slason and Pickard.

ANOTHER DISSOLUTION OF THE FRENCH MINISTRY.—The Messenger of Friday which was on Saturday received by an extraordinary express, states that there is another dissolution in the new French cabinet, which the previous day's paper had announced as only just completed. The extract from the Messenger is thus given:—"5 o'clock, p. m.—There is no longer a ministry. We have just heard, through a source which admits of no doubt, that at the Council held to day, all the ministers tendered their resignations. Nothing has yet transpired respecting the cause of this strange proceeding."

The venerable Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge at their monthly meeting on Tuesday, voted £1000 towards supplying the negro population in the West India Islands with copies of the Liturgy of the Church of England.—Hal. Roy. Gaz.

Married.

At Christ Church, Fredericton, on Thursday the 18th instant, by the Venerable Archdeacon Coster, Mr. Christopher Murray, of Kingsclear, to Miss Charlotte, fourth daughter of the late Stair Agnew, Esquire.

On Thursday evening last, at Nashua, by James Harrison, Esquire, Mr. David Smith of that place, eldest son of Mr. Nathan Smith to Miss Mary Ann Emerson of New York.

At Miramichi, on Tuesday the 16th instant, by the Rev. Samuel Bacon, Rector of St. Paul's, Charles Augustus Harding, Esq. Barrister at Law, to Margaret, eldest daughter of Theophilus Desbrisay, Esquire, late Naval Officer of that Port.

Died.

On Friday morning last, JAMES TAYLOR, Senior, Esquire, in the 79th year of his age. Mr. T. was a native of Port Glasgow, Scotland, whence he emigrated to New York in early life, and was in that country at the commencement of the Revolutionary War, in which he was actively engaged, and suffered the greatest hardships and privations in many a well fought field, in support of the Royal cause. He came to this Province with the Loyalists in the memorable year of 1783, and established himself in this town, (then a wilderness) where he has ever since resided. He erected the third house in this place, which was only a few months since removed, in order to make room for a new building on the site where it had so long remained.

As an active and valuable member of the community, his services, both in a public and private capacity, will be long seen and remembered. These active habits so well employed in the discharge of the various trusts reposed in him, he preserved until a late period of his life. He was a man of undeviating integrity, and commanded the highest respect and esteem in public and social life, and left the world universally respected and deeply regretted.

His remains were interred on Monday last, numerously and respectfully attended. The Members of the Society of Saint Andrew (of which he was long a Vice President) dressed in deep mourning, and wearing part of their insignia, walked in procession in front of the body to the place of interment.

Suddenly, on Tuesday morning last, at New Maryland, Mr. John Segee, senior, in the 71st year of his age.
