E. W. MILLER, Sheriff. Fredericton, 22d November, 1834.

TO THE ELECTORS OF YORK COUNTY.

Gentlemen, WE are once more on the eve of a General Election, and I beg leave a Second time to come forward as a Candidate for the honour of representing this fine County in the General Assembly of the Province.

I am, Gentlemen, deeply sensible of the important nature of the situation, and the great responsibility incurred by the Individual who undertakes to represent British Freeholders; and I regret that my talents are not such, as I would wish to devote to your cause—the cause of our Country;—But, Gentlemen, confident in the uprightness of my principles, in a zealous devotion to your welfare, and in an intimate knowledge of what is requisite to promote your Interests, I shrink not from the responsibility, and beg to assure you, that if I should have the honor to be chosen one of your Representatives, I will Legislate honestly, independently, and to the best of my judgment for the furtherance of all objects likely to tend to your general prosperity. That an ample field is now open for exertion in your behalf, all must acknowledge; and whether I am worthy of being one of your Representatives, I now leave to the decision of your unbiased judgment; and confident that you will exercise the most highly valued privilege of British Subjects, with independence and discernment, I shall bow cheerfully to your decision however I may be affected thereby.

I am, Gentlemen, Most respectfully, Your very obedient servant, JOHN A. BECKWITH. Fredericton, 24th November, 1834.

TO THE INDEPENDENT-FREEHOLDERS OF THE COUNTY OF YORK.

Gentlemen, IN consequence of the unexpected dissolution of the House of Assembly, you are again called upon to make choice of Four duly qualified persons to fill the highly important situation of Representing you in the General Assembly of this Province.

Actuated by a sense of gratitude for your very liberal support on a former occasion, and by a sincere desire to employ my utmost exertions to advance your interests, I beg respectfully to offer myself again as a Candidate for your suffrages, and to assure you, that, if favoured with a continuance of your confidence, my best endeavours shall be devoted to your interest, and to a faithful and conscientious discharge of so important a trust.

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen, Your much obliged, and most obedient servant, JAMES TAYLOR, JUNR. Fredericton, 24th November, 1834.

TO THE FREE AND INDEPENDENT ELECTORS OF THE COUNTY OF YORK.

Gentlemen, HIS Excellency having been pleased to dissolve the General Assembly of this Province, and to order Writs to be issued calling a new Assembly, you will soon be called upon, in the just exercise of one of your dearest rights as British subjects, to select persons duly qualified to represent you in the Provincial Assembly.

By the solicitation of a number of very respectable Freeholders, I am induced to offer myself as a Candidate for your suffrages at the approaching Election. In so doing I am under the influence of no party, nor have I any personal interest to serve, being fully aware that a strict and faithful attention to the duties of a Representative of the people would occasion some loss to my own private business; however, if I can be of any service to the Province at large, but more particularly to this County, I shall be fully compensated.

I need scarcely tell you, Gentlemen, that my future success in life depends upon your prosperity, for you are well aware that the Agricultural, the Mercantile, the Lumbering and the Commercial Interests of the Province are so closely interwoven to admit of separation without serious injury to the whole.

There has, perhaps, never been an era in the Political History of our Province when the people were more loudly called upon to make a wise selection of persons to be entrusted with their Rights and Privileges than the present; for I do not hesitate to say, that heretofore too little encouragement has been afforded to the industrious and enterprising inhabitants of our Province: That, while large portions of our Public Revenues have been lavishly expended to useless purposes, the permanent improvement of the Country has been almost wholly neglected; and it is no doubt still in your recollection, that questions, involving your deepest interests, have been recently agitated in the Province, and are still likely to come before the Legislature,—the settlement of which may very much depend on your present choice of Members to serve you in the Provincial Parliament.

My situation in business, for the last six or seven years, has, I presume, given the most of you an opportunity of forming some acquaintance with me; and how far I am qualified to fill the important and honourable situation of a Representative for the County of York, is for you to determine. I can only say, Gentlemen, that no person can feel more deeply interested for the general welfare of the Province than I do—indeed nothing would be more gratifying to my feelings than to be able to promote the various interests of my native Country.

