

the seductions of the anarchists by cries of "A bas la Republique!" It seems now that the insurgents have, since writing the above, resolved to defer any further attempt until night, when the Republican Society, called the "Friends of the People," are, it is said, to take the field. The alarm of the peaceable part of the inhabitants seems to increase.

During the past week we have received accounts from Europe by various arrivals at American and Colonial ports, which have brought London papers to the 23d and Paris to the 21st ult. We are thereby enabled to present our readers with further details of the sanguinary tumults in Paris and Lyons. At the latest dates order had been restored in Paris, and at Lyons the operators were returning to their work. The loss of property is estimated at 50 Millions of francs.

Parliament re-assembled on the 12th and proceeded to active business. The affairs of Canada had been brought before the House of Commons, and a Select Committee appointed to consider the whole subject. We have copied an abstract from Mr. Roebucks' speech, who introduced the subject, and were put in possession of Mr. Stanley's speech in reply, but at so late an hour for the press, that we must postpone its insertion until our next.

From the New York Albion, 24th May.

RIOTS AT BRUSSELS.

A mob of lawless wretches assembled, and denounced all who were supposed to be attached to the House of Orange, among which are some of the most wealthy and distinguished persons of the City; and proceeded to attack and destroy their property. This disgraceful outrage lasted during a whole day, under the eyes of the government, without any attempt being made to suppress it, and 16 houses were at length destroyed. The King, Leopold, rode out, passed through the lawless miscreants, received their cheers, and went on without giving any orders to molest them, notwithstanding there were in the town four battalions of infantry and four squadrons of horse, besides artillery. The London Papers are loud in their condemnation of this mistaken lenity and culpable supineness, particularly the Morning Herald, and Leopold has in consequence ordered the correspondent of that paper residing at Brussels, to quit his kingdom in 24 hours! So much for the liberty of the press in Belgium. The following is the list of the palaces and houses destroyed; the furniture, paintings, and other rare and costly articles are utterly despoiled:—

1. The palace of the Duke d'Ursel.
2. The palace of the Marquess of Treizignier.
3. The palace of the Prince de Ligne.
4. The hotel of the Count d'Almont.
5. The palace of the Count d'Overchie.
6. The palace of the Count de Marni.
7. The house of Mr. Jones, the English Coach builder.
8. The house of Mr. Tielmont.
9. The bureau of the Lynx newspaper.
10. The palace of the Count de Bethune.
11. The Quatre Vents public-house.
12. The banking-house of Mr. Hooreickz.
13. The club-house next the post office.
14. The house of Mr. Weemack.
15. The house of Mr. Vinck de Westrevel.
16. The house of Mr. Dewasine Pletinckz.

Married.

At Halifax, on the 24th ulto, by the Venerable Archdeacon Willis, Thomas Barlow Esq. of Saint John, N. B. to Eliza Hoose, eldest daughter of Mr. John Wm. Morris.

At St. John sameday, by the Rev. Dr. Gray Rector, Captain Israel S. Lawson, to Eleanor, youngest daughter of the late Lawrence Dowling, Esq. of that City.

Same place on the 26th ulto, by the Rev. Mr. Wilson, Mr. John Craft, to Miss Margaret Clark, both of the Parish of St. John. At Carleton, on the 18th ulto, by the Rev. F. Coster, Mr. David Nickerson, of Greenwich, (King's County), to Miss Margaret Ann, fourth daughter of Mr. John Vail, of Carleton.

To the Sheriff of Carleton County: Greeting.

IF Henry Smith shall give you security that his Suit shall be prosecuted, then Summon by good Summoners, Joseph Young and Thomas Phillips, that they be before us at Fredericton, on the Saturday next after the second Tuesday in July next, to shew wherefore, whereas the said Henry Smith, Joseph Young and Thomas Phillips, hold together and undivided those certain lots and parcels of Land, situate in the Parish of Woodstock, in the mid County of Carleton, and known and distinguished as Lots number Forty-one and number Forty-two, in Block number Seven in the said Parish of Woodstock, and of which the said Joseph Young and Thomas Phillips deny partition to be made between them according to the form of the Statute and Act of Assembly in such case made and provided, and unjustly permit the same not to be done, and contrary to the form of the said Statute and the said Act of Assembly, as he saith: And have you then there this Wit.

2d June, 1834.

To the Electors of York.

GENTLEMEN,
AS you are now called upon to choose a REPRESENTATIVE to supply the vacancy caused by the lamented death of WILLIAM TAYLOR, Esquire, I have to announce my intention of appearing before you on the 16th instant, as a Candidate for your suffrages.

The duty of a Representative is becoming more and more arduous and important as we rise in the scale of political worth. Every branch of our Trade and Commerce is growing with a rapidity which bespeaks the genius of an enterprising people being exercised. To encourage and protect our Trade, foreign and domestic—to arouse and bring into action the plumbering, because uncalled-for, energies of many of our fellow-countrymen—and to direct our enterprise into those channels which will bear us on to general prosperity—these should be, peculiarly, the objects of our Legislature.

But while these things should never be lost sight of by your Representatives, they should watch with parental jealousy over the operation of those Laws which more immediately affect your private rights. Here it is where the Lawyer is better qualified, from his profession, to discover what requires amendment. Every man in the Country is concerned in our judicial Institutions. The way to the redress of our private grievances may be to stop—it may be too rugged and forbidding—prohibiting however it should not be—Justice should always be easily approached, while she kindly and invitingly holds out redress to the injured—or, it may be, in most cases, preferable to endure the wrong than adopt the remedy. Whether this is the case with us they best know whose every-day business it is to conduct applicants for redress to the throne of Justice.

GENTLEMEN—I am ready and willing to serve you.—Your Interests are truly mine. I feel attached to the Country as my father-land, and to the People, as my neighbours and fellow-citizens; and if you should repose that confidence in me which would induce you to elect me as your Representative, while I live I shall not forget or neglect your Interests.—GO ON AND PROSPER.

I have the honor to be,

Gentlemen,

Your very obedient and

Humble Servant,

LEMUEL ALLEN, WILMOT.