Should you, Gentlemen, by a majority of your independent Votes, elect me to this responsible situation, I pledge myself to use my utmost exertion, on all occasions, to protect your Rights and to advance your Interests.

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen, With great respect, Your most obedient and very humble servant, JOHN T. SMITH. Fredericton, 22d November, 1834.

TO THE ELECTORS OF YORK.

GENTLEMEN AND FELLOW-COUNTRYMEN, IN common with all other portions of the world we have our changes. The political, as well as the natural, atmosphere has its periodical agitations. Pursuing the even tenor of our way, we have, in an instant, been thrown into commotion, by the just exercise of a legitimate prerogative power. A portion of our Fellow-countrymen being disfranchised, or only partially represented, the decree has gone forth which will open up the way to them, in common with all, for the exercise of one of their dearest rights.

Among the number who will shortly present themselves for your election, I purpose to appear.—But yesterday, unanimously chosen as one of your Representatives,—to-day, am I thrown back upon you; stripped of my Representative character—let down from my political elevation and again standing among you, at once a Constituent and a Candidate. Although I am thus returned upon your hands divested of your delegated power, yet am I unchanged in zeal for your interest—unshaken in my attachment to the Country. The land of my birth—the place of my education—every face almost is familiar to me—every spot around me is hallowed by the recollections of youth—every scene awakens associations which enhance my "love of country"—and strengthen my devotedness to your welfare.

The Genius of our Provincial population—a people truly British—is daily gathering new strength and is rapidly extending its nervous arm over the resources of the Country, bridging hidden treasures to light, and laying open avenues to wealth for the industrious and enterprising. The grey dawn of our prosperity is past—the light of a perfect day is now being diffused—and New-Brunswick is about stepping from adolescence to manhood. As with mankind, so with Kingdoms and Provinces, this period more than any other, requires discreet direction and resolute control.

Never, as at this time, have I been so impressed with the importance and responsibility of the Legislative office. Desirous of making every possible return for the confidence which you had reposed in me, I have not passed my time since the election in June thoughtless of your wants and your interests; but have endeavoured to prepare myself for the proper discharge of those Representative duties which I supposed would ere long devolve upon me. In these preparations, the horizon of duty has become enlarged—the sphere of operation has expanded, and the sense of my responsibility has proportionably become quickened. Truly the charge is great—truly your Representatives should be zealous—discreet—and indefatigable. Their hearts should be knit together as the heart of one man—"UNITED" should be their motto, your Interest their aim.

A word or two more, and I shall conclude. May a spirit of Independence be manifested in your choice—may no persuasion lead you into personal pledges which may shackle your liberty of franchise at the hustings; but may you think and speak and act as the free men of a free Country.

I have the honor to be, with devoted attachment, Gentlemen, your humble servant, L. A. WILMOT. Fredericton, 22d November, 1834.

TO THE FREEHOLDERS OF THE COUNTY OF YORK.

Gentlemen, AS it will very soon become your duty to elect Four persons, to represent you in the General Assembly of this Province, it is my design to offer myself as a Candidate for your suffrages.

If you should not find among the other Candidates those in whose talents and integrity you can place more implicit confidence, I shall be most happy to devote myself to your service.

I am, Gentlemen, Your humble and faithful servant, THOMAS PICKARD. Fredericton, 24th November, 1834.

THE TWOPENNY MAGAZINE;

OR Weekly Museum of Literature, Amusement and Instruction.

AMONG all the periodical publications of New Brunswick and the sister Province, there is none devoted exclusively to general instruction and amusement. The very nature of Newspapers prevents their affording to readers much interesting matter, unconnected with politics and the daily occurrences of life; and more especially are they unadapted for the indiscriminate perusal of youth. The writer has had repeated opportunities of discovering, that something of a different nature is very desirable: many parents wish for the establishment of a small publication, exclusively composed of such instructive and entertaining matter, as they may safely furnish for the regular perusal of their children; while country residents, by whom a frequent accession to books is unobtainable, greatly desire an opportunity of obtaining a periodical supply of useful and amusing information, at a cheap rate. To accomplish this desideratum, and thus to afford an agreeable companion for the leisure hours of such persons, it has been determined to commence the publication above named. The work will consist of a pleasing and varied succession of brief articles, comprising every description of useful information, (exclusive of politics and daily news,) in LITERATURE, SCIENCE and the ARTS; original and selected TALES, SKETCHES, BIOGRAPHIES, ANECDOTES, ESSAYS, REFLECTIONS, Notices of New Publications, Poetry, &c. in short it is intended to form a complete Museum of useful and interesting reading, such as may be acceptable to all ages and classes, and which, while it will occupy the mind with varied subjects, will in every thing be auxiliary to the promotion of religion and morality.

The TWOPENNY MAGAZINE will be printed on good paper, with new type; each number will contain eight handsome octavo pages, which will be paged successively, so as to form a neat volume at the end of the year.—From its exceedingly low price, (only two pence per weekly number,) it will be within the reach of all, and it is therefore to be presumed that it will meet with an extensive circulation; which, alone, can ensure its continuance. The first number will appear on Wednesday, December 3d, after which it will be published on every succeeding Wednesday and sold at the store of the Editor and Proprietor.

GEORGE BLATCH. Market Square, St. John, Oct. 4.

Editors of Newspapers will confer a favour by bestowing a friendly notice on the above; and they as well as other respectable individuals, are respectfully requested to act as Agents for the work.—Every Agent, obtaining and guaranteeing subscriptions for twenty copies, will receive an additional copy gratis.—Liberal allowances to Booksellers, &c. purchasing quantities.—It is desirable, that as far as practicable, orders should be forwarded to the Editor previous to the publication of the first No.; for the purpose of regulating the number of copies to be struck off.

New Establishment.

GENTLE BOARD AND LODGING.

THE Subscriber most respectfully begs leave to inform the public, that he has opened an establishment in the house formerly occupied by Mr. A. Stewart, where he offers the public good accommodations and prompt attendance. Travellers and others, will find his terms reasonable, and can be accommodated with private apartments if required. A few permanent boarders will be taken. Good Stabling for horses.

P. PEDOLIN. N. B. He would further intimate that he has again opened his business in the confectionary line: His goods are of the first quality and can be had either wholesale or retail. Lunches at noon as usual. Fredericton, 24th March, 1834.

GENERAL AGENCY AND PETITION OFFICE.

AFTER mature consideration, on the advantages to be derived by the Public of New Brunswick, in the saving of time, attendance and expense, from the establishment of an Office at Head Quarters under the above Title, by some one perfectly acquainted with the routine of official business, and unconnected with any other pursuit; and on the inconvenience, to say no more, which persons are liable to from the want of such a channel of communication, the undersigned has opened such an office, and places himself at the disposal of those who may at any time require his services.

The Agency will, for the present, be chiefly confined to the usual business transactions with the Public Departments, but more especially with the Crown Land Office. There is an appointed channel through which matters unconnected with the Crown Land Office, generally pass; but it is clear that an Agent on the spot, acquainted as before mentioned, may, even here, be occasionally of use.

It is presumed that a constant residence of nine years at the Seat of Government, always in some way publicly engaged—and of which, three years were steadily spent in the Crown Land Office—must have some recommendation. Any thing further, is perhaps better left to time and experience. It should however be added, that as the Agent is wholly unconnected with, and independent of the Public Departments, he will be free to act for the interests of all who may employ him, with strict impartiality and unbiased zeal.

Testimonials of the first character will with great pleasure be exhibited to such as may require it. RICHARD THOMAS EDGHELL. Fredericton, 21st July, 1834.

The Office adjoins the Sheriff's Office. All Letters must be post paid.

Blanks of various kinds for Sale at this Office.
